Salvation Army Will Play Santa Claus

"Santa Claus by proxy." That's the traditional role played by the Salvation Army, through the medium of its Christmas kettles, in which contributions are now being deposited for Christmas and winter relief, according to Adjutant Carl Duell, local leader of the organization.

"Santa Claus must not pass up a single house in Eugene," Adjutant Duell asserted, "and the scores of clumsily scrawled notes from confident children, dropped in the mail box for Santa Claus and sent by custom to the Salvation Army for attention, present a real problem, which can be met only through contributions from local residents to the Army's Christmas projects."

Names of needy families are compiled carefully, and wholesome Christmas dinners and toys for children, as well as a winter relief program, will be provided worthy families, thanks to the generosity of the residents of Eugene and their efforts to "keep the pot boiling."

Through the Salvation Army's Christmas kettles Santa Claus comes alive for thousands of children; the kettles are as traditional in American life as Santa Claus himself.

Trent Church Will Hold Pageant Sunday

"As the Star Saw It," a Christmas pageant, will be presented by the Trent Sunday school, Sunday, December 21, 7:30 p.m. Also there

CHRISTMAS BELLS

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet the words repeat
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

I thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along the unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong, and mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men."

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead, nor doth he sleep!
The wrong shall fall, the right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men!"

Till, ringing, singing on its way,
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime, a chant sublime,
Of peace on earth, good will to men!

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
Christmas in lands of the fair-tree and pine,
Christmas in lands of the palm-tree and vine,
Christmas where snow peaks stand solemn and white,
Christmas where corn fields stand sunny and bright,
Christmas where children are hopeful and gay,
Christmas where old men are patient and gray,
Christmas, where peace, like a dove in his flight,
Broods o'er brave men in the thick of the fight;
Everywhere, everywhere, Christmas tonight!
For the Christ-child who comes is the Master of all;
No palace too great, no cottage too small.

—Phillips Brooks

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS SIGWART'S

will be a pantomime, "O Little Town of Bethlehem," by Shirley Willis, Betty Joy Kimball and Clara Wheeler, and other musical numbers and recitations. They will have the Christmas tree at the close. Althea Delp is chairman of the program committee. The public is invited.
