Stevenson-Roehm Wedding Event In Berkeley, Cal.

From Berkeley, Cal., comes account of the wedding of Miss Marjorie Catlin (Bobbie) Roehm of that city and James Robert Stevenson of Eugene.

The ceremony was solemnized at eight o'clock the evening of June 12 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Roehm. Rev. Laurence L. Cross, pastor of the Northbrae Community church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley R. Stevenson went south from Eugene to attend their son's wedding.

The bridal party stood before corner windows against which was placed a low hedge of greenery. Shell pink gladiolus and six white candelabras also were used in decorating.

In White Marquisette

The bride wore a white marquisette dress with wide bands of inserted lace in the waist and full skirt. The dress was made with long sleeves and a train. The short veil fell from a Queen of Scots headpiece trimmed with pearls. The bride carried a handkerchief which had been carried by her mother and grandmother at their weddings. Her flowers were a shower of sweetpeas, bouvardias, and gardenias.

Miss Sally McGrew of Burlingame was maid of honor. She wore a wood-rose marquisette dress and a shoulder length veil matching her dress. Miss Milo Daniels of San Mateo and Miss Elizabeth Buckalew of Piedmont were bridesmaids and wore turquoise blue dresses made like that of the maid of honor. The attendants all carried large fans of pink sweetpeas tied with contrasting ribbons. Little Mary Galigher, in pale blue taffeta opened the door for the guests.

The bride's mother wore an Alice blue crepe dress with corsage of pink begonias. The bridegroom's mother wore a soldier blue dress, trimmed in silver, and a corsage of pink begonias.

Allan Hunt of Burlingame was best man.

A reception was held following the service.

The couple will be at home in Portland. Both are former students, of the University of Oregon, the bride, who graduated this spring, being a member of Gamma Phi Beta; Mr. Stevenson a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

ARRANGED for this afternoon (Sunday) is the wedding of Miss Winifred Miller and Harry Robert Wilmsen, Jr., of Seattle.

The ceremony will be at two o'clock in St. Mary's Episcopal church. Attending the couple will be Mrs. Alfred Samples and Derald Harbert. Ushers will be Ray and Owen Miller, Alfred Samples, and Lyle Nelson. A reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Miller, following the church service.

CHAPTER H of P. E. O. Sisterhood is to meet Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. C. Denson, River Road, at seven-fifteen o'clock. Mrs. Merle Moore is assistant hostess.
