Kiser, McEuin in Title Mat Clash

HIGH CLIMBER

By DICK STRITE

The Hills Creek Hillbillies will play their baseball "swan song" on the Swimmers' Delight diamond next Sunday afternoon in a State league game against the Bend Elks.

Long lived the king—the king is dead!

For some 15 years the Hills Creek Lumber Co., has been pouring its financial support in the life of, first the Pleasant Hill team of the Cascade league, then the present Hillbillies.

Although the 'Billies have never finished far up in the State league circuit, and sometimes have been in the ruck, Lane county baseball fans have taken them to their hearts—a fightin', spirited bunch of fellows who always played heads-up ball and never knew when they were licked.

The Hillbillies made several "flashes in the pan," placing third in both the 1938 and 1939 state semi-pro tournaments at Silverton. . . . and in the 1939 season finished second in the second-half State league standings, and tied for second in the total games won and lost for the entire season.

When the original Pleasant Hill team was organized all of the present veterans were grade-school youngsters. But as the years rolled by these kids gradually displaced the oldtimers and six of the fellows still remain in the lineup—and will be honored by spectators Sunday afternoon.

The "spark" of the outfit is Grover Kelsay, catcher and infielder and one of the best "money" hitters on the club. The little success the Hillbillies have enjoyed has been because of Grover's willingness to work under heavy handicaps—playing a circuit in which other teams were far superior in finances and talent. Grover is completing his 11th season and is only 25 years old.

Bun Kelsay, the southpaw pitching veteran and first-baseman, is the veteran of the sextet and still only 28 years old. This is his 14th season. Howard Parks, the slugging outfielder, is in his 10th season and only 25 years old. Brother Homer, an equally good fielder and almost as potent as Brother Howard at the plate, is in his ninth season, and 24 years old. . . . Cliff Baxter, the peppery infielder, is playing his ninth season and is 28 years old. Dick Wright is 25 and in his eighth year with the club.

When Grover announced that the "Old Horse Shay" is broken down it probably made his heart bleed. . . . Baseball is in his blood and bones, the same as his teammates. . . . And while the Hillbillies pass on, no doubt most of the players will still be out there knocking the apple around, come another season.

The Billies made one last effort to capture a State league pennant this season—after so many years of dominance in the Cascade circuit. . . . The club signed Monty Dean as manager and infielder, Len Stelzer at short, and made offers to Johnny Bubalo and other outstanding players. . . . But it was no go—and after Sunday it will be all over.

Local fans no doubt will flock to Swimmers' Delight to see this team in action for the last time. . . . It will be many years before Lane county can boast of its very own "Gas House Gang."

After Sunday's game the players and their wives will gather for one last fling—a picnic supper at the resort that has been their home park these past few years.

And as the Hillbillies move on, we say to these uncrowned champions:

Long lived the king—the king is dead!

Local lumbermen, especially those associated with plywood, will be interested to learn that experiments have been made in constructing crew shells with plywood—and found successful.

Bruce Myers, sports editor of the Corvallis Gazette-Times, says that Oregon State's crew coach, Ed Stevens, has built two four-oar shells and is now constructing an eight-oar craft—at a tenth the cost of the standard shell built usually of western red cedar . . . Stevens used Douglas fir plywood.

COMPLETE PROGRAM

Main Event—Champion Jack Kiser vs. Challenger Bill McEuin, Pacific coast light heavyweight championship.

Semi Final—George Wagner vs. George Kitzmiller.

Opener—Toby Wallace vs. Walter Achiu.

Referee—Elton Owen.

Jack Kiser, the sensational St. Johns youngster who holds the Pacific coast light-heavyweight title only after three years in professional wrestling, is different from most grapplers in all but one thing—confidence.

Kiser signed for two championship matches within a four-day period, against George Wagner and Billy McEuin. He defeated Wagner in Portland Monday night, taikng a gamble on Thursday's meeting here with McEuin. But it was no gamble for Kiser who is sure he can take the measure of any man 180 pounds and under—possibly even heavyweights.

Bill McEuin Confident, Too

McEuin, who held the title until he ran into Kiser last month, is another one of those confident matmen and predicts a return step to the throne Thursday night at the fairgrounds arena where the two men meet in the headline attraction of Promoter Herb Owen's weekly mat show.

Two other outstanding matches are on the schedule. George Kitzmiller, who defeated Walter Achiu in Portland earlier in the week, will take on Wagner in a semi-final battle. Although forced to give away some 20 pounds, Wagner, seeking another match with Kiser, will be a slight favorite over the 200-pound Portland truckdriver.

