

General Groups at Well Active

ESWELL — Miss Madeline, president of the Rebekah lodge of Oregon, was honored at a special meeting of the lodge this week. Rebekah lodge of Portland, Vernon Fields, and Mrs. Minnie, Cottage Grove, members of the board of trustees of the F. home, were also present. The president stressed the importance of the year in the service of the child. The president stressed the importance of the year in the service of the child. The president stressed the importance of the year in the service of the child.

Lone Pine Welfare Club Elects New Officers Past Week

LONE PINE. — At the recent meeting of the Welfare club new officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. Willard Plank, president; Mrs. Harold J. Davis, vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Piquet, treasurer; Mrs. Hugh Spiller, secretary. Mrs. C. C. Furlong, the outgoing president, urged members to contribute whatever possible to the drive for furniture for Camp Adair. It was voted to hold a membership drive for the club and a committee for this was appointed with Mrs. Fred Brounger, chairman. Mrs. Hugh Spiller, and Mrs. Cliff Abrams. The afternoon was spent in Red Cross sewing and in making quilts for the Alice Marie home in Eugene. It was decided to meet for sewing on Tuesday, February 16. This is to be an afternoon meeting and all ladies of the community are urged to attend.

Blue River School Takes Up Rebuilding

BLUE RIVER. — A notice by the school board of the McKenzie school district has been posted at the Blue River postoffice stating that a vote is to be taken on whether or not to rebuild the grade school, which recently burned down on the old site at Blue River, or to move it near the present McKenzie high school. Also a vote will be taken on whether or not to issue $19,000 in new school bonds. At the present time the grade school pupils are using part of the high school building. The polls will be open from 2 to 7 p. m. on February 12, at the McKenzie high school. All property owners in the district are entitled to a vote on these two issues.

New observers signing up for duty at the observation post are Miss Wilda Beckett and Guy Ramsdell. More are needed.

Central Notes

CENTRAL. — Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Davis, recently, were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Glick and little daughter, Myrna Beth of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Storey and son, Ronald, of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Storey and son, Lester, and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Thomas and daughter, Elvira. School has resumed again in this vicinity after an enforced vacation due to bad roads.

The Willing Workers club which was to have met with Mrs. S. D. Buck Wednesday afternoon was postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Mabel Olson, a sister of Mrs. David Swenson. Mrs. Buck will entertain the club Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 17 at her home. Red Cross work will be done. Roll call will be responded to by something about Washington.

Mrs. Lee Klueckert, Mrs. Elmer Anderson, and Mrs. Frank Goode will give a shower at the grange hall Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 10, honoring Mrs. Stacey Miller.

The school children under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Buck and Miss McFavish, are busy making articles for a fair and sale which will be held March 10.

The club is planning a penny supper to be held at the grange hall Feb. 26. Supper will be served from 6:30 until all are served. A program given by the school children under the direction of Mrs. Buck will follow.

AT THORNTON CORNERS. — Richard Latster, who is in the navy, was at home for a few days furlough, recently. His mother, Mrs. L. Latster, accompanied him as far as Portland as he left to report for duty.

Leo Tonole, who is in a naval training camp at Corpus Christi, Texas, was at home recently on an eight-day furlough.

The recent snow disrupted all telephone lines in this vicinity and eastward for more than a week. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gallatin have moved to Cottage Grove.

Miss Phyllis Foster recently entertained four neighbor girls at dinner in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Justin Brown, who had been stationed at Fort Canby, Wash., visited recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brown. While enroute to Camp Lee, Virginia, to take officer's training in the quartermaster's corps.

Housewarming Is Given by Grange

ELMIRA. — Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edmiston who moved into their new home the first of the year, were given a housewarming by the Elmira grange recently. There were more than 40 in attendance. The evening was spent playing games and singing. The grange presented the couple with a dinner set. Refreshments were served.

