

Bill DeCorrevont Leads Northwestern To Victory Over Ohio State

Buckeyes Lose By Slim Margin Northwestern Looms As Midwest Great

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Bill DeCorrevont, All-American football star of Northwestern, led his team to a surprising 6-3 victory over Ohio State today, knocking the Buckeyes' hopes of another Western Conference championship.

A crowd of 42,000 saw the 21-year-old blonde halfback come through at the start of the fourth quarter with a touchdown gallop. It was no long run, but a bull-like thrust through the line from the five-yard stripe, after a sensational pass interception.

DeCorrevont Quick Kicks

At the start of the fourth, Benen, a substitute fullback, plunged for five yards and then DeCorrevont surprised his foes by quick kicking 52 yards to Ohio's 20. A second later, Don Scott, Ohio's brilliant quarterback, heaved one of the Buckeyes' feared passes into the air. Paul Heinmen, Northwestern center, leaped up into the air to intercept it and returned it 17 yards to the Buckeyes' 12. Benton shot around left end for 12 yards to the Ohio five. Then DeCorrevont tore around right end, came to a dead stop, cut back and tore through his own right tackle, planting the ball behind the goal line for six precious points.

DeCorrevont was the star of the game, both defensively and offensively. He tackled viciously and batted down passes, punting brilliantly, and carried the ball 12 times for a total gain of 80 yards, averaging 3.7 yards each time.

BIG-GUNS of the big teams in the Midwest this year are Tom Harmon, Michigan All-American halfback, left; Bob Saggau, Notre Dame's triple-threat halfback, center, and Don Scott, Ohio State back.

Trojans Rally To Dump Illini, 13-6

By EARL HILLIGAN
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Southern California's football machine, which sputtered to ties in its two previous trials this season, hit high gear for a single minute in the third period today for a touchdown which gave the Trojans a 13 to 7 intercollegiate triumph over Illinois before 30,125 spectators in Memorial Stadium.

Trailing at halftime, 7 to 6, after having been outplayed by an outwitted Illinois team, Southern California suddenly gained possession on the Illinois 23 after a poor punt and then smashed to a game-breaking score in a short, but brilliant display of ground power.

Illini Scores First

The game wasn't eight minutes old when Illinois scored a touchdown. Taking the ball on the southern California 41 after a punt, Illinois started marching as sophomore Myron Pfeiffer slashed 14 yards through center. Pfeiffer shot a pass to Ralph Ehni, who ran to the Trojan nine, and on the third play Pfeiffer cracked right tackle for two yards and a touchdown. George Ettinger's kick for point was good.

Southern California came back with a rush. On the first play after the kick-off, Bob Peoples raced 45 yards through tackle, with Bob Robertson picking up 15 more through the same spot. Jack Banta twisted to the Illinois four and three plays later Robertson hit left tackle for four yards and a score, Bob Jones' try for point being wide.

Illinois halted a Trojan third period march at the Illinois 40 before disaster hit the Illini cause. Ehni, usually a reliable punter, kicked from deep in his own territory the ball bounding sideways for only 10 yards to give the Trojans possession on the Illinois 23.

Trojans Show Power

Then Southern California flashed the kind of power it showed in winning the Pacific Coast Conference and Rose Bowl titles last season.

Banta slashed through for five yards, Robertson legged it to the Illinois 13 and then Peoples smashed off the right side of his line to the Illinois 8. Peoples' pass failed, but Robertson then knifed through a big hole at left tackle, scoring standing up—and that was the ball game. Bob De Lauer made the extra point by placement. Illinois, working five passes successfully, drove to the Trojan six in the final period, but didn't have the punch "in the clutch," losing possession on downs.

The statistics favored the invaders. Southern California made 15 first downs to Illinois' 12 and gained 258 yards by rushing to 119 for the Bob Zupke coached eleven. Illinois completed 11 of 26 passes tried, with the Trojans making good on three of 12 aerials.

