

'Mobilization' Plan Announced

L. K. Shumaker, commander of District 10 (Eugene area) of the Lane county citizens' defense corps has issued a tentative mobilization plan, which on the basis of present facilities will be used for the "practice alerts" to begin May 1 and afterward.

Mr. Shumaker's plans of mobilization show exactly what each branch of defense service will do with each type of signal, yellow, blue, red and white to be flashed from the air raid warning center.

Mr. Shumaker explained the procedure to be followed during the practice alerts.

"At the headquarters of the Lane county defense council in the armory is located the air raid warning system. This consists of a telephone equipped with four buttons — yellow, blue, red, and white.

When the telephone rings there, the color appropriate to the warning about to be given is flashed. A yellow signal means that there is a known danger and that all members of the citizens' defense corps should remain available and alert. The blue signal means that there is known danger approaching the area and that all members of the corps should take up their posts and remain alert. The red signal means that danger is so close at hand that anything may happen, that the air raid warning whistles will be sounded, total blackout enforced. The white signal means "all clear."

"During the practice—as well as the real—alerts, there is no way of foretelling the order in which these signals will be given. These flash signals will be relayed to the commander's headquarters in the city hall.

The head of each division of the staff of the Citizens' Defense corps is being ordered to consider carefully exactly what behavior he expects of each of the effective members in his branch of service, according to each of the different types of alerts, and to file this information at the earliest possible moment in the commander's office, so that an appropriate summary may be made and duplicated to be placed in the hands of each member of the corps involved.

Several changes have been made recently in the personnel of the district 10 set-up, Mr. Shumaker said.

The revised list follows: Commander, L. K. Shumaker; deputy commanders, N. K. Hichens and J. W. Casey.
