

Rainbow Girls Install Officers at Grove; Many Social Events Listed

COTTAGE GROVE, Jan. 29.—(Special)—The Rainbow Girls met Monday evening in the Masonic temple. Plans were completed for the series of lectures which Sam Gordon, the Kibitzer, is giving at the Masonic temple on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings of this week. These lectures are sponsored by the Rainbow Girls as a means of raising money. Following the business meeting a formal public installation held. Those installed were: Miss Pauletta Powell, worthy adviser; Miss Arlene Anderson, assistant adviser; Miss Janet Peterson, charity; Miss Marjorie Earl, hope; Miss Fay Nixon, faith; Miss Arletta Roberts, treasurer; Miss Carmen White, recorder; Miss Virginia Brown, chaplain; Miss Dorris Bjorset, drill leader; Miss Virginia Lee, love; Miss Marjorie Woodard, nature; Miss June Bird, religion; Miss Betty Thompson, immortality; Miss Shirley Hendricks, fidelity; Miss Dorothy Saffley, service; Miss Maxine Currin, confidential observer; Miss Janet Ryerson, outer observer; Miss Orleana Martin, musician; and Miss Joan King, choir leader. Mrs. George Bjorset, mother adviser; Frank White, Rainbow Dad, and Mrs. Clyde Roberts, assistant mother adviser. Miss Geraldine Kem was installing officer and Miss Anna Marie Peterson, installing marshal. The girls presented Miss Kem, retiring worthy adviser, with a white Bible. Mrs. Lynch Currin was presented a white Bible in appreciation of her work as mother adviser. Miss Kem, Miss Peterson and Mrs. Bjorset each received several gifts. Talks were given by Mrs. Wilbur Workman, Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mrs. George Bjorset and Frank White. The next meeting of the group will be held on February 10.

The Townsend club met Monday evening in the Townsend hall for a social evening. The meeting was opened with a piano solo by Mrs. Nellie Blackmore, followed by the flag salute and group singing. The following program was presented: Duet, Mrs. Mamie Gidney and Mrs. Joe Saffley; two numbers by the ladies' chorus accompanied by Mrs. Blackmore; readings by R. L. Bailey, Mrs. Fanny Goude, Mrs. Nellie Blackmore, Mrs. Sally Hill, and Mrs. Ethel Applewhite; piano solo by Mrs. Charles Simkins; a skit by Mrs. Martha Marsh and Mrs. Kate Adams; duet, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart; Indian war dance, by Pete Britton and W. E. Masters; Ray Potts, L. D. Tucker and Elmer J. Kent; piano solo, Mrs. Harry Wheeler of Eugene; two flash bulletins from Washington, D. C., read by W. E. Masters, two poems read by Harry Hart. Four dollars ninety-five cents was netted from the refreshments which were served. An announcement was made of the ladies' auxiliary quilting which will be held Thursday at the hall. A potluck luncheon will be served at the noon hour. The club plans to hold a dance Saturday night in the Townsend hall. It is planned to hold these dances every 2 weeks. The public is invited.

Legion, Auxiliary Plan Dance at Junction City; Other Community News Given

JUNCTION CITY, Jan. 29.—(Special)—The regular meeting of the American Legion and auxiliary was held Monday evening in the grange hall, beginning with a potluck supper with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carpenter as hosts. Mrs. Gertrude McKercher, who represented the auxiliary at the third district conference held at Lebanon on Sunday, made an interesting report of the day's activities. All units are making a special plea for all eligible women to come into the unit to help carry on its program of service. Lee Weber represented the Legion at the conference held at Lebanon. The housing problem of the two groups was gone into and it was voted to meet in the grange hall for this year if suitable arrangements can be made with the grange. It was also voted to hold a Valentine dance Saturday evening, Feb. 15, in the grange hall. Plans were made for the poppy sale and posters will soon be in the windows of the business houses.

Meet For Dinner
Townsend club No. 2 met in usual session last week, beginning with a potluck supper. Thirty members were present for the evening. After the dinner a business session was held with President Thomas Nelson presiding. The regular club opening ceremony was observed. Some matters concerning the good of the club were discussed. Mrs. Hone gave some readings and old time music and visiting were enjoyed by the group. The next meeting will be held Friday evening, Feb. 14, in the new meeting room in the Larsen building, entrance on Greenwood street.

Hold Auction
Junction City's first auction day was a decided success in both attendance and amount of goods sold. This auction was launched by Chester Kubli and is held in Horton's Lumber yard on Tenth and Elm. Several hundred men and women were in attendance throughout the day and bidding was lively and stock brought a good price. Cattle, horses, hogs and sheep, some machinery and household goods were included in the sale. Earl Goodnight, auctioneer, and his son, Lynn as clerk announce the gross sale was very close to the $1200 mark, a remarkably good showing for the first Junction City auction. Next auction day has been set for Tuesday, Feb. 18, also at Horton's Lumber yard on the east side.
