Christmas fruit cake and casserole dish combined.

(By NEA Service)

CHRISTMAS is straight ahead, so that means it's time to begin thinking of fruit cake recipes. The longer fruit cake mellow the better it tastes. Therefore it's better to bake your Christmas cake as soon as possible.

Every year for many years, Lucy Malby has worked out a new Christmas fruit cake recipe exclusively for this column. So successful are Miss Malby's fruit cakes that readers by the score write in asking for more. This 1940 recipe will be no exception. It is comparatively easy to make.

Busy Housewife Fruit Cake
(2 1/2 pounds fruit cake)

One cup seedless raisins, 1 eight-ounce can diced fruits and peels, 1 cup nut meats, walnuts or flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon allspice, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 cup shortening, 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/4 cup molasses, 2-3 cup thick applesauce. Wash and dry raisins; add cut fruit and chopped nut meats. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually and cream until fluffy. Beat in egg and molasses. Add the flour mixture alternately with the applesauce. Stir fruit and nuts into cake batter. Pour into a well-greased one and one-half quart heat resistant glass cassehole. Decorate top with almonds, citron strips and chopped nuts, if desired. Cover and bake in a slow oven (275 degrees F.) for about 2 1/2 hours.

From Maine comes another simple American fruit cake, taken from Majorie Mosser's "Good Maine Food." It's simple enough even for the inexperienced cook. Both these Christmas cakes, made now and put away until Dec. 25, will make highly acceptable gifts when tied with red ribbon and holly.

Maine Fruit Cake

One cup butter, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 cup molasses, 2 cups raisins, 1/2 cup currants, 2 1/2 cups flour, 3 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 cup shredded citron, 1/4 teaspoon mace, 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Cream butter; gradually add sugar, then the beaten eggs and molasses. Add the mixed and sifted dry ingredients alternately with the milk. Stir in the fruit. Turn into two greased loaf pans and bake in slow oven (275 degrees F.) for about 1 1/2 hours.