Eugene's Most Famous Sports Figure Comes Home

Eugene's number one sports luminary returned to his home here Thursday after another successful year playing second base for the New York Yankees—you guessed it, Joe Gordon. The Oregon university baseballer, recognized by many as the game's greatest second baseman, missed out on a cut of the world series money for the first time in his major league career as the Yankees wound up in third place behind Detroit and Cleveland.

Gordon's plans for the immediate future are not known but all ducks, deer and other species of wild life are hereby given notice to make themselves scarce.

Gonzaga Wins Over Idaho University

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Capt. Tony Canadeo, spearheading the offense and guiding his team's airtight defensive play, led the Gonzaga University Bulldogs to a 25 to 0 football victory today over the now thrice-beaten University of Idaho Vandals.

Canadeo himself scored two touchdowns, slashing through right tackle on a 26-yard gallop for the first one as the game opened and pushing over from the three in the third period after his 46 yard pass to Bob Jones, right end, set up the tally.

It was a ragged game, played in warm, dry weather before a meager crowd. Gonzaga cleared the bench of substitutes after the game was safe in the second half and Idaho kept pace, desperately seeking a combination that could crack the Bulldog defense.

Twice the Vandals powered their way inside the Gonzaga 10-yard line, but the Bulldog defense tightened to stave off plunges, end runs and fourth-down passes on both occasions.

The Bulldogs, not content to let their lead rest at one touchdown, passed freely throughout the first half and it was sub-quarterback Adolph Solka's 36-yard flip to George Derr, right half, that brought the second tally. Derr, all alone on the three, gathered in the ball and stepped across the goal.

The substitutes tasted Vandal blood in the third period, sophomore Johnny Scherger left half, tossing a 33-yard forward that end Dick Johnson, stole from Idaho's sub-center, Henry Crowley, after an interception, he fell on the five and Frank McGreen, sub fullback, went over from there.

Milligan And Leal In Golf Finals

The coveted Babb trophy, signifying the golf championship of the city of Eugene, is a cinch to be retired today when Don Leal and Sid Milligan meet on the Laurelwood course in the finals of the 11th annual championship tournament. Both finalists have won the trophy twice before and one of the boys is sure to make it three.

Milligan entered the finals last Sunday by defeating Bert Prescott, another former champion, 4 and 3. Milligan clipped 11 strokes off par over the 36 hole route. In the other semi-final match Don Leal disposed of Rod Taylor 2 and 1. Leal recorded a seven under par 137 as against Taylor's four under par 140.

Play was completed last Sunday in all the other flights except the first. In this flight Stinson won by a default and will meet the winner of the Fortmiller-Richardson match which went unplayed last Sunday.

In last Sunday's finals, Carl Webster won the second flight title, Clarence Urey won the third flight, LaFores took the fourth flight title and Myers won the fifth flight championship. The sixth flight finals match was won by Campbell.

Zivic Faces Many Welter Contenders

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Fritzie Zivic the new welterweight king, is confronted with the greatest array of contending talent in the 147-pound division's history.

This situation should result in (1) Fritzie losing his title in a hurry, or (2) making a fortune by banging his way through the large and classy field.

Zivic, who wrestled the crown from the great Henry Armstrong last Friday night, now faces 13 top-flight welters, any one of whom is capable of giving the Pittsburgh "miracle man" a good fight.

This "big 13" comprises: Armstrong, Al Davis, Lou Ambers, Bob Montgomery, Milt Aron, Charley Burley, Cocoa Kid, Izzy Janazzo, Mike Kaplan, Tony Martellano, Pedro Montanez, Antonio Fernandez and Saverio Turiello.

George And O. F. Nelson Bring In 212 And 239 Pound Mule Deer

Two of the finest deer of the season were brought in to Troeh's Sporting Goods store Saturday by George and O. F. Nelson of Florence. The animals were mule deer. One weighing 239 pounds, killed by George Nelson, had a spread of 32½ inches with six points on one side and seven on the other. The other killed by O. F. Nelson weighed 212 pounds with five points on one side and six on the other.

There were nine hunters in the Nelson party and each killed a buck. The deer were all killed in the Burns district.

