

FOLLOWING THE RUTHLESS PATTERN set in Europe, children of the Orient, too young to understand the terror which has come upon them, are driven from their homelands by the relentless forces of war. Evacuated from Sumatra when the Jap invader spread his terror, these Javanese and Chinese youngsters pose willingly at the Port Melbourne, Australia, hospital, which has become their refuge.

Canning Sugar Ration Liberalized

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—With greatly liberalized allotments of sugar for home canning, the government today encouraged housewives to can a maximum of the nation's fruit crops but made sure the sugar in each jar would be something less than normal.

New regulations, issued by the Office of Price Administration, stipulated that housewives might obtain one pound of sugar for every four quarts of fruit to be put up.

This compares with average peacetime canning recipes, as estimated by government experts, of one pound of sugar for every 2 1/2 quarts of fruit. Only an honor system—and the threat of grave penalties if caught—prevents home canners from putting more sugar into fewer cans of fruit. Upon making application to local ration boards for a purchase certificate for canning sugar, consumers must state how much fruit they canned last year. The time and place to apply, along with announcement of the period for which sugar must be bought, will be announced later by the local boards.

Lorane Girl Wins National 4-H Award

Harriet Phyllis Kempston of Lorane, Lane county, has been announced as Oregon's first major winner for the year in the 4-H club field. News of her selection was received Thursday at the office of E. A. Danielson, assistant county club agent, from the national committee on boys' and girls' club work.

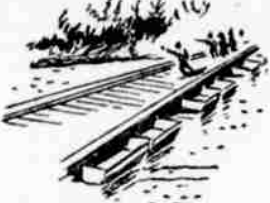

Miss Kempston has placed in the blue award group in the western extension section in the farm accounting record contest. Her achievement entitles her to a trip to the 21st national 4-H contests this fall.

Serves Old Chief

WEST POINT, N. Y.—(AP)—Dr. Abe Mickel, former Louisiana triple threat back under Biff Jones, was appointed Army team physician by Jones, now a colonel and graduate manager of West Point athletics.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Our army spells and pronounces it ponton, not "pontoon", as you do. Ponton bridges cost all the way from $15,000 to $700,000. The smaller bridge using individual metal pontons is pictured here. The largest ponton bridge is 1,050 feet long and is made of rubber instead of aluminum.

One small bridge has a weight capacity of 25 tons, using about 2,000 individual metal pontons. The smallest is used only to take troops over smaller streams. But whether our army uses the smaller or largest ponton, our engineers need plenty of them. If you and every American invests at least 10 percent of income in War Bonds every pay day we can supply our fighting forces with these essentials to a victorious war.

Baker Names KOG County Workers

A Lane county committee of 24 sportsmen and outdoorsmen were named this week to form the working leaders of a county-wide Keep Oregon Green organization by Carl R. Baker, county chairman of the association.

Chairman Baker has named a man to organize every community in the county for this vitally important fire prevention campaign. "The objectives of the Keep Oregon Green association are few, but important," Baker continued. The 24-man committee named by Chairman Baker follows: Willis Brevester, McKenzie Bridge; Prince Helfrich, Vida; Weldon C. Keller, Vida; Leroy Payne, Leaburg; Delbert Saffey, Cottage Grove; Walter Drury, Coburg; Al Fries, Junction City; Paul Baker, Franklin; J. C. Dr. Means To Show Pictures, Give Talk On Malay Jungles

The mysterious Malay jungle and the primitive Sakais who live there are to be presented to Eugene Friday evening at the Methodist church, when Dr. Paul B. Means will show movies of that little-known region. Dr. Means made frequent trips to the jungle from 1930 until 1933, and the movies were taken during his last trip, in April 1933.

By special request Dr. Means and his family will again appear in Malay costume. The program will begin at 7:30, and the public is invited.
