

A.U.W.
Luncheon
Saturday

Eugene branch of the Association of University Women opens an annual luncheon program for the new year Saturday afternoon, September 27, with a program and a dance at the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Gordon, state chairman of international relations, is to be the guest speaker. All A. U. W. members, prospective members, and those interested in hearing the program are invited.

During the meeting, the year's program will be announced, special attention to be given to the eight study groups organized this year.

To List Forums
Featuring the meeting announcement to the public will be conducted during the luncheon by the A. U. W. study groups this year.

Their leaders include: International relations, Mrs. Effie Knapp; war relief, Miss Mary Sherwin; women's part in world today, joint leadership by Mrs. Henry H. Norton, Mrs. Claire Kneeland, Mrs. M. McGee, Mrs. Effie R. Barnett, and Mrs. A. F. Barnett; book group, Mrs. Rose C. Hall; afternoon book group, Mrs. M. D. Rietman; recent graduate group, Mrs. Alma Sarpola Freilsson; art, leader pending.

Committee Heads
Change in personnel of some of the committee chairmen are announced as follows: Mrs. G. Gullion, social chairman; Mrs. Claire Kneeland, education; Mrs. Effie R. Knapp, international relations; Mrs. Margaret Marston, study groups.

Following the meeting and luncheon, tea will be served to the executive board and all committee chairmen as the guests.

These meetings are being sponsored by the group with following arrangements: November, a program on health; December, a Christmas party; January, a Sunday meeting, an international program; March, a program on training our youth; May, a meeting on the American woman's status; May, the final meeting, a formal dinner.

COLLEGE CREST Community Club announces its social next Friday evening at the house. A potluck supper will be served at six-thirty. Mrs. Mark Deller, Mrs. Wise, and Mrs. Johl in charge. A program will follow, and a Silver in charge. The program will conclude with a dance. All newcomers are invited.

NETTA CLUB will meet next Friday afternoon at one o'clock in the K. P. hall.

Kennell-Elis photo, Wilshire engraving
MRS. R. H. GOODWINKennell-Elis photo, Wilshire engraving
MRS. WENDELL BARTHOLOMEWKennell-Elis photo, Wilshire engraving
MRS. D. C. EBBERT

September is a month of weddings. Among recent brides are these three, left to right: Mrs. Robert H. Goodwin, the former Phyllis Drury; Mrs. Wendell Bartholomew, formerly Grayce Marshall; and Mrs. Donald Calvert Ebbert, the former Cathryn Ellen Zamer.

Breakfast
To Honor
"Bosses"

Booked for early Tuesday morning is the annual "bosses' breakfast," sponsored by the Credit Women's Breakfast club for all members and their employers.

This year's breakfast will be given at McCrady cafe at seven o'clock. Miss Wanda Wagner will preside as president.

Mrs. Clarence A. Elkins is program chairman. Other committee chairmen working on the event include: Miss Marjorie Edwards, invitations; Miss Frances Travis, decorations; Dr. Victory Morris, hospitality; Miss Cecelia Gassman, finance; Miss Mary Sue Jackson, programs.

GETCHELL CLUB of the R. N. A. will meet for a one-thirty dessert luncheon Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Peters, 390 Nineteenth avenue west.

Reception For School Staff

Honoring Virgil Reese, new principal of the Edison school, Mrs. Reese and the faculty of the school, the Edison P.T.A. is entertaining Wednesday evening at a reception at the school building, starting at eight o'clock. The executive group is in charge.

Besides Mr. Reese, other staff members at the school include: Mrs. Iola Houghton, Miss Anne Moses, Miss Betty Mahany, Miss Opal Woodson, Miss Marie Tinker, Mrs. Edith Hays, Martin Burg.

John Casteel of the University of Oregon is to be the speaker. Refreshments will be served. All patrons of the school are invited.

ANNOUNCEMENT was made recently by Mr. and Mrs. George Lammer of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Lammer, to Corporal Donald Leach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Leach of Portland. No date is set for the wedding. Corporal Leach is stationed at Fort Lewis.

Features
Of Benefit
Listed

Several interesting features are being arranged for the Red Cross club's annual benefit the afternoon of October 11 at the Eugene hotel. The event is given to aid the WPA nursery school.

Card playing will begin at one-thirty o'clock. There will be prizes at each table, in addition to a special prize. Playing will begin as soon as the table arrives.

