Belloise came on to win the fight at the end of 15 rounds. Stanfords in Good Shape

PALO ALTO, Calif., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Clark Shaughnessy, Stanford grid coach who is hurrying home from the East to check reports his Rose Bowl football team is wobbly from influenza, can quit worrying, team physician Fritz Roth says.

"Several of the boys were down with slight touches of influenza, but they have recovered," said Dr. Roth. "The entire squad is in good health as far as I know."

The Indians are due to resume training Saturday for the New Year's day battle with Nebraska in the Rose bowl.

Clingman Wins Over Red Lyons

Freeman Victorious Over Japanese Boy

By JACK WELLS, JR.

Jesse James and Billy Rayburn, the smoothest team ever to show in the armory wrestling ring, took the meanie tandem of Bulldog Jackson and Danny McShain into camp Thursday night in the main event of Promoter Herb Owen's weekly professional grappling card.

A large crowd was on hand to witness the smoothies work against the two villains and the antics of all four grapplers had the audience rolling in the aisle with laughter many times.

The match started with a flurry of fists flying all directions, many landing and many missing their mark by a wide measure. The four grapplers then finally settling down and really wrestled a few minutes but gaining no headway they started in to rough it up again with the two Puritans falling victims to the villainy and losing the first fall.

McShain secured a deadly Boston crab on James and made him pat the mat in token of surrender. The time for James' ousting was exactly 17 minutes.

Gang Up On Rayburn

Both meanies then started in to work on Rayburn and one minute later they had secured a Boston crab and both held on to make the champ give up.

The second fall was the one that broke the camel's back, both cleanies securing headlocks from their opponents and rushing from corners and letting the meanies collide head-on, knocking them just about senseless. After doing this about three or four times, the cleanie tandem threw their victims to the floor and pounced on them to pin their shoulders to the mat for the full count.

The time on the second fall for James and Rayburn was eight minutes.

The third and deciding fall started out somewhat like the first with the meanie tandem rushing out of their corner and swinging rights and lefts to their opponents, but this time they met with stiffer competition and before one could say "Jack Robinson" Jackson found himself the erstwhile victim of a body press with all the boys piled on top, even his partner McShain, against his own will of course.

McShain Scalped

With the hated McShain left in the ring to face two smoothies, the blood-thirsty crowd stood up and yelled for his scalp and the two cleanies were not long in scalping their victim. Rayburn maneuvered Danny into a spine twister and held him while James dropped-kicked him into insensibility thus winning the third fall and the match.

The 30-minute opener brought together Taro Ito and Ace Freeman, the match going to Freeman by virtue of taking two straight falls over the Japanese grappler.

It took the Ace 22 minutes to dispose of the little Japanese grappler, taking all the dirty tactics the yellow skinned lad could think of. After taking all he could stand the Ace opened up with a flurry of rights and lefts which rendered the Jap groggy and an easy victim to a package body press.

Korn's Bakery Wins In McKenzie League

McKenzie League bowling last night at the Eugene Recreation alleys saw the Korn's Bakery come through with a well-earned victory over the Bev's Barbecue team. Despite the fact that the Barbecue team rolled the highest single score of the evening—a 1023—and despite Paul Brownfield high scores for the Barbecue team Korn's still managed to come through with a 2-1 win.

Other league action saw the Olsen company team defeat General Petroleum 3-0, Consolidated freight won Standard Stations 2-0 and Montgomery Ward dropped Rubenstein's 2-1.

High individual honors went to Dave Povey of Rubenstein's with a high single of 222 and a high series of 555.

With but five minutes remaining in the match Lyons tried vainly to gain a hold that would win him a fall over Clingman but the Springfield lad used his speed and knowledge to great advantage and got out of many a dangerous hold and wrestled his opponent the remainder of the match with neither boy gaining a fall.

When the final bell rang Clingman was well on his way to taking a second fall throwing Lyons all over the ring with bone crushing headlocks but the bell saved the newcomer from losing by straight falls.

The entire card was duly officiated by the ex-Eugene-present Glenwood, ex-butcher boy, present tavern operator, wrestling referee, Elton Owen.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday are the worst days for foot-fogs over the cities of England.
