

University Graduation Interests; Events Listed; Alumnae Meet Saturday

COMMENCEMENT time again at the University of Oregon next week-end will interest a large group of Eugene alumni as well as parents of graduating seniors. The three-day program features many interesting programs and social events, drawing many out-of-town visitors and alumni.

Local Women Active

Eugene women take an active part in the week-end through various organizations sponsoring activities at this time. For local women the highlight events for the week-end will be the silver tea for the Pauline Potter Homer collection of beautiful books on Friday afternoon; the annual breakfast and meeting of the State Association of University of Oregon Women next Saturday morning at the Osburn hotel; and the traditional flower and fern procession Sunday evening, June 8.

Breakfast Event

Special guests at the breakfast of the State Association of University of Oregon Women Saturday morning will be Miss Anne Whiteaker, member of the class of '81, and Mrs. C. S. Williams, ex-member of the '81 class. Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter and Mrs. Donald M. Erb. None of the fifty year women will be able to attend. Messages will be read from them. Mrs. George T. Gerlinger of the association will give a short talk.

Mrs. O. F. Stafford will preside at the breakfast. A short musical program will be given. Special effort is being made to have mothers and daughters who are alumnae attend, as well as senior women.

Committee members working on various activities of the association for the week-end, including the tea on Friday, the Saturday breakfast, and the flower and fern procession on Sunday, are: Mrs. Karl W. Onthank, Miss Martha Goodrich, Miss Marjorie Seobert, Mrs. Henry A. Tromp, Mrs. Raymond Walsh, Miss Clara Nasholm, Mrs. Kenneth W. Moore, Mrs. H. M. Stackpole, Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Mrs. Hugh P. Ford, Mrs. Louis E. Bean, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Mrs. George Warner, Mrs. W. G. Beattie, Mrs. George N. McLean, Miss Jeanette Calkins, Mrs. Lovisa Youngs Ayres, Mrs. F. G. Sticksels, Miss Mozelle Hair, Mrs. Mary C. Brockelbank, Mrs. Frank L. Chambers.

Retiring officers of the association include: Mrs. O. F. Stafford, president; Mrs. Raymond Walsh, first vice-president; Mrs. C. I. Collins, second vice-president; Dr. Dorothy Collier, secretary; Mrs. J. O. Holt, treasurer.

Reception in Afternoon

At four o'clock Saturday afternoon comes the annual reception for which President and Mrs. Donald M. Erb will entertain in Alumni hall of the Gerlinger building for all seniors and alumni.

Procession Interests

This year, for the first time, the annual flower and fern procession for all senior women and alumnae will not be held on alumni day but on Sunday evening instead, at six-thirty o'clock on the lawn at the women's quadrangle around the Pioneer Mother statue.