397 Antelope Killed

PORTLAND, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Five hundred twelve antelope hunters bagged 397 bucks in the one-week antelope season at the start of this month, the state game department reported today. Last year 292 hunters brought home 214 animals.

Texas Tech Drops Montana Grizzlies

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Texas Tech's Red Raiders displayed terrific attacking power today and outscored the Montana State University Grizzlies 22 to 19 in an intercollegiate gridiron duel.

The Texans stepped out smartly in the first period, rolling up three touchdowns and momentarily throwing the Grizzlies into panic. So busy were the Raiders' backfield speed merchants that the Grizzlies rarely had opportunity to handle the ball.

The Grizzlies, however, refused to bow out and, largely through the overseas game, made a contest of it. Montana scored in the second when Fiske plunged over from the two-yard mark, and each team scored twice in the second half.

The home fans were pulled from their seats in the third quarter when Red Bryan lofted a pass from his own 30 which Emigh caught past midfield. Emigh galloped the rest of the distance untouched.

Tech had a long edge in statistics, with 19 first downs to Montana's nine and 403 yards gained rushing, against 282.

Cottage Grove's Friday night victory over Redwood threw the Lane-Douglas league into a two-way tie. The Lions are in a deadlock with the Springfield Millers, each team having one win against the other and no ties.

The Millers and the Lions hold identical records with one win each. The Redwood Braves, the Millers' closest rivals, are in a 14-6 count and the Lions' downing them by a 24-6 score. These two defeats plus a tie with the Roseburg Indians mired the Braves deep in the league basement.

The league's other team, the University high Golden Tide, has not been active in the league as yet.

The league states two league games Friday with the two leaders, Cottage Grove and the Millers, playing in Cottage Grove, while Redwood and University battle it out under the lights at Civic Stadium. Both games are rated as top-notch with Uni high and Cottage Grove reigning as slight favorites.

Ducklings Getting Set For OSC Rooks

The University of Oregon football squad—through with its tussle with the University of Washington—left for Eugene Saturday night, but the Webfoot gridgers won't remain here long. They leave Wednesday for Los Angeles, where they meet the University of Southern California next Saturday. The Trojans—selected as repeaters for the Rose Bowl this year by many experts—will have just returned from a long trip themselves, having trekked across the country to tangle with Illinois.

Although the Trojans are favorites, the Oregon footballers have no fear of them. Last year the Webfoots went into the game at Los Angeles as 9-1 underdogs, and came out with a 7-7 tie, after leading Southern Cal throughout the game. A last-quarter pass by Doyle Nave proved the life-saver for Howard Jones' lads.

The Oregon team will scrimmage two or three times before entraining for the south.

Red Crown Bowling Carnival Opens At Eugene Recreation

Play in the $50,000 Red Crown open play ten-pin bowling carnival opened Saturday at Eugene Recreation where the first of eight weekly contests in the nation-wide ten pin tourney is being held. Contests will be held in successive weeks through December 7.

Men, women and even children are eligible to compete in the $50,000 Red Crown, which will distribute 17,526 prizes, with six grand prizes of $1,000 each.

All you have to do to enter the classic is to bowl non-league—that is, open play games consecutively and in the same session, until the total score of three games falls within one of the following classifications:

"Beginners," who score between 240 and 345; "Rookies," 350 to 405; "Juniors," 420 to 465; "Regulars," 480 to 525; "Experts," 540 to 585,

UC Loses To WSC Cougars

Stan Johnson Kicks 37 Yard Field Goal

By ROGER JOHNSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Washington State College defeated University of California 9 to 6 in a Pacific Coast Conference football game at Memorial Stadium today by the margin of nearly-placed 37 yard field goal kicked by Stan Johnson, a substitute Washington State tackle from Enslaw, Wash.

California and the Cougars from Pullman, Washington—battled to a 6-6 deadlock at the end of the third period. Gene Fickett, Long Beach, a reserve halfback, engineered the California touchdown shortly before half time with a series of passes that ended with a five yard scoring toss to Bill Elmore, quarterback. Dick Folmer's conversion try was wide. California led at half time, 6-0.

