Mohler and daughters, Edythe, Alice and Freda and Mr. Walker.

During the past week Douglas County Roadmaster Frier, and Commissioners Roadman and Hutchinson were Reedsport visitors while in this vicinity inspecting work being done on the Look Lake road. At the present time ten county trucks are being used to haul gravel from the plant of the Umpqua gravel company at Brandy Buck and it is stated that 10 more trucks will be immediately put on the job by the county in order to expedite the work. The road is being widened, graveled and otherwise improved to permit logging operations on a more extensive scale.

Lease Station
Announcement is made by Durbin and Abbott, operators of the Gardiner Service Station, of the leasing of the L. C. Arthur garage and service station on Highway 101 in Reedsport. Messrs. Durbin and Abbott will operate the newly acquired garage and continue operations of the Gardiner station. Mr. Arthur will confine his activities to his auto wrecking business. Warren McWilliams, Reedsport fuel dealer, has acquired the wood business previously operated by Mr. Durbin and Mr. Abbott and will employ additional trucks in order to take care of the wood output of the Gardiner and Winchester Bay Lumber companies.

Deerhorn P.-T. A. Plans Annual Dinner

DEERHORN, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The Deerhorn Parent-Teacher association met Friday evening at the schoolhouse for the January business and social session. Lester Wheeler was chairman, due to the absence of both the president and vice-president. About 50 persons were present for the evening. Mrs. John Sloan, chairman of the hot lunch committee, reported that at the recent WPA cooks' meeting which she attended, instructions were not to accept any green beans, corn or peas, home canned that had not been processed in a pressure cooker. The federal commodities which have been available during the past several months in proportion to the number of under weight children in the community, will probably not be distributed, owing to the new stamp plan for distributing surplus supplies in Lane county, according to information supplied at the cooks' meeting.

The White Elephant project sponsored by the P.-T. A. reported several quilt tops and children's garments in the making. The next meeting of the club will be on Jan. 22 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bates with Mrs. George Perkins as co-hostess.

February 20 was the date set for the annual chicken and noodle supper to be sponsored by the society for the purpose of raising funds for the various projects sponsored by the association. Mrs. George Perkins is general chairman for the supper, Mrs. Joe Odell, coffee maker; Mrs. Walter Rauch, tables; Mrs. Dell Benson, Mrs. Everett Wearin, Mrs. Lloyd Koozer, Mrs. Hogan Hanson and Mrs. Emma Hubbard were appointed to assist with the plans and the supper. A committee meeting was called for Wednesday afternoon, January 15 at the home of Mrs. George Perkins to make plans for the supper.

Mrs. Hogan Hanson, chairman of the Founders Day committee, will be in charge of the February monthly program. Mrs. J. H. Odell, and Mrs. Lloyd Koozer will plan the refreshments for the meeting which will be on Friday, February 14. Mrs. Dell Benson was in charge of the social program which followed the business session. Numbers included a vocal solo by Jeanne King, accompanied by Mrs. Benson; a vocal duet by John Sloan and Lester Wheeler, accompanied by Mrs. Benson, a reading by Lilah Wearin; and a travelogue with the following persons taking part, each person giving a brief resume of his experience: Mrs. Everett Wearin, St. Joseph, Mo., and the giant cactus of Arizona; William White, "In Alaska," David Holmes, "At Camp Murray," Mrs. Carroll Fountain, "The Painted Canyon," and other interesting points in California; Mrs. Lloyd Koozer, Fort Peck Dam and Captain Miles' last stand in Montana; Mrs. Dell Benson, Crater Lake. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Mrs. Hogan Hanson, Mrs. George Perkins and Mrs. Everett Wearin.
