CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 21—(AP)—Weakness in wheat futures at times today pushed prices down as much as a cent a bushel below the previous close to the lowest levels in three weeks. Some resting orders to buy checked the decline at times but commission houses were more aggressive on the selling side.

There were no important news developments to account for the break but holders apparently discouraged by the lack of rallying power of the market decided to let go of their lines and await developments. The close for all deliveries of wheat and corn was fractionally above the lows for the day.

Wheat futures closed ⅛ to 1 cent lower than Monday's final prices, May 85½-¾, July 79⅞-80, corn was ⅛-½ off, May —, July 62⅞, and oats ⅛-¼ lower.

Wheat: May open 86½-86, high 86½, low 85¼, close 85½-¾; July open 85¾-½, high 80⅝, low 79¾, close 79⅞-80; Sept. open 80⅞, high 80⅞, low 80, close 80¼.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Jan. 21—(A)—(USDA)—Fine Delaine bright fleece wool was receiving a little interest in Boston today. Business was reported to have been transacted at a price within the range of 42 to 44 cents, in the grease. Few mills however, were interested in these wools. South American wools of fine and half blood grade were quite active at firm prices.

New York Markets

By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Jan. 21—(AP)—An early stock market rally, touched off by renewed strength in rails, faded in the latter part of today's proceedings and gains running to a point or more were substantially reduced or transformed into losses of as much.

Prices were at the best in the forenoon.

Motors, lower throughout, weakened quickly and steels, trailing with the carriers in the morning, soon slipped into the minus column. A little bidding appeared in the final hour and closing quotations were above the lows in many instances.

TTransfers were around 800,000 shares compared with yesterday's turnover of 377,000, smallest since Oct. 21.

Main market drawbacks, brokers said, included possible actual entry of this country in the European war, taxation problems, likelihood of extensive administration controls of industry, and possibility of a congressional battle over the lend-lease bill acting as a deterrent to rearmament.

Among shaky stocks were General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Westinghouse, DuPont, Allied Chemical, Anaconda, Texas Corp., International Harvester, Douglas Aircraft, Goodyear, Western Union, and Montgomery Ward.

Up the greater part of the day were Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Great Northern, Union Pacific, U. S. Rubber preferred and Armour preferred.

Bonds were fairly steady, with rails and utilities doing better than other loans.

Venison Possession Charged By Officers

Clarence Wilcox of Eugene was arrested by a state police officer early Tuesday morning charged with illegal possession of venison. The carcass of a deer was confiscated. The deer was a male but had shed its horns.

Ernest Dahl of Cottage Grove Tuesday started to serve out a $25 fine for working as a journeyman plumber without having a certificate of competence. Justice of the Peace Bryson, who imposed the fine, said this was his second offense.

Ira Alvin Jewell was fined $2.50 for having defective lights on his car and Frank Ober Durkee assessed court costs for illegal passing of a car.

Sebastian Getz pleaded not guilty to a drunken driving charge and bail was fixed at $150.

IMPORTANT DUCKS

From prehistoric times, wild mallards have furnished meat to man. Mallards, in domestication, are important in the food supply of China, and other populous countries.

Halsey News Notes

HALSEY, Jan. 21.—(Special)—Three exchanges of farms on the Halsey-Brownsville road is quite a real estate boom for this vicinity. H. L. Straley has purchased the Rosa Davis farm. Mr. Straley sold his farm west of the Davis farm earlier to Prof. Kenneth Vanice of Harrisburg, who will move to it next summer. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis and son Merle will move to Portland to make their home near their two married daughters and sisters respectively. Stephen Smith recently bought the Henrietta Davis farm between the two previously mentioned. He and his brother Ralph Smith are making considerable improvements about the buildings and fence rows this winter.

John Mobley and Clifford Bass have returned to their homes after their trip through the middle west.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hadley are remodeling and building to their home southwest of Halsey. A dining room, woodshed and utility room have been added and all is being beaver boarded. Estes V. Bass is assisting with the carpenter work.

Friday of this week, January 24, sees the end of the first semester of the local high school.

Purity Rebekah lodge will install officers Wednesday night, January 22, at the I. O. O. F. hall. Mrs. Lena Veatch is district deputy president and will be assisted by several other past noble grands with the ceremonies. Officers to be installed are Mrs. Beulah Koontz, noble grand; Mrs. Dorothy Leeper, vice grand; Mrs. Grace Sickels, secretary; and B. M. Bond, treasurer. Appointive officers will be announced the evening of the installation. Mrs. Alberta Cross is the outgoing noble grand after a year of service. The outgoing officers are in charge of refreshments for the evening.

A large crowd witnessed one of the three act comedies presented Friday night when the student body staged "Mama's Baby Boy" under the direction of Miss Jane Scott.
