

Martin's Sacramento Nine Climax Comeback to Take Coast League Title

Solons Beat L. A. Twice to Triumph

First Championship Flag For Sacramento

By the Associated Press
Pepper Martin, who pitched and won his first professional baseball game since a case of poison ivy and a sprained ankle, didn't work any harder that day in Oklahoma than he did yesterday in directing Sacramento to its first Pacific Coast league championship.

STANFORD'S REDSKINS GO ON GRIDIRON WAR PATH—It's "school days" now for the gridiron warriors of Stanford University, but already the military has an eye on them. Col. H. B. Allen, right, and Indian head coach Marchmont Schwarz give the boys a once-over on the first day of practice at the Palo Alto, Calif., "farm."

Los Angeles led the Senators by two games as the teams opened a seven game series at L. A. last Tuesday. Immediately Sacramento dropped the first two games. That meant the team had to take every one of the last five contests—which it did.

Martin's crew snatched the first game of a doubleheader from Los Angeles yesterday in the eighth inning with home runs by center-fielder Buster Adams and catcher Ray Mueller, both national league veterans.

Then Tony Freitas hurled a four-hit second game victory, 5 to 1, which was never in doubt after two Solon runs in the first inning.

This year the Solons lost 14 of their first 20 contests to retrace in last place. Then they took the lead away from Los Angeles on June 15, only to lose it a month later, July 16. After that they stayed in second place until yesterday—the day that counted.

Sacramento beat Los Angeles Saturday 6 to 5. Other games Saturday saw San Francisco beat San Diego 6-3, Portland take a doubleheader from Hollywood 6-3 and 8-5, and Seattle down Oakland twice 2-1 and 4-3.

The league's Shughnessy playoffs begin tomorrow with Seattle meeting Sacramento. The Rainiers have agreed to play all of the contests on the Senators' home grounds because of transportation problems.

The other two teams in the president's cup series, the Angels and San Diego, meet at Los Angeles Wednesday. Three of the seven games will be played in San Diego.

Busters Batter Warcos In 'War' League

(United Press)
The star-studded Portland Boilermakers loomed as the team to beat today in the Pacific Northwest professional football league, following opening games at Portland and Spokane yesterday.

The Boilermakers overpowered the Vancouver, Wash., Warcos 35 to 0, while Spokane upset Seattle 7-6.

A crowd of 12,000 thronged Portland's Multnomah stadium to see the Boilermakers make full use of a half-dozen Oregon State Rose Bowl stars and a number of former all-Americans from Oregon, Washington and other western schools.

Operating behind a giant line which at times averaged 240 pounds, and included such standouts as Elmer Kolberg, Leonard Young, Prescott Hutchins, and Quentin Greenough, ex-O.S.C., Chuck Mucha, and Bob McQueen, Washington; Bill Morgan, Oregon; and Frank Ramsey, O. S. C., Larry Wolfe's fleet backs roared to 28 points in the first quarter, and then added another touchdown in the fourth.

The heavily out-weighted Vancouver team was powerless on the ground, but exhibited two brilliant passers in Abe Poffenroth, ex-Cheney normal, and Bill Wetzler, formerly of Santa Clara.

At Spokane, the highly-touted Seattleites found an unheralded tartar in the Inland Empire club, and the game was scoreless until the final two minutes of play.

A former Whitworth college star, Bob McClintock, romped to the Spokane touchdown in the last period, and Ted Stanek, ex-Gonzaga, added the vital conversion point.

'Saints' Scouted Chicago Elevens High By Manny Vezie

The University of Oregon football squad moved down the "home stretch" Monday in preparation for the 1942 opener against the St. Mary's naval aviation pre-flight training school—in Portland Saturday afternoon. Monday's session was the first of five workouts in bringing the Webfoots to peak form in a much too short 16-day training period.

The Oregons, however, were armed with vital information on the Air Devils' gridiron prowess—at least as far as the system and cadet personnel of Lieut.-Comm. Tex Oliver's team are concerned.

Manny Vezie, assistant Oregon coach, returned Sunday from Stockton where he watched the Sailor Saints defeat College of the Pacific 38-9, and in stride. Head Coach John Warren and assistants Vezie and Ray Segale burned the midnight oil in poring over the facts contained in the lengthy report.

Scrimmage against both the "T" and single-wing formations used by the Air Devils will be due either Tuesday or Wednesday—probably behind locked gates of Hayward field.

The Syracuse Chiefs, favorites to defeat Jersey City and represent the International league in the Little World Series against the American Association, scheduled Rookie Ewell Blackwell for mound duty in the third contest tonight.

Charley Barrett blanked the Giants with four scattered hits as the Chiefs scored their second consecutive shutout, 4-0, yesterday at Jersey City. Home runs by Van Harrington and Al Mele provided the winning margin.

Columbus hopes to take its fourth straight game from Toledo in the American Association play-off tonight for a clean sweep in the finals of the post-season series.

Chicago Elevens High As Pro Circuit Opens

The National Professional football league swings into high gear next Sunday with a five-game schedule. But on the basis of games played thus far, the Chicago Cardinals rank as one of the most improved teams in the circuit.