Sewell Completes 11

Bill Sewell, a sharp-shooting halfback from Tacoma, who completed 11 out of 16 passes he threw for Washington State, masterminded the WSC touchdown drive in the third period with a series of beautiful tosses to quarterback Don Greeley and end Gale Gentry.

Sewell started on his own 39 and passed alternately to Greeley and Gentry. His final shot to Greeley went 15 yards to the California 2. From there Les McLennan, substitute fullback, plunged over for the touchdown. Johnson's conversion try was wide, deadlocking the score at 6-6.

With Sewell's aerial attack functioning with the precision of a Swiss clock, Washington State gathered momentum in the final minutes of the third period. With a first down on their own 35, Sewell repeatedly pierced the California defense with long looping tosses.

A pass from Sewell to Gentry gained 18, then fullback Les McLennan picked up 16 in three tries through the line. A reverse from McLennan to Dale Holmes went 22 yards then after a 15 yard penalty two short passes, Washington State put the ball in position for a field goal on the California 19 yard line.

Johnson dropped back for the field goal try. Calmly and deliberately he booted the ball from placement barely over the reaching hands of California linemen and the pigskin sailed between the posts for the three points that victory for Washington State.

Gridiron of Packed Snow

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Here's one for your gridiron record book: A game on heavily packed snow with red yardage and goal lines.

An eight-inch snowfall necessitated the "snow bowl" aspect for the clash Sunday of teams from the army unit recently stationed here and the new air base construction crew. It will be the first football game ever staged in western Alaska.

Capt. R. G. Emery, coach of the army eleven, said a roller would be used to pack the snow.

The roster of players includes: Bill Moore, from the University of Tennessee; Lee Drake, Washington State college; Bill Harrington, University of Washington; Bob Ullrich, University of Texas; Bob Risley, University of California; and Butch Camblin, who played with the service champions of the U. S. S. Pennsylvania.

Texas A & M Dumps UCLans

Kimbrough and Co. Vanquishes Bruins

By RONALD WAGONER
United Press Staff Correspondent
MEMORIAL COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A first period touchdown engineered by big John Kimbrough, All-American fullback, stood up here today to give Texas A & M a 7 to 0 football victory over University of California at Los Angeles in a hectic intercollegiate struggle witnessed by 55,000 spectators.

Kimbrough, who played 60 minutes of iron man football, sparked his Aggie teammates to a score as the first period of the ball game neared an end. Big John, roving on defense, intercepted a pass tossed by Leo Cantor, UCLA fullback. Kimbrough lateraled to Tommie Vaughn, center, who finally was grounded on the UCLA 44 yard line.

Big John took personal charge of the A & M offense with two plunges, each good for a first down and a total of 27 yards to the UCLA 17. Bill Conatser, a sub Aggie halfback, spelled Kimbrough then slashed off his right tackle for nine yards and six big points. Marion Pugh added the extra point from placement.

Robinson Injured

Kimbrough's touchdown became more and more valuable in Texas eyes as the game progressed, the Aggies three times were forced to make goal line stands to protect their margin.

Twice in the second period, the UCLANS punched within scoring distance. The first march featured the passing and running of Jackie Robinson, UCLA negro halfback, who was injured and removed from the game before the first half was finished. The ball was worked to the Aggie five yard line, before a five yard penalty and a fourth down incomplete pass by Robinson gave the Texans the ball on their 12 yard line.

As the game neared the end, Texas A & M battled to hold the lead, while UCLA opened up with desperate passes every time the ball came into their possession. Most of the UCLA threats in the last period were nullified by the fast charging Robnett, and other Texas Aggie linemen, who smothered Cantor and other UCLA backs before they could get rid of the ball on pass plays.

Facts Favor Aggies

Texas A & M made 16 first downs to nine for UCLA, and piled up a net total of 278 yards against 124 for UCLA. UCLA made 122 yards in the air compared to 31 for Texas A & M. UCLA netted but two yards in running plays compared to 247 for A & M.

Kimbrough carried the ball 19 times for an average of three yards per attempt. High man of the Aggie team was Marland Jeffrey, substitute halfback who averaged 7.80 yards in five attempts.

