After the exchange of gifts refreshments were served.

Club Entertained

COBURG, Dec. 20—(Special)—The Neighborly Neighbor club met at the home of Mrs. J. S. Green this week for the annual Christmas party. As the hostess is always presented at each meeting with a gift, it was decided hereafter to make that gift defense stamps. The quilts, which the group has been making for the Doernbecher hospital, were completed and will be sent at once to the hospital. A gift exchange was held and the "Sister Sues" of the club were revealed with a drawing for next year also taking place. The next meeting of the club will be on Tuesday afternoon, January 6, with Mrs. William James. One visitor, Mrs. Bert Salisbury, and thirteen members were present.

Funeral Is Held

DRAIN, Dec. 20—(Special)—Funeral services were held last week in the Drain Methodist church for Oscar (Babe) Mattoon, 58, who died at a hospital in Roseburg, after a long illness. He was born in Drain Aug. 2, 1883, and had always lived here. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Angie Remington, and Mrs. Kate Moore of Drain, and three brothers, Orange, of Portland, William and Benjamin of Drain. Interment in Drain cemetery. The Missionary society of the Christian church met last week at the home of Miss Ruby Thomas. Edna Harlan was the leader on the missionary topic, "Alaska." Mrs. Russel read the scripture lesson, Mrs. Ida Patchen and Mrs. May Gardner led in prayer. A Christmas program was also given, Christmas story by Bessie Lakey, Christmas readings by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Haldeman, and carols were sung by Edna Kenney, Ruby Thomas and Bessie Lakey. After the program, gifts were exchanged, and a comfort given Mrs. Trimble by the women of the church. The hostesses served refreshments to 18 ladies. A dinner honoring Steve Tonoll's birthday was held at his home Sunday. Mrs. Albert Tonoll served the dinner, which was a surprise to the honor guest. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tonoll and family of Divide, Antoinette Tonoll family of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Martin and family, Creswell; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pollard and daughter, of Green, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Tonoll of Springfield, Mr. Nuhaus, of Cottage Grove and the honor guest and family. Mrs. Lily Haworth has gone to Vancouver where she will visit her niece, Mrs. James Raymond, who is convalescing from a siege of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Burgess and son George of Woodlawn, Md., were guests at the home of his brother, W. F. Burgess.

School Closes Tuesday

DEERHORN, Dec. 20—(Special)—At a recent meeting of the school board, it was decided to hold school Monday and Tuesday of this week instead of closing school Friday as originally planned. Classes will be resumed Jan. 5.

A group of women met this week to prepare the sacks of candy and nuts for the community treats at the school program. On Thursday several women assisted Mrs. Georzie Perkins in preparing the costumes for the school Christmas pageant. Mail delivery for the neighborhood up the south side of the McKenzie has been established with Carroll Lansbery, carrier. This run of several miles makes the morning mail delivery in this neighborhood a little later than previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benson left the latter part of the week for Seattle where Mr. Benson will be employed in defense work. He has just completed a course in sheet metal work at the vocational school in Eugene. Several volunteer solicitors in this community including Mrs. Horace Morris, Mrs. Ben Lefever and Mrs. Everett Wearin have been canvassing for the Red Cross war relief fund, assisting Mrs. A. E. Peters, chairman for this section of the McKenzie valley. The Four-H clubs of the community have each had a Christmas party in addition to their regular routine meetings. At the Triple-H Four-H Health club Louise Knox and Stella Coleman were in charge of the games. Betty Jeanne Ramsey won in the word building contest. The Dandy Cooks will prepare another camp meal for their outdoor project. The sewing club party was postponed until the day after Christmas when they will meet for the whole afternoon at the home of their leader, Mrs. Everett Wearin. Each girl is to bring a gift. Fallers, buckers and construction crews were laid off the latter half of the week because of the high winds and washed out roads. Snow fell in the high camps. Lowell Hubbard has started construction of a barn at his farm. George Perkins is in charge of the carpenter work.