The Cardinals racked up their second victory in as many starts by blanking the Detroit Lions 13-0, in a Sunday game at Chicago after clipping the Cleveland Rams, 7-0, in their opener a week ago.

The undefeated Chicago Bears, champions of the league, have yet to see action in a league contest. But they won their second straight exhibition game Sunday by defeating the powerful unbeaten Eastern All-Army team, 14-7, before a capacity crowd of 40,000 at Boston.

In the day's other two games, the Redskins humbled the Pittsburgh Steelers, 23-14, at Washington and the Cleveland Rams defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-14 at Akron, O.

A brace of former Stanford stars—Hugh Gallarneau of the Bears and Norm Standee of the army—provided all the touchdowns of the all-out struggle between the pros and the military eleven that wound up in fisticuffs. Tempers flared and fists flew in the last few scrimmage plays.

Halfback Ray Nolting of the Bears was removed from the game. The passing of Charlie O'Rourke, former Boston College star, and a power-attack spear-headed by Gallarneau, led a 75-yard drive at the start of the fourth period that resulted in the Bears' winning touchdown. Gallarneau bulled his way over for the 2.

The rifle-like arm of Sammy Baugh and the fleet running of Steve Juzwik brought the Redskins from behind for victory over the Steelers before 25,000 spectators. Juzwik scored two touchdowns and kicked three place-kicks.

Sewell Sparks Aviators' Win

WALLA WALLA, Sept. 21—(AP)—Billy Sewell and a former Washington State college teammate, Johnny Holmes, led the Second Air Force Bombers from Fort George Wright to a 21-to-0 victory over the St. Martin's college football team tonight before 2,500 persons.

Holmes raced 21 yards around left end for the Bombers' opening touchdown in the second quarter, to give the Spokane team a 7-0 halftime advantage, and his ex-colgar backfield partner made the other two scores in the second half.

The Bombers held a wide statistical edge, with 11 first downs to five for St. Martin's, and 300 yards from scrimmage to 55 for the losers.

Cards Need Five Wins To Clinch Pennant

By JUDSON BAILEY (Associated Press)
The struggle for the National football pennant has now been reduced to the point where St. Louis can clinch it with any combination of five victories of their own or five defeats for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The best Brooklyn could do against the futility Phils yesterday was halve a doubleheader and all.

The ace of the Chicago Cubs pitched a five-hit 3-0 shutout against the Cards in the second game of a doubleheader for his 19th victory after the Cardinals' Morton Cooper had given the Cubs a four-hit 1-0 whitewashing.

Service Elevens New Doctor in Grid Picture

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Sept. 21—(AP)—Service teams, the something new that has been added to the 1942 football program, dominate this week's schedule although such collegiate tussles as Minnesota vs. Pitt, Notre Dame vs. Wisconsin, Southern California vs. Tulane and Louisiana State vs. Texas A. and M. also are carded.

Lieut. Col. Bernie Bierman's Iowa Seahawks after crushing Kansas 61 to 0 in their first outing, go against the Wildcats of Northwestern and it isn't likely that they will have two such soft touches in a row.

The powerful Great Lakes naval outfit collides with Michigan, North Carolina's Cloudbusters invade Harvard's fair precincts, Georgia will try to devise a defense for George McAffee and his Jacksonville, Fla., air station mates and Tex Oliver will send his St. Mary's Pre-flighters against Oregon—where he coached last season.

In other battles involving military teams Columbia entertains Fort Monmouth, N. J., in a war charity contest, Ohio State opens its season against the Fort Knox eleven and Pennsylvania will play host to the Georgia Pre-flight Naval Cadets in Philadelphia's huge Franklin Field.

But the collegians don't have to take a back seat in such company. Notre Dame, Minnesota and Texas A. and M. were among the nation's best a year ago and have been awarded similar ranking this year in pre-season gossip.

The Gophers, coached to the mythical national crown last season by Bierman, are tutored this season by Dr. George Hauser and their ace back, Bill Daley, already has been assigned the task of furnishing a "Daley Double"—two touchdowns in each game—by followers.

Texas A. and M., because of its Pacific Coast college and service football teams today began final drills for next Saturdays full-scale curtain raiser.

Last weekend saw the two pre-season tussles, most important of which featured unveiling of the strong St. Mary's Navy Pre-flight eleven, coached by Gerald "Tex" Oliver, former Oregon headman. The Navy team downed Amos Alonzo Stagg's College of Pacific Tigers, 38-9, and played under wraps.

In the South, Loyola University of Los Angeles walloped Redlands 27-0, while Pomona lost to the Los Alamitos naval aviation base, 13 to 7.

Next Saturday, however, it will be a different story and gridiron menu is packed with punch, with such contests on tap as the California-St. Mary's tussle at Berkeley and the coast conference game between Washington State and Stanford at Palo Alto.

