New Officers For Grove's Chamber Installed Tuesday

COTTAGE GROVE — Chamber of commerce met Tuesday noon at the Rainbow cafe and installed the following officers. President, Larry Levens; secretary, W. A. Briggs; treasurer, Harold Eakin; and directors, Dr. H. A. Hagen, Dr. C. H. Kime, and Vinal Randall. The vice-president, Albert Helliwell, was not present. An executive and directors meeting was scheduled for Wednesday noon at the Rainbow cafe at which time the committees for the year were selected.

Ace Gregg, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, was present and discussed the memorial service being planned for two boys who have lost their lives in the present conflict. The service is tentatively scheduled for February 4. Dr. Hagen presented the matter of securing the old Methodist camp meeting grounds on East Main street for a permanent fairgrounds.

A letter was received from the University of Oregon stating that speakers for use of the chamber of commerce were available on certain specified subjects. The group voted to make use of the available speakers. Regular meeting will be held next Tuesday. Standing committees will be appointed at this time.
