Family Gatherings And Other Festivities Mark Christmas For Eugene

By MARIAN LOWRY

Christmas wreaths denoting welcome at the doors . . . gayly decorated trees twinkling with many lights . . . last minute shoppers in the usual dither, it's Christmas time again—jarred and sobered by the war, but still the year's extra special occasion, particularly for the youngsters.

In Eugene, numerous family gatherings traditional for Christmas eve and Christmas day will be held. Many visitors are to be here for the holidays, likewise, a large group of Eugeneans will be spending the day elsewhere.

On Christmas eve, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick K. Davis will entertain for their annual buffet supper for relatives, about eighteen to be present. On Christmas day, Robert A. Booth will entertain the family group for dinner at the Osburn hotel.

A large family gathering for seventy-five or so will be held Christmas day with J. W. Chase and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey F. Ray, as hosts at their home.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Fell will be their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee M. Bown and family of Salem.

Dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Neal for a party at the Osburn hotel Christmas day will be Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilmore of Seattle, Miss Betty Jean Neal, home from Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Raessler of Burbank, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Dave Swenson, Miss Mabel Olson, Miss Leila Mitchell, Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edblom.

Mrs. Raymond Walsh and daughter and son, Jane and Raymond, are to spend Christmas with Mrs. Walsh's mother, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr., in Salem. Later, Mrs. Walsh and family will go on to San Francisco and will be guests at the Fairmount hotel for the remainder of the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Christofferson left Friday noon for New York City to spend Christmas and New Year's with their daughter, Miss Laurita Christofferson, who is taking graduate work at New York university.
