

What Eugene and Lane County Churches Are Doing

Birthday Celebration To Be Held

A celebration to be held of the 17th birthday of Lighthouse Temple will be held at both services Sunday. The mortgage on the church building which has been paid in full during the last year, will be officially burned at the morning service.

A special birthday observance at the morning service will be followed by the pastor's message on "Burned Bridges." The evening sermon will be illustrated. Mr. Lester Swagert will draw a picture six by twelve feet, illustrating the sermon. The topic will be "The Rock of Ages."

A special musical recital by Eugene musicians and singers will be held in the main auditorium of the Church of God, Third and Monroe streets, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The offering taken at this time will be used to make the final payments on the new electric organ. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Glewitt, formerly missionaries to Alaska, will speak at both morning and evening services.

A Fellowship covered dish supper will be held Thursday at 6:30 p. m. in the chapel of Central Presbyterian Church by the women of South Division. A program and a white elephant auction, with Mrs. H. E. Cully as auctioneer, will be held following the dinner.

Postluc Scheduled

The Brotherhood of Ebert Memorial Methodist church, Springfield, will hold a postluc dinner Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the church. Ergatheia class will meet Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. with Mrs. Guy Halsey.

A new Sunday school will be started Feb. 14 at 2:30 p. m. at the Globo schoolhouse, according to word received here from the Walton Church of Christ.

Emmaus Lutheran church will dedicate its service roll Sunday at the regular morning service.

NCO Quartet to Sing

A special communion service will be held at the morning service of Nott's Christian church Sunday. Baptismal service is scheduled for 3 p. m. in Eugene. The special evening service at 7:30 will feature music by the Northwest Christian college male quartet. Kenneth Johnston will be the guest speaker.

The mid-week prayer service of the Church of Christ, 126 Blair, will be held at 8 p. m. Wednesday evening instead of 7:30, at the home of J. Paul Wray.

Five young men from the First Baptist church who are leaving this week for the service, will be honored Sunday evening when Bill Pengra sings the new song, "There's a Star on the Service Flag for Me," written by Dr. Ralph Walker of Portland. Following the service the young people of the church will hold a fellowship hour at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Vance H. Webster.

Good News meetings are being held at the First Baptist church of Cottage Grove this coming week with Dr. Webster as guest speaker.

A meeting of the Sunday school staff of the Fairmount Presbyterian church will be held at the close of the class period Sunday.

Food Outlook Will Be Aired by Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Chairman Ellison D. Smith, D. S. C., of the senate agriculture committee, forecast today that his impending inquiry into administration farm policies will "blow the lid off so the public will know the desperate outlook for war food production."

He said Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard will be the first witness when a special agriculture subcommittee begins public hearings next week. In addition, he said, the group will call the heads of every other government agency associated in any way with the production, transportation and distribution of food here and abroad.

The subcommittee's inquiry was authorized Wednesday in a full committee resolution.

Committee members complained that farm administration policies "directly contrary to the will of the people as expressed by congress" will result in "hunger, destitution and want" unless corrected by the force of public opinion.

RAF Pounds West Coast of Germany

LONDON, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The RAF struck again at Hitler's arsenal area in western Germany overnight and sent powerful formations streaking across the channel before breakfast today in one of the earliest daylight starts in recent weeks.

The scope of the night assault was not disclosed immediately in London, but the German radio, acknowledging damage in one center, said the raid was of the small, "nuisance" variety.

The morning raiders, which have included American planes, headed across Dover strait toward Calais. The weather was bright with occasional cloud patches.

Last night's assault was the second successive night attack on the Reich, the big naval base and submarine building yards at Wilhelmshaven having been heavily bombed the preceding night.

Swift British Mosquito bombers also struck at northwest Germany yesterday afternoon while American-built Mustang fighters attacked railways and other war installations in northern France, Belgium and the Netherlands. One fighter failed to return from these daylight forays.

Wife Of Fritz Kuhn Taken Into Custody

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Elsa Kuhn, wife of Fritz Kuhn, former national leader of the German-American Bund, and her son, Walter, 16, have been taken into custody in a roundup of enemy aliens, it was learned today.

Denaturalization proceedings against Fritz Kuhn are pending in federal court.

Kuhn is a prisoner at Dannemora, N. Y., where he is serving a five-year term for stealing bond funds.

UO Theater Presents Rollicking Comedy

To provide a strong contrast to two plays given earlier this year at the University of Oregon, both of which dealt immediately with the war situation, the drama department will present a rollicking comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking," by Anita Loos and John Emerson February 17 and 18. Directed by Otilie Seybolt, associate professor of speech and dramatic arts, the play will be presented Saturday night in a special performance after the Oregon State games for Dad's Day.

The cast of the play includes five students from Portland: Louise Rossman, Vivian McNamee, Maxine McNeil, Ray Dickson, and Bill Neder. Others in the cast are Marjorie Quigley and Jim Bronson, Eugene Bob Farrow, Long Beach, Cal.; Merlin Dow, Medford; Nelda Rohrbach, Piedmont, Cal.; and Grace Lillard, Lewiston, Idaho.

RUSSIAN FIRING SQUAD EXECUTES NAZI FIFTH COLUMNIST

It's best not to turn fifth columnist in Russia. Here's the end of one of them as members of a Soviet village turn out to see one executed by a firing squad. Caption accompanying this March of Time photo said the perfidy of this fifth columnist cost the lives of several fellow-villagers.

RAF Pounds West Coast of Germany

LONDON, Feb. 13.—(AP)—The RAF struck again at Hitler's arsenal area in western Germany overnight and sent powerful formations streaking across the channel before breakfast today in one of the earliest daylight starts in recent weeks.

The scope of the night assault was not disclosed immediately in London, but the German radio, acknowledging damage in one center, said the raid was of the small, "nuisance" variety.

The morning raiders, which have included American planes, headed across Dover strait toward Calais. The weather was bright with occasional cloud patches.

Last night's assault was the second successive night attack on the Reich, the big naval base and submarine building yards at Wilhelmshaven having been heavily bombed the preceding night.

Swift British Mosquito bombers also struck at northwest Germany yesterday afternoon while American-built Mustang fighters attacked railways and other war installations in northern France, Belgium and the Netherlands. One fighter failed to return from these daylight forays.

UO Theater Presents Rollicking Comedy

To provide a strong contrast to two plays given earlier this year at the University of Oregon, both of which dealt immediately with the war situation, the drama department will present a rollicking comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking," by Anita Loos and John Emerson February 17 and 18. Directed by Otilie Seybolt, associate professor of speech and
