Garden Club Spring Flower Show Planned for Tuesday and Wednesday At 4-H Building on Fairgrounds

THE spring flower show of the Eugene Garden club promises to be one of the most elaborate as yet undertaken by the local club. The show committee met the past week with the chairman, Mrs. Fred Broders, and completed plans for the two-day show, to be held next Tuesday and Wednesday in the 4-H building at the fairgrounds.
A plant exchange and sale will begin Tuesday afternoon with members bringing their surplus bulbs, plants and shrubs tied and plainly labeled.
Much space is being allotted for the display of flowers with three cash prizes offered for the largest collection of different varieties of garden blooms—shrubs and plants—properly named, one specimen of each variety.
Floral arrangements in exhibitors' own containers, as well as shadow boxes will be judged and graded by Miss Maude Kerns, of the art school of the University.
A display of Franciscan pottery for table use and for flower arrangements is the special feature of the show.
Table settings in pottery, and others in glass, will be featured. Due to the large number of entries expected, the show rooms will be opened on Monday evening for exhibitors' use only, with entries to be accepted then and not later than two o'clock Tuesday.
Doors will be open to the public both days from two to ten o'clock with the annual meeting and election of officers for the Garden club scheduled for Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.
Tea Being Served
An innovation for the Garden club is planned for the two-day meetings Tuesday and Wednesday when the Eugene Society for the Hard of Hearing will serve tea and wafers during the afternoons, and coffee and cake both evenings. Mrs. G. E. Heslep is president of the group.
Mrs. S. L. Peters, Mrs. S. F. Martilla and Mrs. A. Hough are to preside at the tea table Tuesday afternoon; Miss Bessie Back-
