Police, Fire Reserves Meet Monday In Armory

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 20.—(Special)—An important meeting of the Springfield civilian police and fire reserves will be held at the armory Monday, December 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Blackout assignments and stations for both organizations will be given out at this meeting. Roy Woodruff, of Eugene, will speak on the air raid warden program. Chiefs Finucane and Joliff are in hopes that Herschel Taylor, county commander of the civilian reserve, will also be at the meeting to talk to the corps.

Methodist Services Feature Choir Program

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 20.—(Special)—Regular Christmas services of the Ebbert Memorial Methodist church will feature a special Christmas sermon by Rev. Harry Crouse and special music.

A children's program will be put on by the several departments of the Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Sunday evening, December 21, the church choir will present a Christmas and sacred concert program. The presentation is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

The evening program will open with an organ prelude followed by the invocation by Rev. Mr. Crouse. The junior choir will give two numbers and Mrs. Edward Renkin will sing a soprano solo. The offertory will be played by Mrs. John Radmore, organist.

After a contralto solo by Mrs. Crouse, Rev. Mr. Crouse will give the benediction. This will be followed by the organ postlude.

Springfield Girl Scouts Plan Holiday Party

SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 20.—(Special)—All Springfield Girl Scouts are invited to the Scout House on Tuesday evening, December 23, at 7 o'clock, for a party. The senior Girl Scouts will act as hostesses.

Refreshments will be served. Each troop will contribute to the entertainment with pantomimes, skits and songs.

According to Mrs. N. A. Chaffee there is plenty of material on hand at Mrs. Larson Wright's for the new uniforms. All of the troops' national dues should be paid immediately. Troops, 5, 6, and 8 are the only ones which have paid so far.