S. P. Golf Team Enters Tourney

Thirty-two Oakway golfers started first-round play in annual fall handicap golf tournament Monday and are scheduled to move into the second round by next Sunday night. Alsab Whirlaway May Meet Again
NEW YORK, Sept. 21—(AP)—proposal that Alsab and Whirlaway—principals in one of the world's greatest match races—re-match sometime during the month Park's fall meeting with hearty approval from all parties concerned today.

The three-year-old Alsab is off Whirlaway, the four-year-old handicap king and all-time winner, scoring by a nose in the historic meeting over a mile-three-sixteenths at Narragansett Park Saturday. The race was close that a re-match has now come a necessity to determine better horse.

Belmont opens an 18-day meeting today and sometime he ends Alsab and Whirlaway's meet again in a program designed to net some $50,000 for an emergency relief fund.

Parker Stops Segura To Take Tennis Title
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 21—(AP)—Frankie Parker, runner-up in the recent national singles championships, successfully defended his men's singles title in the Pacific Southwest tennis tournament yesterday, trouncing Francisco Segura of Ecuador, 6-4, 6-1, 6-3.

Pauline Betz of Los Angeles duplicated her victory over Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif., in the recent nationals by scoring an easy 6-2, 6-3 triumph.

Syracuse, Columbus Near IL and AA Crowns

(United Press)
The Syracuse Chiefs, favorites to defeat Jersey City and represent the International league in the Little World Series against the American Association, scheduled Rookie Ewell Blackwell for mound duty in the third contest tonight.

Charley Barrett blanked the Giants with four scattered hits as the Chiefs scored their second consecutive shutout, 4-0, yesterday at Jersey City. Home runs by Van Harrington and Al Mele provided the winning margin.

Columbus hopes to take its fourth straight game from Toledo in the American Association play-off tonight for a clean sweep in the finals of the post-season series.

Again capitalizing on the batting punch of outfielder Eddie Lukon, the Red Birds won their third game in a row from the Mudhens Sunday by a score of 2 to 1 in 11 innings. Lukon hit two round-trippers.

Preacher Roe pitched for Columbus and limited Toledo to five hits. Harry Kimberlin, on the mound for the Mudhens, yielded eight hits.

Billy Southworth to Rely On 'Big Four' in Series

By TOMMY DEVINE
CHICAGO, Sept. 21—(AP)—Billy Southworth, manager of the pennant-bound St. Louis Cardinals, tipped his hand today on his world series pitching plans.

Southworth won't discuss any phase of the World Series until the Cardinals clinch the flag. But after the club ended a two game stand against the Chicago Cubs he left no doubt as to his mound selections "if and when" the Red Birds go against the New York Yankees.

Since "Bantam Billy" will depend on the "Big Four" of Cooper, Lanier, Beazley and White in the drive to clinch the flag, he'll probably rely on the same quartet in the series.

There's nothing surprising about the choices of Cooper, Lanier and Beazley, but the selection of White may cause surprise.

Cooper, the National League's only 20-game winner, has been "Mr. Big" of the staff this season. Beazley, hurling his first season in the majors, has a record of 19 victories against six defeats. Lanier's mark is 13 triumphs and seven losses. White has won five and lost five.

White, who won 17 games while

Aden Quits Baseball For War Industries

SPOKANE, Sept. 19—(AP)—Dwight Aden, the Willamette skitterbug who has been patrolling all of centerfield and some of right and left for the Spokane Indians for five seasons, has packed his glove and spikes away for the last time, he said tonight.

Now working in a war industry, Dwight tried to quit baseball in midseason, but couldn't leave his cellar-chilled Spokane Indian mates in the lurch and continued to play in home games until the Western International league schedule was over.

The Philadelphia Athletics closed their season a week ahead of time, by a uirk of the schedule but no doubt to the relief of all concerned. Washington beat the A's in the first game 11-9 with a seven-run rally in the ninth, and Philadelphia salvaged the nightcap 2-1 with the help of four Senator errors.

Cottage Grove Has Large Grid Turnout

By TOM COX
COTTAGE GROVE, Sept. 21—A squad of 52 candidates greeted Coach Curtis French this week as the Lion mentor called the first football practice sessions of the year. Among the large turnout were eight lettermen from last year's Tri-county league champions.

Lettermen returning for another year of grid action under the likeable Grove coach were: Bob Daugherty, center; Howard Jenkins and Leo Roberts, guards; Norm Aubrey and Jack Kennedy, tackles; Lee Krause, end; Neil Hammond, right half, and Howard Harpole, fullback.

Cougar Backfield Aces Reinstated By Atherton

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 21—(AP)—Commissioner Edwin N. Atherton of the Pacific Coast conference yesterday reinstated two Washington State college athletes suspended from collegiate competition last winter.

J. Fred Bohler, WSC athletic director, announced he was informed by Atherton that Jay Stoves and Bob Kennedy, expected to be mainstays of the Cougar backfield, were no longer under suspension.

Stoves and Kennedy, along with Billy Sewell, WSC's outstanding star last season now with the army, were suspended by Atherton for violating the FCC rule prohibiting athletes from playing on any but college teams.