The Thursday Thimble club met at the home of Velma Evers. Election of officers was postponed until next meeting which will be with Emma Bown. More Red Cross sewing is to be done at this meeting.

Dan Bromley, a former student of Elmira high, who is in the armed service, arrived home for a short furlough recently.

Clifford Poole who is in the navy was home on furlough the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Buchholz have a baby son, born Friday, Feb. 5.

Several farmers are busy repairing barns, hen houses, and fences that the recent deep snow broke down.

Ed Riensche has about 40 lambs that come during the deep snow.

Daisy Livingston started to work for the Southern Pacific the first of the week.

Mrs. Viri Lewis went to Seattle, Wash., with Mrs. Lorin Inman, where Lorin Inman has a defense job.

Frances Calwell entered the Eugene Business college the first of February.

Miss Makell and Mr. Thomason Wed

SWISHOME. — The marriage of Donald Thomason of Swishome to Helen Makell of Villisca, Iowa, took place at the Mapleton manse Feb. 3 at 4 p. m. Rev. Mr. Knoll performed the ceremony. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Peckham of Swishome. The bridegroom recently returned from 15 months with the army engineers at Seward, Alaska. The bride has been teaching in the Stanton, Iowa schools. They will be at home in the Peckham apartments at Swishome.

Walter S. Vincent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vincent of Swishome, received his commission last week as second lieutenant in the army medical administrative corps at Camp Barkley, Texas. Lt. Vincent, who was a senior at Oregon State college, at time of his induction has been stationed at Camp Robinson, Little Rock, Arkansas. He has had ten days leave which he spent with Mrs. Vincent at Corvallis.

Captain Ivan Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Elliott, has been promoted to major. He is stationed at Camp Hale, Colo.

MOSBY CREEK ITEMS

MOSBY CREEK. — Mrs. Betty Williams gave a surprise party recently for her son Norman on his 18th birthday. Those present were Beverly Munnell, Betty Lee Kerr, Melvin Kerr, Mary, Carlus and Harold Jones, A. J. Alexander, Bob Ward, Garland Hocker, Mrs. Lillie James, Mr. Williams and the hostess.

The Linn Eastburn sawmill has resumed operations after a few weeks shutdown caused by the recent cold weather and snow.

Leo Dugan Jr., and family of Portland visited recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dugan.

William Harris of Castle Rock, Ore., is home on five-day furlough, visiting his brother, John Harris, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris are the parents of a son born Jan. 29 at Butler Maternity home in Cottage Grove.

"Grandpa" Bohart of Eugene is visiting at the homes of his grandchildren, Mrs. Betty Williams and Verlin Ward.

AT LYNX HOLLOW. — Mrs. Harold Radway was hostess recently to the community club. Work was done on the first aid quilt.

Mrs. Ruth Tillotson, teacher of the upper grade of the Lynx Hollow school, resigned recently and Mrs. Teresa Walker of Latham will fill the vacancy and complete the term.

The Girl Scouts of the Lynx Hollow school held their last meeting recently for this term, and gave a farewell party for Mrs. Tillotson.

Max Treadwell, son of Lee Treadwell has left for training camp at San Diego, Calif., after completing a course at the vocational school at Eugene.

Auxiliary Plans Supper Feb. 19.

WENDLING. — The A. F. L. auxiliary met at the Jack Frost home recently. Mrs. Larry Kelly was taken in as a new member. It was voted to hold a potluck supper for union members and their families Feb. 19. Mrs. Jack Dillon is chairman of the committee in charge. The next hostess will be Mrs. Jack Dillon.

P. T. A. held its regular meeting at the community hall. The meeting was on founders day. The local P. T. A. being six years old. A candlelight service in which Betty Gard, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Dallas Gard, Mrs. Stanley Quigley, Mrs. George Steinberger, Mrs. Bill Eamon and Mrs. John Swafford took part was given.