Achiu will make an effort to regain lost prestige in a match against the talented Portlander, Toby Wallace who was a first-night favorite here several weeks ago in losing to McEuin, but showing a splendid array of holds.

Kiser, the sun-tanned ship-yard worker, lacks the experience and talent of most of the performers now in the Owen "stables," but his lightning speed and aggressiveness pulls him through.

Defense for "Skin-the-Rabbit"

The champion is well founded in all the basic holds, and boasts on one "clincher"—a hold in which he grasps an opponent's wrists and pulls them through the victim's legs, resulting in the startled grappler finding his shoulders pinned to the mat and nothing to do about it. The hold has been dubbed "skin-the-rabbit," resembling the age-old backyard trick performed by youngsters.

The hold is particularly potent against McEuin who uses a head-—almost as extensively as the kidney punch. But the tough Texan claims he has perfected a defense for the hold and will avoid headlocks whenever possible.

Reserved seat tickets are on sale at the Club cigar store.

The curtain-raiser is scheduled to get under way promptly at 8:30 o'clock.

Pop Warner Quits San Jose 'Post'

SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 21—(U.P.)—Glenn Scobey "Pop" Warner, one of the nation's leading football coaches, told San Jose State college officials today he would not return this year as advisory coach at San Jose State.

Warner said he would remain at Springville, N. Y., because he "wants a year to loaf."

Two years ago the former Stanford university coach came to San Jose State to assist Dud DeGroot, head football mentor. Last year he advised Ben Winkelman, who succeeded DeGroot.

With Warner as advisory coach, the Spartans won 23 games and lost one.

Mrs. Mann Continues As Western Golf Threat

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—(U.P.)—Mrs. Russell Mann co-medalist, matched strokes today with Mrs. Frank Newell, Long Beach, Cal., in the feature quarter-final contest of the Women's Western amateur golf championship.

Mrs. Newell, the former Elizabeth Hicks, is expected to prove a major hurdle in the Omaha matron's march to regain the title she won in 1933. Mrs. Mann established herself as a favorite by sweeping aside 17-year-old Jeanne Cline, 6 and 5. Mrs. Newell defeated her fellow townslady, Peggy Rutledge.

Diamond 'A' Canners Annex District Softball Crow

Quality Market Beaten, 8 to 2

'Soup' Toman Again Leads Team's Hitting

The Diamond "A" Canners won a comparatively easy 8-to-2 victory over Quality Market of Cottage Grove at Civic Stadium Wednesday night to gain a berth in the state softball tournament opening at Oregon City Sunday. The locals, entrants last year, will play the Portland No. 3 entry in a first-round game.

Several hundred spectators saw the Marketmen make a game of it until the seventh when their defense cracked and the Canners combined extra-base hits with an error to score three runs. The contest failed to stack up with the excellent exhibition of Monday night when the Canners eked out a 2-1 win over Dunham Transfers of Roseburg in the first of the single-elimination series.

"Soup" Toman, the leading hitter of the series with four for six, opened the first inning with a single off Frank Jacobs' glove at third. He advanced on Johnny Dunn's sacrifice, went to third on Charlie DeAutremont's infield out, and scored when Doc Taylor's bounder went through Tommy Cox at short.

Three No-No Innings

The Canners were never headed and Toman added another run in the third with a solid blow that scooted under the leftfield fence for a four-bagger.

In the meantime Vern Adams had pitched no-hit, no-run ball, striking out five in the first two frames. Two errors at third put Ed Russell and Pete Taylor on the paths and Ed Wellnitz rapped out a double to score both runners for a 4-0 lead going into the last of the fourth.

Adams was found for three hits in that frame—doubles by Dale Gates and Jack Butterworth and a single by Tom Gallo for two Quality Market runs. The visitors threatened again in the sixth when Curt French beat out an infield hit, but the Canners came up with a nicely executed double play.

Consecutive triples by Dunn and DeAutremont and singles by Doc Taylor and Russell gave the Fruit Grower nine three markers in the first of the seventh.

Marketmen Threaten Late

The champions rode along with their substantial lead until the ninth when Butterworth walked—the fifth issued by Adams—and advanced to second on Gallo's second single. Ed Russell fumbled Harold Harpole's ground ball, filling the bases with none away. Cox popped out to second, Skade flied to third, and Billy Sutton raced over near the leftfield line to snag Tracy's fly to retire the side—and end the ball game.

