

Eugene Register-Guard

LANE COUNTY'S HOME NEWSPAPER
EUGENE, OREGON, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1941

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. C. L. SCHWERING

Greeting returning students and incoming freshmen as the University of Oregon opens its new year is Mrs. C. L. Schwering, dean of women. The campus term gets underway September 29, rushing and registration concluding this coming week.

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. WILLIS B. SHEPARD

Among committee chairmen arranging details for the annual benefit bridge party to be given by the Re-Active club on October 11 are Mrs. Willis B. Shepard, at left, and Mrs. John Gallagher. Proceeds from the party go to aid the WPA nursery school.

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. JOHN GALLAGHER

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MRS. THOMAS H. TAYLOR

One of September's most attractive brides was Mrs. Thomas Howard Taylor, the former Alice Giustina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Giustina, the wedding being an event of Tuesday.

Bishop photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS YVONNE STEVENS

Announcement was made this week of the engagement of Miss Yvonne Stevens to Stanley Carlson of Portland.

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS MARJORIE THEDA

Announcement was made this week of the engagement of Miss Marjorie Theda to Sam M. Cox.

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS JACQUELINE LARAWAY

New president of the Eugene Spinners club is Miss Jacqueline Laraway, elections having been held in early September.

Dancing Clubs Organize; Century Party Sept. 27; Others Start in October

By MARIAN LOWRY

Late September and early October will find the local dancing clubs organized for the new year. Committees already have been busy selecting dates and arranging accommodations for their monthly parties.

Century club is the first to start its dances, the number one party of a series of eight to be held next Saturday evening at the Eugene hotel as a semi-formal event. On the committee are Mrs. Maurice Clarke, Mrs. Hale G. Thompson, Richard Scott, Mrs. Ethan Newman, Carl Webster, and Mrs. Stephen Crosley.

Assembly club officers sent out notices to the membership this past week listing a schedule of six dances for this year. The first dance is slated for October 25. The others arranged for the year include the following dates: November 22, New Year's eve, February 7, March 14, April 11.

The Assembly dances will be held at the Osburn hotel. Officers of the club this year include William G. East, Joe Richards, Mrs. George F. Schaefer, Mrs. Thomas I. Chapman.

Amusement club has calendared its first dance for October 11 at the Eugene hotel as an invitational one. Other dances through the year will be given as follows: Thanksgiving dance, November 15; New Year's eve; valentine dance on February 14; St. Patrick's

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 14)