New York Markets

NEW YORK, March 21—(AP)—Scattered stocks were successful in attracting timid buyers today but many market leaders remained in the wall-flower division.

A few rails, motors and coppers acted fairly well after a hesitant start but such gains as appeared generally were in negligible fractions. Dealings were sluggish, transfers for the two hours approximating 150,000 shares.

Among stocks Homestake Mining posted another new year's low, along with American Telephone, Fajardo Sugar and Union Carbide.

On the improved side the greater part of the session were General Motors, Chrysler, N. Y. Central, American Smelting and Standard Oil (NJ). Lehigh Valley Coal preferred and Chicago Great Western preferred edged into new high ground for 1942.

Bonds were narrow and commodities irregular.

Lenten Thoughts

Saturday, March 21. "And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation." Read Isaiah 32:16-20.

The Old Testament with an arresting insight uses "habitation" as we use "home." For a home is a house which has become a habit of the spirit.

A house thus loved and lived in becomes more than wood or stone. Its rooms grow rich in memory. Its walls, tested by many storms assure us; its thresholds are hospitality; order is its beauty; contentment its blessing; goodness its crown and its foundations support the structure of society. It needs many kinds of peace to make a peaceable habitation; an inner peaces for each indweller; the peace of love and comradeship; the peace of economic security; the peace of the State—and "the peace of God which passeth understanding."

Our world is sick with longing for peaceable habitations. Must the prophet's vision remain forever unfulfilled?

Prayer: O Father of us all, Who dost establish the solitary in families, praise Thee for our homes. May we make the houses of our habitation, though they be spacious or humble, beautiful with care and bright with love and, by Thy grace, secure in peace. In His Name Who blessed all homes He entered. Amen.