Butterworth allowed only eight hits and didn't issue a walk, but his teammates supported him poorly. Gallo led the Grove hitters with two for three.

Cardinals Gain On Brooklyn

Bridges Holds Yankees To 2 Hits For Tigers

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press)

The pennant problem in the National league is getting to be "can the St. Louis Cardinals keep going with all their injuries?" instead of "can the Cardinals beat the Brooklyn Dodgers?"

In spite of a procession of trouble the Cardinals have kept right on coming and Wednesday swept a doubleheader from the Braves 2-0 and 3-2. Ernie White, the Cards' great young lefthander, pitched a six-hit shutout in the first game for his 15th victory and Howard Pollett, 20-year-old southpaw, pitched a four-hitter for his major league debut in the nightcap.

Error Gives Dodgers Win

The double triumph enabled the Cards to climb within a game and a half of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who were given a 7-6 handout by the Pittsburgh Pirates for Brooklyn's sixth straight win.

The Dodgers exploded four runs in the first inning, then were overtaken by a six-run rally of the Buccaneers in the third, when Bob Elliott hit a three-run homer. The Dodgers tied the score on Pete Reiser's homer in the seventh, with the winning run crossing the plate in the ninth when Rightfielder Elliott dropped a fly ball with the bases loaded and two out.

The Cincinnati Reds reinforced their third-place position by shutting out the poor Phillies twice, 2-0 and 3-0. John Vander Meer allowed only three hits and Elmer "The Great" Riddle kept six blows scattered for his 14th triumph in the nightcap.

The Chicago Cubs cut loose with a 16-hit attack as Vallie Eaves kept eight hits spaced to beat the New York Giants 9-4.

Bridges Gives Yanks 2 Hits

In the American league, the New York Yankees were squeezed out 1-0 by the Detroit Tigers as Tommy Bridges pitched two-hit ball for ten innings in one of the finest performances of his long career.

The Chicago White Sox chopped another game off the Yankees' ample lead as John Rigney blanked the Philadelphia Athletics 9-0 for the third shutout in two days by a Sox pitcher and Rigney's second shutout in two starts.

The collapsing Cleveland Indians dropped their 14th game in 15 decisions 6-3 to the Washington Senators in a pitching duel between Arne Anderson and Al Smith which was decided in the ninth inning when the Senators scored four times to Cleveland's two.

The Boston Red Sox were beaten in both ends of a doubleheader by the St. Louis Browns, 11-9, and 4-3. Each team made a dozen hits in the first game, but the Browns grouped five runs in the first inning to keep ahead. The second session was a ten-inning affair finally won on John Berardino's squeeze bunt.

Billows Fills One Of Six Tourney Vacancies

NEW YORK, Aug. 21—(U.P.)—Due to late withdrawals, six places remained vacant today in the pairings for the 45th National amateur golf tournament beginning Monday at Omaha.

Eight of the 14 qualifiers in the New York area, including low man William Y. Dear, Jr., announced they would not make the trip. The withdrawals made room for Ray Billows, semi-finalist last year, whose 155 had failed to qualify.

County Trap Shoot Sunday

The Eugene Gun club will hold the annual Lane county trap shoot Sunday, August 24, at the club grounds on Eleventh avenue west. All six clubs in the county will be eligible to enter five-man teams to shoot for the championship trophy of the county.

The club winning the trophy will stage the shoot and furnish the trophy next year. A number of shooters from outside points are expected to attend, as there will be about two dozen trophies given to the winners of the different classes of shooters.

COTTAGE GROVE, Aug. 20.—(Special)—The Quality Marketmen annexed the Cottage Grove softball league championship Monday night by defeating Drain in a doubleheader, but must still face Knickerbocker for the city title here Friday night.

With the league officially closed, H. A. Hagen, representing the local merchants, presented the silver trophy to Fred Anderson, sponsor of Quality Market, for the second straight year.

Statistics for the season show that Lunch of Lorane captured the league batting championship with a remarkable average of .763. There were 41 home runs hit during the season, four each by Jacobs of Drain, French of Quality Market and Leonard of Grove Hardware. Gorsline of Drain hit the longest of the season, in the playoff Monday. Both French and Leonard hit two four-baggers in one game.

Grove Hardware, although ending the season in last place, had the distinction of scoring the most runs in one inning—13 after two were out.

