Santa Clara Grange's Picnic Today; Other Subordinate Groups Announce Activities

SANTA CLARA—Santa Clara grange members will meet in regular session at the school gymnasium Tuesday evening, July 15. Mrs. W. V. Chapman, H. E. chairman, has engaged Phil Bartholomew, of Springfield, to put on the program, which will consist of moving pictures in technicolors, taken in Hawaii. The program will be given preceding grange at 8 o'clock. The public is invited. The next regular session of the H. E. club will be held at the Archie St. Clair home Friday, July 18. The afternoon will be spent quilting.

The grange picnic is Sunday, July 13, at Skinner Butte park. A potluck dinner will be held at 12:30. The committee in charge is Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Baldwin and Mr. and Mrs. Hinshaw.

Mohawk-McKenzie — Mohawk-McKenzie grange members will not meet at the grange hall Wednesday evening, but instead have been invited to a weiner roast and potluck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyers. Supper will be at 7 p. m.

Franklin—All ladies of the H. E. C. are asked to come next Tuesday, July 15, for an all-day meeting, each to bring rakes, etc., for outdoor clean-up; also thimbles and scissors so work can be done on quilts. A potluck lunch will be served.

Franklin grange met Wednesday evening with 15 members present. A library program was conducted by Mrs. Bailey and consisted of roll call on "What this flag means to me." Contests of questions and answers were led by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Bryant. All those taking part in the rodent contest are asked to bring their rodent tails to the next regular meeting.

Crow—Crow grange will meet for the regular meeting Wednesday, July 16.

Central—Central grange met last week. Reports were made by the legislative committee, also by the delegates to the state grange. Ralph Petzold and Theron Swanson, Y. G. A. members who attended state grange, gave short reports. The grange voted 100 per cent in favor of the Pennsylvania plan. A short program was given by the Y. G. A's.

Lorane—Lorane grange held a regular meeting this week with 21 members present. The H. E. club chairman, Mrs. C. G. Smith, announced a club meeting will be held Tuesday, July 15, at the home of Mrs. Ida Kragenbrink. Charlie Mitchell was appointed to report to the sawmill workers' union concerning rent of the hall. It was also voted to rent the grange kitchen to the union for an ice cream supper. After grange seating drills were practiced, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Ashley, J. M. Allender, E. S. Anderson and W. C. Singhose. Refreshment committee for July 22 includes Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Crader, L. S. Dey, Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Dillon and Mrs. Edith Dunn.

CRESWELL—At the regular meeting of Creswell grange Thursday evening Mrs. F. L. DeBerry, lecturer, presented a patriotic program, reading the American creed as an opening number. All sang "America the Beautiful." The preamble to the constitution of the United States was repeated in unison. This was followed by a quizz on American history. Mrs. E. J. Hengelbrok read on American privileges and Mrs. Clara Doty told of the duties of citizens of our country. Mrs. E. F. Roberts gave the history of the flag. A poem was read by Mrs. John Napper. History of the national anthem was given by Frankie Vick. Mrs. DeBerry gave rules for the salute to the flag and all joined in a closing song.

Harold Parks presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Frances Treadwell was elected to membership by demit from the Sherwood grange. An application for membership by initiation was also presented. The Home Economics club suggested that the grange hall yard be cleared of grass and it was voted to hire the work done. The next meeting of the club was announced for July 21 at the hall. Mrs. David Francis told of the new year books of the club and read the objectives for the year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wetzel and Mr. and Mrs. Francis will serve at the next meeting. Mrs. Doty reported for the legislative committee and urged caution in the use of fire in the woods. The Aug. 14 meeting was announced to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Grousbeck following a picnic supper. The quarterly report gave the present membership of 82 with a gain of 8 over last report. Mr. Francis drew the lucky number in the penny drill for the bouquet of flowers for the evening. Elbert DeMoss of the Willakenzie grange was a visitor and gave a talk relative to the work of the band and solicited transportation for the band to the Eugene Farmers' Creamery picnic Sunday at Swimmers' Delight resort. Cars will leave the hall at 10:30 a. m.

Elmira—Elmira H. E. Club met at the hall the past week for an all day meeting and finished work on a charity quilt. A pot-luck luncheon was served at noon. Visitors were George Blanchard, Lester Allen and Giles Phelps at lunch. The juvenile matron Cecile Carlile, held a meeting for the juveniles in the hall that day. Bessie Christopher and Grace Whiting were initiated into the juvenile group as honorary members. Myrtle Allen and Austin Christopher received their initiation as honorary juveniles at state grange sessions in Newport. A business meeting of H.E.C. was presided over by chairman Ila Shields in the afternoon at which time members discussed plans for the community Fair, also the Lane county fair, to be held in September. Committees were appointed for the various exhibits, with instructions to decide whether to give merchandise prizes instead of the ribbons which have been given in the past. It was also decided to ask the grange to set a date for a shingling bee, at which time the quarterly birthday dinner will be held, also a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Guy Deedon, who was Hazel Christopher before her marriage June 28. The club decided to make two crib quilts for Doernbecher hospital this month. Members discussed having a bazaar at the community fair, and volunteered making small articles to sell at that time. At the next meeting, July 22, the grounds will be cleaned of all fire hazards, thereby earning a $3.50 premium offered the Home Economic Clubs throughout the state.
