New York Markets

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET
By VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—(AP)—Scattered stock market leaders managed to maintain the recovery theme in today's market but many others were subdued by profit cashing on last week's big upswing.

Transfers were around 700,000 shares.

Year-end tax offerings seemed to be waning although there was sufficient of these to put brakes on a number of pivotals as well as "penny" stocks.

Stocks edging into new high ground for the move included J. I. Case, Union Carbide, Air Reduction and Westinghouse. Attracting bids were Douglas Aircraft, Eastern Air Lines, United Air Lines, Caterpillar Tractor, Atlantic Coast Line, Goodyear, Chrysler, Phelps Dodge and Glenn Martin.

Backward the greatest part of the time were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Southern Pacific, Pennsylvania, General Motors, Standard Oil (NJ), American Smelting, American Can, Consolidated Edison, Dow Chemical, Johns-Manville and Eastman Kodak.

Selected secondary rail loans improved.

BOSTON WOOL

BOSTON, Dec. 21.—(AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—The Boston wool market continued quiet today. Purchases in Buenos Aires were reported in most grades finer than 44s. Uncertainties regarding shipping space limited sales to some extent. Sales of Australian top, both fine and half-blood, were made in small volume at prices six to eight cents below ceilings.

Roosevelt School Program Tuesday

The Theodore Roosevelt junior high school P.-T. A. and student body are sponsoring a Christmas program Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the school auditorium.

The drama club of the school will present a play and the choir will sing.

No business meeting of the P.-T. A. will be held, but the membership committee will be on hand bership committee will be on hand members.

"Why the Chimes Rang" is the name of the play to be presented by the drama group and choir.

The plot of "Why the Chimes Rang" concerns two small boys, filled with disappointment on being left at home by their parents. They are surprised by their uncle who comes to visit and takes them to the church service. At this church service people come from far and wide to present gifts at the altar in hopes that some gifts will cause the chimes to ring. The finding of an old woman, the sacrifice of the older boy in staying with her, and the younger boy's gift of a few cents on the altar, causing the chimes to ring, bring this Christmas story to a close.

The characters are as follows: Dick Moll, Laurence Moore, Jimmy King, Janet Heisel, Dorothy Chapman, Julian Hultgren. The gift bearers are, Bill Evans, Alice Collins, Doris May Evans, Amorita Reed, James Morgan, Paul Agerter, Janet Easterday, Sally Strohecker, John Hardcastle, Harry Hardcastle, Verlin Bates, and Marilyn Brandt. The music will be presented by the Roosevelt choir and the ninth grade girls' chorus. The songs by the choir will be "Carol of the Russian Children," "Christiansen's Cradle Hymn," "From Heaven an Angel." The songs by the girls chorus will be "Gesu Bambina," "No Candle Was There And No Fire," "Lullaby," by Noble Cain. Both groups combined will sing "The Holy City," by Harvey Gaul.

Fuhrman Sparks Webfoot Attack

By BOB LUCAS
Special Guard Correspondent

ASTORIA, Dec. 19—Howard Hobson's University of Oregon hoopsters, did an about-face Saturday night, when they tripped the Astoria All-stars, coached and managed by Wally Palmberg, former star hoopster at Oregon State and now Astoria high coach, 37 to 30. Friday night, they were beaten here by the Portland Boilermakers, highly-touted independent team, 46 to 33.

Astoria jumped to a 10 to 5 lead early in the opening period, but the Ducks, led by veteran Ralph Fuhrman, rallied in the last few minutes of the first half to pull into a 19 to 12 lead at halftime.

Sandness Stars

Astoria, paced by Palmberg, Earl Sandness, former University of Oregon hoop star and member of the 1939 nation championship squad—and Reuben Wirkkunen, all-state member of last year's championship Astoria high contingent rallied to close the gap in the second half, but could get no closer than four points—30 to 26 after eleven minutes.

The Ducks gradually pulled away from that point, and protected their lead till the end.

High-point man for the game was Fuhrman with nine. He was followed for the Ducks by Bob Newland with 6.

Wirkkunen and Sandness topped the all-stars with eight apiece, while Palmberg garnered seven and was the best player for the losers. This was his first appearance on the maple court for some time, and the 30-year old hoopster gave a sterling performance before his popular home crowd.

The Ducks looked better than they did Friday against the Boilermakers, but still lacked the coordination and passing that is necessary to win the Northern Division crown.

It was the all-stars' first game, and they had practiced seven days prior to the Oregon tilt.

Ray Bower Appointed New Market Master

Ray Bower has been appointed market master of the Eugene Producers' Public market, succeeding William A. Ayres, who recently resigned, it was announced at the market Monday. Mr. Ayres will relinquish the office January 1, after having served in the capacity of master ever since the market was established many years ago. Mr. Bower will assume his new duties at that time.

Mr. Bower is Lane county horticulture inspector, having been appointed to that positon September 1. He will continue in that capacity, will have his office at the market building.

Mr. Bower, whose home is at Oak Hill, a few miles west of Eugene, has been active in farming circles and grange work for many years and has been a member of the market board of directors for the past eight years.

New Training Center Scheduled for Boise

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 21.—(U.P.)—A new army training center to provide basic and special training of personnel from the ninth service command will be established at Boise Barracks, Ida., according to an announcement made at Camp White, near here.

The center will be staffed by three companies of officers and enlisted men and will relieve the posts, camps and stations of the service command of the need for continuous basic training programs for men received direct from reception centers, officials said.
