District Rebekah Meeting Saturday

ELMIRA, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The annual Rebekah convention for District No. 10 will be held at the grange hall at Elmira Saturday, starting at 10 o'clock. There will be an afternoon session beginning at 1:30, during which several parts of the work will be exemplified by different lodges.

In the evening, opening at 8:00 o'clock, there will be a special meeting of Loyal Rebekah lodge, when the state president of the Rebekah Assembly will make her official visit. Degree work will be exemplified by the Springfield lodge.

Meals will be served at noon and in the evening by the Elmira grange.

Services Sunday

HEBRON, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Special services in honor of Thanksgiving Day are to be held at the Hebron church Sunday morning. There will also be special music.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuhrer have returned from a ten day trip to Pendleton and La Grande. They report lots of snow and icy road conditions in the Blue mountains.

Mrs. Florence Small entertained with a dinner at her home in Cottage Grove Sunday, on her birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Abene and family, and Marjorie Small.

Sunday visitors at the R. B. Garman home were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Van Dusen and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Van Dusen and daughter of Valseit, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hopper of Creswell.

Some of the engineers from the Cottage Grove dam have been picking apples in this neighborhood. The apples are to be given to needy families.

The Jolly Workers club held a bazaar all day Saturday in the Mountain States office.

Boxes Installed

Four relay boxes were installed recently by the local post office. These boxes will be used by the carriers to facilitate the delivery of mail within the city limits. Boxes were installed at Second and Quincy, Ash and L, Fifth and Quincy, and one on north Ninth street near the Bressler residence. Postmaster N. J. Nelson has reminded the people that after Dec. 1 there will be no delivery of mail to residences or business houses which are still without numbers.

Rev. and Mrs. James Aiken Smith of Salem, former pastor of the Presbyterian church, are spending Thanksgiving with Superintendent and Mrs. H. B. Ferrin.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Coiner and family are spending Thanksgiving in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McGibbon.

Legion Auxiliary Names Committees for Dinner; Oakridge News Reported

OAKRIDGE, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The Cascade Unit of the American Legion auxiliary met recently for its regular business session. Mrs. Mary Jane Noland presided. Plans were discussed for a turkey dinner to be served at the hall, Thursday evening, November 28, at 6 o'clock. This will be for members of the post and unit. Committees named were Mrs. Fred Swanson, Mrs. Noland, Mrs. Walter Blakely and Mrs. Fred Richter, dinner; Mrs. A. E. Bullis and Mrs. Charles Croner, entertainment. Dave Frederickson and A. E. Dumont from the post will assist with the entertainment. Plans were also discussed for a Christmas party but no definite date was set. The group voted to have the kitchen painted. The paint is being donated by C. S. Briscoe. A report on membership was given and all members who have not paid their 1941 dues are asked to do so before the first of December.

The Oakridge Girl Scouts met in the grade school this week for their regular meeting. Miss Lever, scout leader, opened the meeting, and was assisted during the evening by Miss Allen. The group discussed plans for a food sale to be held on a Saturday within the next two weeks. The exact date will be announced later. The remainder of the time was spent playing games. Refreshments were served by Barbara Richter and Alice Crunk. Those present were Doris Wells, Barbara Richter, Kathryn Valroy, Barbara Croner, Alice Crunk, Lulu Mae Beatty, Colleen Birch, Viola Halberg, Ellen Halberg, Shirley Travn, Lois Mae Croner, Miss Lever and Miss Allen.

For Dr. Gray

Dr. Grant J. Gray was pleasantly surprised by a group from the Odd Fellows lodge who came to his home to help him celebrate his birthday anniversary. As this was also the birthday of Mrs. Jesse Flock, she was especially invited to attend the party. Two birthday cakes were presented to the honor guests. Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Flock, E. E. Wert, Harvey Scharner, Vern Hill, Bruce Lansberry, Sr., Howard Bernhardt, Grant Dean, Clarence Dorlier, J. E. Paddock, George W. Shepherd, Virgil Winkelman, M. I. Eaman. Dr. Gray was also honored with a birthday dinner at his home Sunday with places being marked for Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Roy Curren of Tacoma and Dr. Gray.

The Cascade post of the American Legion met recently for a regular business meeting with A. E. Bullis, commander, presiding. They voted to buy the turkeys for the joint post and unit dinner, Thursday, November 28. Tony Dumont and Dave Frederickson were appointed to assist the auxiliary with the entertainment for the evening. Plans were discussed for holding an initiation for new members early in December.

Mrs. LeRoy Olson was painfully burned about the shoulders and neck when she pulled a kettle of hot cranberry sauce over on her when she stooped to pick up some wood by the stove. Her burns are painful but not serious.