Oregon Duck Faces USC Trojan Next

The University of Oregon freshman football team was rounding into shape at the close of the second week of practice Saturday, and Coach John Warren apparently has decided on a tentative lineup for the opening game of the year.

The Ducklings will clash with the Oregon State Rooks in their initial clash of the season at Portland, Friday night, October 18, in the first of a two-game series.

Coach John Warren declared yesterday that his club was one of the smallest freshman aggregations he has coached at Oregon thus far, but admitted the group showed lots of potentialities. The team roster at this writing numbers 33 men, with three of that number at present on the sidelines with minor injuries. The trio includes Brad Ecklund, giant fullback from Milwaukee whom Warren shifted to center after two days practice; Chuck Elliott, massive tackle from Eugene high, who is hobbling about with a twisted ankle; Howard Steers, guard from The Dalles, who wrenched his shoulder.

All are expected to be in the starting lineup against the Rooks, however.

The shifting of Ecklund from fullback to center automatically promoted Gale Emmons—brother of Oregon's ex-Beaverton Buster, who is now playing with the professional Philadelphia Eagles—from the second to the first string. Andy Jones, center from Portland, holds down the pivot position in Ecklund's absence, and will probably give the Milwaukee star a stiff battle for the starting nod.

Another battle at right half was also in evidence, where Larry Olsen, San Francisco ace, has but a little edge over Rober Liday of Pocatello, Idaho.

The probable starting lineup against the Rooks:

Pos. Name Home town Age Wt. Hgt.
LT—Ginnell, Everett, Wash. 19 205 6-3
LT—Kuffman, Los Angeles 18 222 6-1
LG—Formoso, Portland 19 196 5-8
C—Ecklund, Milwaukee 18 300 6-2
RG—Elliott, Eugene 19 212 6-2
RT—Giffin, Palo Alto 18 225 6-2
RE—Peterson, Pocatello 18 180 5-11
QB—James, Rainier 19 200 5-10
RB—Newquist, Camas 19 185 6-1
RH—Olson, San Francisco 20 170 5-10
FB—Emmons, Beaverton 20 180 5-11

Team Tilt Tentative For Wrestling Show

The influx of new blood into Pacific northwest light-heavyweight wrestling ranks has made the announced headline attraction for Herb Owen's weekly show at the armory a tentative one. Owen plans to give mat followers the finest feature obtainable and awaits definite word from the newcomers before completing the program.

Owen is planning a four-man team match with Sergeant Bob Kennaston, the tough Marine, pairing with Babe Small. This villainous tandem is expected to meet Dude Chick and Otis Clingman in a one-hour battle.

Clingman and Small are both available, but Kennaston and Chick are question marks. Both of the grappling stars are scheduled to arrive in Oregon this week but nothing is certain.

Further announcements will be made later in the week.

Eastern Washington College Downs CWC

CHENEY, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Eastern Washington College, outgained in the air and on the turf, converted a blocked punt and an intercepted pass into two touchdowns today for a 14 to 7 football victory over Central Washington College of Ellensburg.

Vic Kanzler, EWC end, blocked a Central Washington punt at the start of the game and the ball rolled from the invader 35 to the five-yard line. A fourth-down pass, known to Anderson, scored for Cheney's Savages.

Eastern Washington counted again in the third period when Mac Farland, quarterback, intercepted a pass and ran 20 yards to the CWC four. Fullback Bennett punched over for the tally on the first play.

YOUR EYES.

Every waking moment of every day, your eyes perform the miracle of seeing... bringing you eighty per cent of your consciousness of the world about you.

Have you ever considered what would become of you should anything impair this precious faculty? From this thought emerges one clear duty: Make sure about the condition of your eyes; have them examined regularly if you wear glasses. If you do not wear glasses, it is advisable to have an eye analysis and refraction to make sure your eyes are right. Fortunately, modern optical science can determine definitely if your eyes need help. And modern ocular skill provides glasses, when needed, that will bring your eyes to peak efficiency and comfort.

A thorough eye analysis without additional cost to you under an individual, undivided responsibility.