The style show is to be presented at three-thirty o'clock. Those not caring to play may purchase tickets for the style show. Kaufman Brothers store is to show ladies styles, Russell's store the children's clothing. Johnson Furniture store is arranging the stage. Decorations and tallies will be in keeping with the autumn theme.

Mrs. Kieth Fennell is chairman of the ticket committee. All members of the club have tickets. Reservations may be made for table, individual, or party groups, or for the style show only.

Music is planned, an instrumental trio to play at the beginning of the party and during the style show.

Girl Scouts are assisting with the serving. Home made candy is being served and cookies will be sold.

PAST MATRONS club of Evangeline chapter, O. E. S., lists its first meeting of the fall for next Friday evening at the home of Mrs. O. S. Fletcher, 900 Twentieth avenue east, for dessert at seven-fifteen o'clock. Mrs. F. L. Beard and Mrs. W. R. Abel will be assistant hostesses.

D. A. V. AUXILIARY holds its regular business meeting Friday evening at eight o'clock in the armory.

Open House
Of Club
Thursday

Open house for members and guests is planned by the Eugene Business and Professional Women's club for next Thursday evening at the parish house of St. Mary's Episcopal church at seven-thirty o'clock. A similar meeting is held each fall as the club starts its program of recreational groups. Each member is asked to invite a guest for the evening.

Mrs. Ella T. Edmunson, chairman of the membership committee and Mrs. Harold Jensen, chairman of the education committee are in charge.

The club's recreation groups will be explained in a broadcast by remote control from the recreation room of St. Mary's Episcopal church. This broadcast will outline the advantages of each group. Short three minute talks will be given by Mrs. Ella T. Edmunson who will talk on "The Meaning of Membership in the Business and Professional Women's Club; Mrs. R. W. Schiska, state finance chairman, and Dr. Victory Morris, state research chairman. The Choral group under the leadership of Mrs. Buford Roach will furnish the music.

Assisting on Mrs. Edmunson's committee are: Miss Ann Brenner, Miss Gladys Chase, Miss Helen Goodenow, Mrs. Very Raye Lee, Miss Thelma Neaville, and Mrs. Jeannette Wheeler. Assisting Mrs. Jensen are Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Miss Elaine Brown, Mrs. Buford Roach, Mrs. Floyd Hall, Mrs. Ruth Richardson, Mrs. Evelyn Knight, Miss Dorotha Davenport, Mrs. Jeannette Wheeler, Dr. Victory Morris, and Miss Clara Nasholm. Decorations are in charge of Miss Elaine Brown and Mrs. Jeannette Wheeler, and Mrs. J. F. White heads the hospitality committee.

Groups Outlined

The following groups are functioning:
Book—With Mrs. Ruth Richardson, leader, meets second and fourth Tuesdays at homes of members. This cooperative reading group will review and discuss books of interest to the group in the fields of travel, biography, exploration and fiction.

Bridge—There are three contract groups. Number one, with Evelyn Knight as leader, meets second and fourth Fridays at six-thirty o'clock. This group is filled. Contract group No. 2 Mrs. Wheeler as leader meets first and third Thursdays at seven-thirty o'clock. There are two vacancies in this group. Contract group No. 3 with Dr. Victory Morris as leader, meets second and fourth Tuesday evenings. This is a beginning group and open. The members of these groups enjoy a gay evening of bridge and a chance to improve their game.

Choral—Mrs. Buford Roach as leader, meets first and third Wednesdays. Those interested in an evening of singing are invited to join this group.

Drama—Mrs. Floyd Hall as leader. Dates of meeting are not yet arranged. Members of this group will take part in short plays and skits, and study dramatic work in accordance with the desires of the group.

First Aid—Miss Dorotha Davenport and Mrs. Glenn Pirtle as leaders, began this month for twelve weeks, meeting on Wednesdays. A second group begins in January. If enough are interested, first aid certificates are given at completion of these courses.

Handicraft—There are two handicraft groups. Number one, Mrs. Ruth Johnson as leader, meets first and third Thursdays. No. two with Miss Elaine Brown as leader meets second and fourth Wednesdays. A social evening with handwork and chatting is enjoyed by these groups.

Red Cross—Mrs. Harold Jen-

Campus Events
Are Announced

Rush week among the women's sororities concludes Tuesday evening of this week's winding up with a dance honoring pledges of all groups, the party to be in Gerlinger hall with the alumnae advisers and their husbands as chaperons. The dance will be from nine until twelve o'clock.

