Harrisburg Men On Long Auto Tour

HARRISBURG, Aug. 12.—(Special)—Arnold Sittler, Davie Lee and Gary Piper, Nell Deff and Charles Quimby returned Sunday from a week's attendance at the educational camp at Turner, sponsored by the men's "Ninety and Nine" organization.

Frank Dempsey and Alex Elliott started Thursday on an automobile tour which will include most of the great dams in the western states. They went first to Bonneville and Grand Coulee, then planned a short stop at Rainier national park, and from there the trip will include as many other dams as the time will allow. They expect to be gone about ten days.

Walter Chastain returned home Saturday from the Deaconess hospital in Salem where he underwent an operation.

Mrs. H. M. Stevenson, Mary Jeffries, Clifford Price, and Larch Ellenberg went to Portland, Sunday. There they were met by Captain Stevenson, and by Jeanne Jeffries. The latter returned to Harrisburg with the group in the evening.

Flax De-Seeded

The Harrisburg flax plant put out its first load of de-seeded product last Thursday. Some trouble was experienced in getting the machine for this part of the process. As the de-seeding is the first operation, the flax which has been coming in for more than a week, has been piled in two large sheds and many tons stacked outside. Three of the buildings are completed, one is in the making and several others are yet to be built. Besides the carpenters, there are about a dozen men employed in the flax processing.

Mrs. Grace Darling entertained at a swimming party Friday evening on the island. Present were about fifteen members of the Wesley Foundation of the Methodist church in Eugene. Rev. A. Vosser, pastor of the Harrisburg Methodist church, the Misses Clarence Spurlin, Grace and Laura Darling and Preston Darling.

Mrs. Elmer Wadsworth, manager of the local telephone office, is taking a two week vacation report. She is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Jones of Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Conte of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. James Harrold of Washington, D. C., visited Sunday with the Lester Conte family. They all made a trip to the Fern Ridge dam. Mr. Harrold is an army engineer from the army department at Washington and is out in the west on business.

E. W. Blehm, Mrs. D. G. Clark, Connie Stone, Mary Lou Stroda, Margaret Hayworth and Frank Huston spent Sunday at Otter Rock with Mrs. Blehm and Marybelle. Mary Lou remained for a week's visit, and Mary Anna Lowell, who had been there for a week, returned with the party.
