Woodruff Nurseries Sold to Bill Raper

Announcement of the sale of the Woodruff Nurseries on old highway 99, a mile and a half north of Eugene, to William H. (Bill) Raper was made Saturday by Roy Woodruff, who has owned and operated the nurseries for 30 years.

Mr. Raper has been with Mr. Woodruff for the past 15 years. He announces that he will continue the business on the same high plane that has characterized Mr. Woodruff's management.

The Woodruff nurseries are the largest in the western part of the state south of Portland. The plant has at the present time between 40,000 and 50,000 trees and shrubs on the ten acres occupied by it. Trees and shrubs originating from all parts of the world are carried.

Mr. Woodruff and his wife will continue to reside on the home place on the old highway and plan to continue to take an active part in the affairs of the community.
