League Protests Tax Action

At the meeting of the executive group of the League of Women Voters this week, it was decided to organize a local group to write congressmen in protest against the action of the ways and means committee in slashing taxation on those in the higher income bracket and raising it on those in the lower income division. Mrs. John C. McCloskey, president of the League, made the report.

Mrs. Marion F. McClain announced study groups and their chairmen for the new year as follows:

Future of the federal system, Mrs. George S. Turnbull.
 Labor and management relations in war and peace, Mrs. D. R. French.
 County reorganization, Mrs. Genevieve Turpin and Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, co-chairmen.
 Taxes and war finance, Dr. Edna Landros.

Demand is being made for a study group on post war reconstruction and world peace, and announcement regarding it will be made later.

The League is not holding a June general meeting. On July 16 a garden party is to be given as the one social event of the summer, the affair to honor Mrs. Dan E. Clark, retiring president, and the new members, Mrs. C. B. Swango is chairman for the party.

The fall's program opens with a general meeting on August 27.
