Eugene Vicinity One Of Proposed Army Campsites

Eugene chamber, expressed gratification at the news from Senator Holman but warned against all speculative enthusiasms and pointed out that any such activities might easily lead to the cancellation of the entire plan. He pointed out that in any event before final selections are made many tests must be made by army experts such as are now under way at Medford under construction of quarters for officers.

Army officers at the Presidio of San Francisco who have inspected the Eugene vicinity and other areas in all parts of Oregon were called by long distance but said they could not make any comment on the news from Washington and that all decisions and announcements must come from Washington.

"If the army sees fit to come into this area we must make them welcome," said Mr. Stickle. "In these serious times we should not take the position of 'selling' the army but of offering whatever facilities we may have on the best possible terms. If what we have is the best for their purposes we should be very glad, but if they find better facilities elsewhere we should not be jealous. I know that our committee has followed this line and I hope that the entire community will cooperate in this same spirit. This is no time to take advantage of a war which concerns the lives and welfare of American boys."

At recent congressional hearings high ranking generals have indicated that the army is soon to be expanded from its present maximum of 1,500,000 men to 3,000,000 and that at least 28 additional camps will be established. Some will be for ordinary or "triangular division," others for armored or tank troops, and some merely camps for troops in transit or special groups such as artillery. Senator Holman is a member of the committee on military affairs.

Council Grants Use Of City Hall Room For Toy Library

Permission to use a second-floor room in the city hall for a toy library was granted the Eugene Council of Church Women at the city council meeting Monday evening.

Recommendation was made by the parks committee to which the matter was referred at a previous meeting. Right to rescind this grant in the event the room is needed for city purposes was held.

Fearing charges of favoritism the council held over for another meeting the request of the Eugene Fruit Growers association for a special garbage haulers license.

The company is asking a license at a more reasonable sum than the $80 per year commercial fee in order to haul burnable wastes to the city dump.

The company is already equipped to handle this refuse which none of the regular garbage haulers are in a position to do at the present time. Orren Brownson, chairman of the health committee, recommended that a special license of $20 per year be granted the company, but the motion bogged down as questions of the fairness of this act arose.

An amendment to the present city ordinance would be required or else a special act of the council.

The city will be in no position to grant the request of the humane society that funds from dog licenses be turned over to them in return for operating a year-round dog control system. Sam Bond, chairman of the police committee, reported that this year's budget lists $800 revenue from this source and that no change could be made until the next year's budget is drawn up.

The council took a firm stand against exceptions being made to the zoning law. Ordinance granting an extension of the light industrial district to the alley between Fourth and Fifth avenues west to Jefferson had been approved by the planning commission but was tabled by the council.

A curb cut and widening of the alley at 962 Pearl for the Miner building parking lot was approved. This lot will accommodate 51 cars when completed.

Request of Charles B. Briggs for the Booth-Kelly company and Springfield Plywood corporation for a special hourly charge for fire service on the basis of the amount needed was turned down. Mr. Briggs pointed out in his letter that the 2½ mills on basis of valuation was almost prohibitive for the two mills especially when they have their own fire protective systems. The council did not wish to show favoritism to these companies.

The council authorized Mayor Large to hire Willard Hambleton as a full time employee in the city recorder's, treasurer, and lien offices at $100 per month. Mr. Hambleton has been working in these offices for nearly a month.

A bill for personal injuries totaling $21.75 was presented to the council by Mrs. Mary Wheeler as a result of a fall on the sidewalk at Tenth and Pearl streets. This was referred to the judiciary committee and the city attorney.

A complaint was read from residents on Twentieth avenue east protesting against the use of the parking strips between University and Onyx for rubbish. This will be investigated by the health committee.

Democrats' Dinner Will Be Wednesday

Wednesday evening brings the banquet and program for all democrats of the new fourth congressional district, the entertainment being planned at McCrady cafe at 7 p. m. in celebration of the institution of the new district. Speakers will include State Representative Orval N. Thompson of Linn county, State Senator Lew Wallace of Multnomah county, and democratic leaders from all seven counties within the new district. Miss Florence Krug, president of the Lane County Young Democratic club, and N. E. Glass, chairman of the county democratic central committee, will preside.

Mrs. Beall To Give Talk On Mexican Art

Mrs. Charles B. Beall of the University of Oregon is to give an illustrated talk on art in Mexico, Wednesday, at 8 p. m. in room 107, architecture building, campus. The public is invited, the program being sponsored by Sigma Delta Pi, the Spanish honorary. Mrs. Beall spent two half-years in Mexico. She will discuss the Indian art preceding the arrival of the Spaniards, then will talk on the periods of Spanish art, and Mexican art of today.

Keeping Tourists Here Is Important Task Says Highway Man

"Every day we can persuade our tourists to remain in Oregon means $3,000,000 to this state," Ben Titus, member of the state highway commission declared at the tourist school Monday evening. Mr. Titus who took the place of Harold Say, also showed the colored film "The New Oregon Trail."

Two tasks face persons interested in the tourist business, (1) to attract more visitors; and (2) to keep the visitors longer. There are few states in the union which can offer such a variety of vacation land to their visitors—400 miles of Pacific beaches, 13 national forests with 255 free forest camp grounds, the Cascades with their 700 lakes and countless streams, with 6,000,000 acres of national forests and such outstanding attractions as Mt. Hood and Crater Lake.

"Get off the beaten path and explore some of the forest-built mountain roads," was the advice of J. E. Turnbull who discussed loop trips from Eugene. Trips lasting from a half day to a week-end or nearly a week were described and a list is to be prepared for distribution at the next meeting.

Colored slides illustrating phases of the national defense work now being carried on at the Eugene Vocational school were shown and explained by Mrs. Lillian Van Loan.

Funeral Rites Planned For Joseph Prairie

Funeral services for Joseph Prairie, 77, who died Monday, will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. from the Poole chapel, Dr. S. E. Childers officiating. Interment will be in Rest Haven memorial park.

Mr. Prairie was born October 17, 1863, at St. George, Ill., and moved with his family to Minnesota. He married Belle Champlin at Marshall, Minn., May 15, 1888. They came to Eugene in 1912. Try a tankful today and feel the difference at any time.

"Slow down," warns one sign. "Speed up," says the next. 25 miles an hour, 45, 10, 15. Slow, fast, slow again. Changing speed limits wherever you go. And at some of these varying speeds, some motors fail to respond with ordinary gasoline. And all motors are different. One motor balks at 10 miles an hour, but works OK at higher speeds. Some motors cough and hesitate only on the hills. Another motor chatters at 45. But now the problem is solved. You can have a motor smooth at every speed.
