

Congress Convenes Mad At Bureaus

penny-pinching. But whatever else it may do, this congress will provide a preliminary battle ground of the presidential contest of 1944 and to Mr. Roosevelt it will offer the most difficult test of his White House career in handling the legislative branch of government. All of the chief executive's troubles will not come from the republicans. Reports of a speech delivered by Speaker Sam Rayburn, D. Tex., behind closed doors at the democratic caucus hinted that both parties are ready to "stand up" to the executive branch of the government.

Several democrats interpreted Rayburn's remarks as a new congressional declaration of independence from government departments and bureaus, although all emphasized that Rayburn had exempted the president from his attack on bureaucrats who have never been

Sgt. R. G. 'Buddy' Brown Proud To Belong To Decorated Squadron

Sergeant Robert G. "Buddy" Brown of Eugene writes relatives he is very proud of the squadron in which he is flying since the pilot of his ship recently was decorated by Major General Jimmy Doolittle as were several others in the squadron.

Sergeant Brown has been overseas more than two months. He is believed to be in North Africa. He enlisted in December, 1942, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Brown of Eugene, a nephew of Mrs. C. K. DeNeffe. He is a former student at the University of Oregon, a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Pruning Demonstration Conducted In Orchards

Tree pruning demonstrations were given on three Lane county farms Tuesday and Wednesday by O. T. McWhorter, extension horticulture specialist at the state college, sponsored by the county horticultural society and co-operating with O. S. Fletcher, county agent, and Ray Bower, county horticulture inspector.

The first was given on the farm of Cal Hatfield a mile east of Creswell, where methods of pruning six-year-old peach and filbert trees were shown. This was Tuesday afternoon. On Wednesday demonstrations were given on Mrs. Lillie Hays' place north of Eugene where older peach and filbert trees were worked on and on Jesse Harper's place south of Junction City where Mr. Whorter worked on young filbert trees and old high cherry trees. Quite a number of horticulturists witnessed the demonstrations.

PG&E Ordered To Cut

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 6.—(AP)—O. R. Bean, state public utilities commissioner, today ordered the Portland General Electric company to cut its rates "substantially and unconditionally" in the Portland area and to set up a reserve fund for customers of almost $700,000. The $700,000 reserve was the company's estimated excess earnings for 1942.

ORDERS ON CANS

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Oysters may be packed in metal cans until April 30, the office of war information here disclosed today. Baking powder can be packed in fibre cans with metal ends until June 30.

Eugene Water Pure

Residents receiving water through the Eugene water supply need not boil it, announces J. W. McArthur, superintendent, Eugene water board. The water is chemically treated and filtered, and tests are made daily showing it to be in "first class condition." Mr. McArthur said. "All well water, however, should be boiled."

OPA Raises Ceilings On Aircraft Lumber

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The OPA raised ceiling prices for Douglas fir aircraft grades approximately 13 1/2 per cent because the proportion of aircraft grade lumber that can be obtained from this stock has proved lower than preliminary estimates. The action raised the ceiling price for recovery grade Douglas fir aircraft from 55 per cent of the corresponding Sitka spruce grade to 62 1/4 per cent. For example, the price of random thickness and width in random lengths of six to 20 feet was raised from a maximum of $210 to $239 per thousand board feet.

Bond Program Extended

"Schools at War" program to stimulate sale of war bonds through the public schools has been extended from Jan. 1 to Apr. 30. City schools will continue their program of encouraging students to buy stamps, says Dr. J. F. Cramer, city schools superintendent.

119TH LIBERTY SHIP

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The Oregon Shipbuilding Corporation's 119th Liberty freighter, the Stephen B. Elkins, was launched here yesterday following a one-day postponement because of high waters in the Willamette river.

Men's Recreation Re-opens Thursday

Extensive facilities of the men's gymnasium at the University of Oregon will again be thrown open to businessmen of Eugene, who will begin winter term recreation classes Thursday evening, says Miss Florence D. Alden, director, city playgrounds and recreation commission. Enrollment begins at 7, activities at 7:30. Among sports available will be handball, volleyball, basketball, apparatus and tumbling, badminton, wrestling and boxing. To pay expenses, the commission charges a small fee.

Liberalized Exams Set For Civil Service Jobs

Qualified applicants in engineering, drafting, and radio are so urgently needed by federal agencies that the U. S. civil service commission has announced new liberalized examination requirements in all three fields, the postmaster's office said Wednesday. Persons interested may secure full information at the postal savings window, Eugene postoffice. There are no written tests and no maximum age limits.

Ha! Vacation Offered

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Forest stations in Western Oregon may be manned by vacationists next summer, the forest service disclosed today. The federal service plans to recruit out-door lovers to vacation at the stations and maintain vigil against forest fires. The service would recruit women to serve as cooks, timekeepers, telephone operators and truck drivers.

The plywood used in the air freighters ranges from three-ply used in the construction of the leading skin edges, to nine-ply employed in the center panel.

THIS IS BOB HAWK BROADCASTING— AND I WANT TO TELL YOU... You don't have to go to the radio show to send your own personal "Thanks to the Yanks" "...your dealer will send Camels for you to any Yank you want to thank... son, brother, sweetheart, pal, anybody anywhere."

Here's the Duffle Bag into which the Camels go when the contestant fails to answer the question correctly. The contents of the Duffle Bag, after the show, are sent to various service centers for free distribution to the Yanks. Even when you can't answer, you still send thanks to the Yanks. Over 585,000 Camels have been sent at this moment of going to press.

THANKS TO THE YANKS

Think hard, Mr. Murray... Snapped here is Martin H. Murray of New Bedford, Mass. trying hard to answer his question and send his nephew at Fort Bragg 2,000 Camels. He got the answer. And his nephew got the smokes.

Here's Mrs. Wilford C. Long, of Portland, Oregon, very happy over the fact that she's given the right answer to one of Bob Hawk's questions. A certain officer in the Army Medical Corps overseas will be happily surprised with 2,000 Camels.

FIRST IN THE SERVICE

The favorite cigarette with men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and Coast Guard is Camel. (Based on actual sales records in Post Exchanges, Sales Commissaries, Ship's Service Stores, Ship's Stores, and Canteens.)

"MAYBE you've been in the audience of Camel's new Thanks to the Yanks program in the Columbia Broadcasting Studio in New York. Maybe you were even in the show. Or maybe you heard it on the air. "Anyway, you probably know that when a question I give out is answered correctly, we send up to 3,000 Camels to any service man the contestant names. Everybody has a lot of fun—in addition to providing soldiers, sailors, marines, and coast guardsmen around the globe a lot of free smoking fun—with Camels, their favorite cigarette. Tune in this Saturday night. "But... you can send your thanks to the Yanks—show or no show! Your dealer has complete mailing instructions for all branches of the service. See him today and thank a Yank with a carton of Camels."

Thank your Yank with his favorite