Three victories on an aggregate output of four runs; four defeats without the solace of a single counter.

That gives some idea of the display of pitching brilliance which broke unexpectedly and perhaps inexplicably over Coast league wrestling with its busy late-summer schedule of postponed baseball games.

Oakland nipped Hollywood 1-0 Wednesday night and Hollywood in turn caught the Oaks 1-0, while Seattle beat Sacramento 2-0 for the second time in a row to cut the Senators' lead to six games, and Los Angeles whitewashed San Francisco 6-0.

At Sacramento, Les Webber of Seattle was matched against the combined pitching prowess of Bill Schmidt and Bill Caplinger, and both sides were held to four safeties.

Los Angeles' shutout came in the first of a doubleheader, the second of which went to San Francisco, 6-3. It was the work of Ray Prim—a five-hit job.

San Diego kept pace with Seattle, six games behind Sacramento, by nicking Portland 8-7. The Beavers, outhitting the Padres 14-11, were ahead until Pinch Hitter George Detore cracked an eighth-inning double good for two runs.

Oakland profited by a bit of luck in its shutout. Hiram Bithorn of Hollywood actually out-tossed Stan Corbett, five hits to eight.

In the second game, a seven-inning affair, each side got only a lone single, but the blow Henry Pippen gave to Johnny Dickshot in the fifth was followed by three walks, while the hit Gudat drew from Frankie Dasso went to pot.

Ray Billows Looms As Amateur Threat

CHICAGO, Aug. 21—(AP)—Little Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., is hoping this is the year he'll be able to crack the jinx that's been following him in the last six National amateur golf championships—but if he doesn't he won't be able to say he didn't have his game ready for the big test.

The eastern expert—who learned the game's fundamentals in his native Racine, Wis.—today opposed Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., for the first annual Great Lakes amateur championship at the Knollwood club. And the way Billows qualified for this title shot indicated he might improve on a National amateur performance which has seen him become a finalist twice in the last four years.

Billows yesterday gained a measure of revenge for the 7-and-5 licking handed him in the 1939 National amateur by Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, Wash. Billows whipped Ward, 5 and 4 and in the afternoon had just as easy going, defeating Art Sweet of Chicago, 4 and 3.

Regulations Announced For 1941 Migratory Bird Season

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21—(U.P.)—Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes last night announced the 1941 rules for hunting migratory game birds, including 60-day duck seasons throughout the country and a daily bag limit of 10 ducks.

The new regulations prohibit the use of cattle, horses or mules as blinds.

Seasons:

The 60-day waterfowl season begins on:

Oct. 16 in Idaho, Washington, Oregon and California.

The mourning dove season, shortened to a mixmum of 42 consecutive days, extends from:

Sept. 1 to Oct. 12 in California; Sept. 1 to Sept. 10 in Idaho; Sept. 1 to Sept. 15 in Oregon.

The season on rails and gallinules, except coots, is from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30, inclusive. Calirornia, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington have no open season.

Band-tailed pigeons: Sept. 16 to Sept. 30 in Washington; Dec. 1 to 15 in California; Sept. 1 to 15 in Oregon.

Bag Limits:

Ducks—Ten a day, or 20 in possession, the same as last year. However, one wood duck may be included this year. Three bufflehead or three redheads or three of these species together, may be in the daily bag, and six among the ducks possessed. Canvasbacks and ruddy ducks, formerly grouped with the redheads and bufflehead, were restored to the list of species with the 10-bag and 20-possession limits.

Geese and brant (except snow geese in Idaho and Ross's geese throughout the country, all of which may not be hunted)—three a day, or six in possession. In addition, hunters may take three blue geese a day, and they may have six blue geese in possession, in addition to the general six-goose limit. The original three or six may also include or consist entirely of blue geese, and it is thus possible for a hunter to take six blue geese a day or have 12 in posession, if he takes or possesses no other kinds of geese.

The special three-a-week geese limit in Siskiyou, Calif., is an "experiment in federal game management which will be closely watched," Ickes said. "Records show that in recent years the goose kills in these counties have been altogether too heavy."

Rails and gallinules (except sora and coot)—15 in the aggregate of all kinds; sora, 15; Coot, 25; woodcock, four; mourning and white-winged doves, 12 in the aggregate of all kinds; band-tailed pigeons—10.

Possession limits on sora, coot, rails, gallinules, doves and pigeons are the same as the daily bag limits, but hunters may have eight woodcocks, or two days' bag in possession.
