1940 Sports Review Lane is Busy Sports Area

Local Athletes Star Despite
Lack Of National Trophies

By DICK STRITE

NATIONAL championship awards for 1940 have found no resting place in Lane county's trophy case as the result of the athletic prowess of local athletes or sports aggregations, but this area of some 4500 square miles with its 65,000 people continues as the busiest sports center in the world, per capita. The cover page of this section, giving a resume of Lane county sports activities during the past 12 months, depicts the well-rounded athletic program in Lane county—from the sandy shores of the Pacific to the snow-covered peaks of the Three Sisters. Not only does this area boast an unusually active schedule of competitive athletic