Among those going away for the holidays are: Mr. and Mrs. William Jensen and daughter, Alice, who will visit relatives in Halsey; Mr. and Mrs. John Nieuwboer and son, who will spend several days in Portland with relatives; Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Tibbets, who will visit relatives in Eugene, Independence and Portland; Miss Debby Lou Lever, who will visit her parents in McMinnville. Miss Virginia Layton will be with relatives in Monmouth; Miss Patricia Taylor has gone to Seattle to be with friends; and Miss Edythe Farr who will visit her parents in Coquille.

Mrs. Grace Walker has returned to her home in Santa Barbara after a week's stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Miller. Guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Grant J. Gray this week are Mrs. Roy Curren of Tacoma, a niece of Mrs. Gray, Miss Billy Starr, of Salem, Mrs. Gray's granddaughter who arrived Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Nellie Johnson has left to spend the rest of the week with parents in Seaside.

Miss Madeline Richter, a sophomore at the OSC, is home to spend the rest of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter.

P.-T. A. Meets

TRIANGLE LAKE, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The November meeting of the Triangle P.-T. A. was held recently. The resignation of the president, Mrs. Averill Rust, was accepted and the association directed that the work be carried on for the rest of the year by the vice-president, Joseph Rorer. Mrs. Clark Curry was elected to the vice-presidency. The custodian, Mr. Harper, called attention to the new parking regulation for the school grounds and emphasized them as safety measures. The superintendent, Levitt Horner, reported on the conference for teachers held recently in Eugene. Harry Robertson was appointed as chairman of the committee to arrange for gifts of Christmas candy to be given to the children.

The program was featured by musical numbers by the students of Frances Horner, singing by the assembly, and two numbers by the Parent-Teacher quartet, Messrs. Rust, Witcraft, Craven, and Pritchard. After the program the time was spent in inspection of the progress of the builders' projects in the shop.

Plan Program

A committee of the Parent-Teachers association with Mrs. Averill Rust as chairman, is arranging a benefit program to raise funds for the winter work. The date of the benefit has been set for Saturday, Dec. 7, in the school auditorium. After the program lunch will be sold and games and dancing will be enjoyed. All patrons, friends and parents are invited to attend.

H. E. CLUB MEETS

WILLAKENZIE, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The Willakenzie H. E. club met on Tuesday for a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bart Nevers. The time was spent sewing for the bazaar and making curtains for the grange dining room. The club will meet again next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Frank S. Pattison to sew. Those present were: Mrs. H. E. Watters, Mrs. D. R. French, Mrs. John Walls, Mrs. Frank S. Pattison, Mrs. Clarence Hoyer, Mrs. C. E. Jensen, Mrs. Nell Coplin, Mrs. H. E. McKay, Mrs. Sam Smith, Mrs. Mary Lou Porter, and the hostess, Mrs. Bart Nevers.

Junction City Club Reports Meeting

JUNCTION CITY, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The Junction City women's club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Packard, president, presiding. A short business session was held at which several matters of interest to the club were discussed and acted on. It was voted to pay for a chest X-ray for a local school student. The Americanization and read basketry classes that had been contemplated will be postponed until after the first of the year. There were not enough persons interested to begin classes at this time. Mrs. Horton resigned her position as secretary and Mrs. Marie Richardson will take her place. The County Federated club will hold its first meeting of the year in January at the grange hall with the Junction City club members as hostesses. The grange ladies will serve the noon luncheon. The club spent the afternoon in making scrap books to be sent to the Doernbecher hospital for the children's Christmas tree. Also, at the December meeting on Dec. 18, the club members will bring toys to be sent to the hospital along with the scrap books. Mrs. Domaschovsky and Mrs. Packard served refreshments at the social hour.

Wallace Young of Los Angeles, visited her aunt, Mrs. Lily Young over night on Monday en route to Canada, where he will enlist with the Scottish regiment for overseas service. Mr. Young has just crossed the age limit for enlistment in the United States and is anxious to get across to do his bit for his Scotland, his ancestral home.

Former Resident Killed

Word has been received by friends of a tragic accident in Fresno, Cal., when S. V. Olsen, a former resident of Junction City, was killed in an auto accident. Mr. Olsen was a merchant here and about nine years ago disposed of his business and returned to Fresno his former home.

Corporal Howard Larsen is home on a month's furlough from Vancouver barracks, Vancouver. Mrs. Lee Weber left Tuesday with a sister in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Edstrom and son Gale and "Grandpa" Edstrom all of Bellfountain and Mrs. Howard Colton and son were Sunday visitors at the Arnold Tracer home.

Mrs. Elsie Christensen-McCort, an auto accident victim in Coquille, was seriously injured and was released from the hospital more than a week ago. She has been taken back to the hospital for further treatment. Mrs. McCort is operator at the Coquille pact Salon during Mrs. McCort's illness.

Regular grange session will be held on Friday evening, Nov. 23, at the hall. A program will be given and a lunch served.