Dates for Sunday include dinner from one until three o'clock and supper seven until nine o'clock. Preference night is Monday, pledging Tuesday evening.

For Freshmen
President and Mrs. Donald M. Erb will entertain for their annual reception to the freshmen Saturday evening in McArthur court, the annual "hello" dance to follow.

After rush week, most of the time will be taken up with registration. Booked for October 2 is the annual church night for the students.

HONORING Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Rutherford on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, a group of relatives gathered at their home at 863 Ferry street, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford were married in Cabell county, West Virginia, Sept. 19, 1891. There are seven children in the family, including Elmer E. Rutherford of Casper, Wyoming, Ernest S. Rutherford of Great Falls, Mont., Mrs. Eric O. Evered of Nashua, Mont., Carl and Victor Rutherford of Eugene, Mrs. Carlos Morris of Medford, and Miss Gwendolyn G. Rutherford of Eugene. There also are twenty-seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford are natives of Ohio. They homesteaded near Rudyard, Mont. in 1912, living there until 1931 when they came to Eugene.

A family reunion marking the occasion was an event of the summer.

THE MEETING of the Letter Carriers auxiliary will be a Friday evening dessert at the home of Mrs. Hershel Pinkstaff, Mrs. Glenn Pike is the co-hostess.

sen to be in charge of the Red Cross sewing. Beginning Oct. 1, members may take sewing home instead of having a regular meeting night.

Sports—This group with Miss Nasholm as leader comprises the members who enjoy sports, and the times of meeting vary with seasons. Golf, bowling, and ice skating are among the sports enjoyed by this group.

Quota
Meeting
Monday

Quota club has arranged an evening meeting Monday at six-thirty o'clock at the Eugene hotel.

The international relations committee is presenting the program, featuring six reports from the recent international convention at Lake Placid.

Those giving these reports and their topics include: Miss Thelma Neaville, good citizenship; Mrs. Earl Byrom, achievements of women; Mrs. E. A. Lundy, crime prevention; Mrs. A. Townsend, extending friendly relations; Mrs. Lillian Morton, international relations; Mrs. J. F. White, legislation discriminating against women.

On the committee in charge for the evening are Mrs. Lillian Morton, Mrs. Ardath Danielson, Miss Gladys Kerley, Mrs. A. Townsend.

AMERICAN LEGION auxiliary is to have its social meeting Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. Myrl Garnett. On the committee are Mrs. Elmer Geiger, Mrs. Garnett, Mrs. R. L. Robertson, Mrs. C. E. Williamson, Mrs. Lester Edblom, Mrs. Neil Robertson, Mrs. Helen Pierce, Mrs. Joe Bednoschek. Cards and other games will be played.

SOROSIS club is meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Andrew Hill.

Rhythm
Romancer

with the
Sculptured Waistline

Patricia Petticoats... those sentimental little slips you'll rave about... with exquisite lace topping fitted bodices, or with that tailored look if you desire. In white, reflection, shell, and black, priced at 1.98, 2.95, and 3.95.

Kaufman Bros.
EUGENE'S FASHION CENTER

A Touch of Velvet
on Black

Black-as-midnight crepes accented by rich deep velvet... with interesting details in velvet yokes, bands of ribbon at low waistlines, perky young bows...

Model as sketched... Tiny velvet petals applied on black crepe... with vee-neck and softly-gathered hip-line for flattering simplicity...
22.75

Kaufman Bros.
EUGENE'S FASHION CENTER

BEARDS'

Accessories

Smart new color-bright accessories to accent and to costume you for your Fall fashion role!

HANDBAGS

turned out with dressmaker design, smartly tailored calf... suedes... broadcloths... Faille... "Korday" 1.98 to 5.95 detailed by artful hands... classic pull-ons... dressmaker types... novelty styles... in suede-kidskin-pigskin... cape... "Fowne's," "Kielav," "Bacmo." Priced 1.98 to 3.95 up Fowne's Fabrics 1.00 pr.

GLOVES

HATS

Fall Celebrities—High-spirited hats you'll wear with knowing chic—side-swept profiles... Halo Pompadours... postillions... turbans... classics. Black and colors 2.95 to 7.95

BRILLIANT COSTUME JEWELRY

in gold or silver metal settings... Glowing pins... clips... necklaces... lapel trims... all are show pieces... Priced 1.00 to 5.95

Youthful Charmer

Enchanting fur felt, high off the face, with pert velvet side-bows and a long veil for back interest.

Kaufman Bros.
EUGENE'S FASHION CENTER