Mr. Burdick attended a meeting of the Douglas county defense board in Reedsport Tuesday evening before proceeding to the drug convention at Gearhart.

One hundred sixty-nine dollars and fifteen cents has been forwarded to Hon. Walter Fisher at Reedsport by Mayor Dunn as Reedsport's quota for the United States Service Organization. The local drive was sponsored by the American Legion and auxiliary. The Douglas county quota was $1000.

A food sale was held Friday at the Stevens' grocery store by the American Legion auxiliary for the purpose of defraying expenses of sending delegates to the state convention of the American Legion auxiliary which will be held in Eugene during August. Delegates and alternates are Mrs. Nelson Hogan, newly installed president, and other officers of the local auxiliary unit.

Funeral services for Ralph Jesse Warder, local business man, who died recently at Keizer hospital, North Bend, were held at the local Community church under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of which Mr. Warder was a member. Rev. J. Ted Burns, former pastor of the church, gave the obituary and Stanley Cochran, W. M., of Aurora lodge No. 59, A. F. and A. M., had charge of the lodge services. Mr. Warder was born May 1, at Dayton, Wash., and came to Reedsport about 15 years ago and was associated in business with Ed Ford, former mayor of Reedsport, for a number of years. At the time of his death Mr. Warder was in partnership with Tom Johnson in the operation of the Rainbow pool hall. He was a member of Aurora lodge, No. 59, A. F. and A. M., Aurora chapter Royal Arch Masons and the American Legion. Surviving him are his widow, Jeannette Bellesime Warder, and one sister, Mrs. Charles R. Duell, of Spokane, Wash. Pallbearers were fellow Masons, Paul Bernhardt, Ralph Foster, J. L. Gibbons, Loren Gilbert, Nelson Hogan and Frank Taylor.

Roy Butler, son of Ham Butler, Umpqua river farmer living above Scottsburg, is confined to Keizer hospital, North Bend, suffering from injuries sustained recently when he apparently lost control of the truck he was driving and crashed into the west approach of the Wells Creek bridge. His condition is said not to be serious. Stanley Cochran, local grocer, was injured Thursday afternoon when the car he was driving ran into the rear end of a truck belonging to Warren McWilliams. Mr. McWilliams is said to have stopped suddenly on the Umpqua highway bridge and in endeavoring to avoid striking the truck Mr. Cochran struck one of the stone pillars of the bridge.

Western Lane Fair Dates Set Sept. 12-13; Child Health Clinic to Be Held Thursday

FLORENCE, June 28.—(Special)—Western Lane county fair dates have been set for Sept. 12 and 13. Officers for the fair association this year are George Johnson, president; Warner Waite, secretary-treasurer; Ralph Johnson, Millard Martin and Bill Scott, directors. In charge of the different departments this year are: Warner Waite and Ralph Johnson, livestock; Millard Martin, live-stock; Mrs. M. Martin, domestic; Mrs. Ben Shirley, textile; Glen Scott, 4-H, and Gladys Haring, flowers. Advertising space in the premium lists is still available. Better premiums will be offered this year, and the money received from the sale of booster buttons will be used to help purchase prizes. The storage room at the H. M. Petersen garage will be used again for the livestock.

Elect Director
At Monday's Siuslaw union high school election, T. J. Filippin was elected director for a five-year term. The budget was approved 22 to 11. H. F. Severy was appointed clerk.

At a meeting of the Siuslaw union high school board, this week, republication of the bond sale notice for the new high school auditorium-gym was ordered. It was found necessary to do this over because of a legal technicality. The bonds have not been sold yet, although the board has been given authority to do so. This will not interfere with the construction work which has already begun. An appropriation of $2600 was included in the budget for this work.

Health Clinic
Dr. N. Paul E. Anderson, Lane

county health officer, will conduct a child health conference in Florence Thursday from 2 to 4 p. m. for Western Lane county. Parents of children who will enter school for the first time this fall are especially urged to bring them in for examination so that defects may be corrected during the summer months and in order that they may be protected against diphtheria and smallpox before school opens. Appointments for the conference may be made through Mrs. Sylvia Chandler at the telephone office or Mrs. Anne Sullivan, Western Lane county health nurse.

Carl Foss and Bud Wood are the two new members of the first department. Hereafter drills will be held each Tuesday evening until new members have become familiar with the work.

Those attending the state grange at Newport from Western Lane county were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murphy of Ada grange, Mrs. Elsie Scott, Maple Creek grange, Mrs. Margie Knowles, Mapleton grange; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bernhardt, Main River grange; Mr. and Mrs. George Schroeder, North Fork grange, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rice of Lane West Coast Pomona grange.

The Francis A. Yost Post 59 of the American Legion, of Florence, will elect new officers at their July 1 meeting.

The Western Lane health association met last week at the home of Mrs. William Elliott to work on supplies for the health department.

FROM WENDLING
WENDLING, June 28.—(Special)—Mrs. Delbert Metzger entertained the Joker club recently.