Two numbers were presented by the grade school glee club, and a duet by the Plant sisters. Harry Mix showed some moving pictures he had taken. In the business session Mrs. Butler was elected vice-president due to the resignation of Mrs. Delbert Metzger. The kindergarten mothers served refreshments. The kindergarten also received the picture for having the largest percentage of parents present.

Dance Saturday

Mrs. Raines, chairman of the finance committee of the Welfare club, announces a dance at the community hall Saturday, Feb. 6.

Mrs. Emma Evans was honored on her 91st birthday at a party, given at the Evans home. Mrs. C. O. Stolberg and Mrs. Donald Stolberg presented her with a birthday cake. Those present were Mrs. Lee Paschke, Marcola, Mrs. Leo Paschke, Marcola, Mrs. C. O. Stolberg, Mrs. Darrel Stolberg, Mrs. Riley Plant, Mrs. Yarborough, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Darwin Goodman, and son, Mrs. Ed Keeler, Mrs. Grover Sumner, and Mrs. Emma Evans. Many sent gifts that were unable to attend.

Mr. Loren Raines, chairman of the infantile paralysis drive in Wendling, stated that $70 through donations had been collected. Mrs. Tom Bilderback was the committee member appointed from the south side of town.

Missionary Group Meets at Wendling

WENDLING. — Missionary Circle of the Open Bible Standard church met recently at the church with Mrs. Albert Callison leading the devotions. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing a quilt.

Services Sunday begin with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., Art Rogers superintendent; morning worship 11 o'clock. Evening service 7:30, the subject being "Wedding Garment."

Mothers club met recently at the Community hall with Mrs. Velma Bilderback as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth D. Byers received word that their son, Dean, had returned to San Francisco. Dean is with the U. S. army and has been serving overseas.

Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met recently at the H. E. Bailey home with Mrs. Guy Pattee as hostess. Mrs. Ed Larson and Mrs. Seth Byers led the devotions at the Silver Tea. Sewing of quilts and tea towels was the afternoon entertainment.

Junior Class At OHS Lists Plays

OAKRIDGE. — The junior class will present a skit entitled "Grandma Fixes the Car," in an assembly at the high school next Tuesday. The cast includes Marjela Lang as Stella; Shirley Tracy as Mabel; Pearl Osterhout as Grandma; Shirley Neft as Louella; June Beck as Mrs. Brower, and Lois Mae Croner as Hattie.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kingsley entertained recently at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bile, Sr. and son, George, of Westfir, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McFarland and sons, Harvey and Lee. The Bilees are moving to Glendale in the near future.

The junior class will present its annual play in the OHS gymnasium sometime in the first of March. The cast chosen for the play, "Aaron Slick From Funkin' Creek," is as follows: Donald Le Duke, Shirley Tracy, Shirley Neft, Burton Young, Daryl Mobley, Marieta Lang, Lois Mae Croner, Art Holman will direct the play and the proceeds will go to the junior-senior prom, which will be held in the early spring.

CALLS FROM HONOLULU

WILLAKENZIE. — Friends of Creston Hoare, formerly of Eugene, now working the shipyards of Honolulu, will be interested to know that he called his mother, Mrs. Lila Hoare, and his wife, Berta, by long distance telephone this week. Mrs. Hoare, who has been in the states for several months, expects to return to Hawaii upon completion of a business course which will entitle her to enter the islands again. Creston sends greeting to all his friends.

MEETING AT GOSHEN

GOSHEN. — The regular meeting of Auxiliary No. 377 which was to have been held at the Creswell grange hall, Feb. 9, has been cancelled. The Goshen local 2756 will hold its meeting as usual.

Approximately 25,000 lives are claimed by suicide in the United States annually.

Heirs of a head waiter at a British seaside hotel received more than $100,000. He had served as head waiter for 42 years.

Wyoming was the 44th state to join the union.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

AND GO TO BED

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

POPEYE

BOOTS AND HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBS

SWEET REVENGE

OUT OUR WAY