Engagement Announcements Feature Local Social News; Several Weddings Also Calendared

By MARIAN LOWRY

Engagements and approaching marriages are spotlighted in social news of the week-end, presaging a crowded calendar of weddings for the spring and early summer.

Miss Fox Engaged

Announcement is made by Dr. and Mrs. Irvin R. Fox of the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Mary Ann Fox, to Rodney E. Lewman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Lewman of Eugene.

No date is revealed for the wedding. Miss Fox attended the University of Oregon for two years, being a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority on the campus, and this year is completing her nurses' training in Portland under the university course. Mr. Lewman also attended the University and is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is now a cadet in training for his commission at the army air force school at Ellington Field, Texas.

Seeley-Peterson

Told this week-end also is the engagement of Miss Stephanie French Peterson, daughter of Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, Jr. of Cazenovia, New York, and of Curt Peterson of New York city, to Don E. Seeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Seeley of Salem. The bride-elect is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Augustus Peterson of this city and has made her home with them for some time.

Both Miss Peterson and Mr. Seeley are students at the University of Oregon, the bride-elect being a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, Mr. Seeley of Sigma Nu fraternity. Date for the wedding has not been set.

The engagement is the second announced within a week in the Peterson family, Miss Peterson's sister, Miss Janeth Peterson last week telling of her betrothal to Staff Sergeant William D. Keen, the wedding of this couple being arranged for this week.

Miss Taylor Engaged

At an informal dessert party Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Taylor announced the engagement of their elder daughter, Miss Mary Kathryn Taylor, to Dale E. Helikson of Camp Barkeley, Texas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Helikson of Eugene. No date was set for the wedding but it is being planned in early April.

News of the engagement was told by means of a violet nosegay at each place, the nosegay being fastened with white streamers with tiny purple scrolls bearing the name of the couple tied at the end.

Miss Taylor is a graduate of Multnomah training school and the University of Oregon. She is a member of Alpha Tau Delta, national honorary nursing sorority. Mr. Helikson, who is now attending officers' candidate school at Camp Barkeley, Texas, is also a graduate of the University of Oregon and attended law school on the campus, being a member of the Phi Alpha Delta law honorary.

Invited to the announcement party were Misses Betty Jean Taylor, Lois Ann Helikson, Louise Rickabaugh, Shirley Roach, Janet Chase, and Mrs. Roy Sandborn, Mrs. Delbert Lane, Mrs. Kenneth Drew, Mrs. Leonard Ruth, Mrs. C. Lee Page, Mrs. John Skillern, Mrs. Howard Christensen, Mrs. LeRoy Elliott, and Mrs. Clifford Winters.

Hooker-Scroggie

Announced for the evening of Wednesday, March 3, is the marriage of Miss Winnifred Scroggie and Lieutenant Jerome S. Hooker. The ceremony will be at eight o'clock in the First Congregational church, Dr. Williston Wirt officiating.

Miss Marjorie Scroggie will be maid of honor for her sister and Captain P. E. Peterson is to be best man. Lynn Wasson will be flower girl.

Following the church service, a reception is to be held in the mirror room at the Eugene hotel.

At the card party of the Ladies of the Elks, Thursday afternoon, about forty attended. At contract bridge, for which Mrs. C. J. Daniel was hostess, Mrs. W. C. Walling and Mrs. C. N. Allen won the honors; and at auction, Mrs. J. E. Turnbull as hostess, Mrs. A. W. Wagner and Mrs. George A. Simon won the honors.

MRS. ORVILLE H. GOPLEN

A recent wedding was that of Mrs. Orville H. Goplen, the former Estay, Marie Nelson.

The marriage of Miss Mary Elaine Newman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Newman of this city, to John F. Cordell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cordell, also of Eugene, was solemnized February 12 at a nine o'clock morning ceremony in St. Joseph's Catholic church at Wenatchee, Wash., Rev. Father Duffy officiating.

Attending the wedding from Eugene were Mrs. John Newman, Mrs. John Cordell, and Miss Shirley Cordell; and another sister of the bridegroom, Miss Betty Cordell, Seattle.

Miss Shirley Cordell and Albert Snyder attended the couple.

The bride wore a white satin gown with long train, the dress having long sleeves and a yoke of tulle trimmed in seed pearls. The full length veil of tulle fell from a coronet of seed pearls. The bride carried a prayer book on which were arranged two white orchids with streamers. The maid of honor wore a blue dress of faille over marquisette, and her bouquet was of white and pastel blooms.

The bride's mother wore a rose crepe dress with navy accessories, and the bridegroom's mother a dress of aqua blue with gold accessories.

Following the church service, a wedding breakfast was held at the hotel, relatives and the bridal party attending. The couple are home at present at Wenatchee, Mr. Cordell, a reserve in the army air force, completing his basic CPT course.

A wedding for this afternoon will be that of Miss Florence Anderson and Staff Sergeant Wendell Jensen of the army air forces. The ceremony will be at two-thirty o'clock in Central Presbyterian church, Dr. Norman K. Tully officiating. Mrs. Kenneth G. Reeves of Lebanon, sister of Sergeant Jensen, will be matron of honor, and Miss Erma Scott of Eugene and Miss Vesta Miller of Marshfield, bridesmaids. Lieutenant Herbert Anderson of Fort Benning, brother of the bride, is to be best man. A reception will be held at Westminster house following the service. Miss Anderson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odin A. Anderson, Marshfield, Sergeant Jensen the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jensen of Eugene.

Chapter H of P.E.O. Sisterhood will be entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Arthur Quackenbush, seven-fifteen o'clock, Mrs. Quirinus Breen assisting.

Chapter AM of the Sisterhood will meet Wednesday, twelve forty-five o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Omar Fendall, Mrs. A. C. Dixon assisting.

Chapter AY also meets Wednesday afternoon, one o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Mary Ebricht, Mrs. Victor P. Morris to have the program.

A. L. Lomax Speaker For League of Women Voters

Planned for Thursday evening is an interesting program meeting for the League of Women Voters, the event to be at eight o'clock in room 207, Chapman hall, University of Oregon campus.

Alfred L. Lomax of the university school of business administration faculty is to be guest speaker, his topic being "Changing Patterns of International Trade."

The meeting is an open one, the public interested in the subject being invited.

Interesting to many student friends on the campus was a wedding Friday evening when Miss Roslynn Morrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morrill of Honolulu, T. H., was married to Thomas E. Terry, son of Colonel and Mrs. R. K. Terry of Portland. The ceremony was solemnized at seven-thirty o'clock in the chapel of the First Congregational church, Dr. Williston Wirt, church pastor, officiating, and only a small group of relatives and close friends attending.

Miss Eleanor Engdahl of Pendleton and Marion Cloud of Long Beach, Cal., attended the couple.

The bride wore a slate blue suit with lot of white carnations. Miss Engdahl wore a dark blue suit with corsage of pink carnations.

Following the service at the church, a reception was held in the Eugene hotel mirror room.

Both the couple are students at the University of Oregon and will continue their school work. They will be at home at 1886 University street. The bride, a junior on the campus, is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, Mr. Terry, a senior, being a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Among those at the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morrill, who came from San Francisco for the ceremony; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Anita Lloyd of London, England, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. R. K. Terry, of Portland; and Miss Violet Winter of London, England.

Honoring their grandson, Cadet Robert Deverell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyland entertained at dinner the past week, guests including the honor guest, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ruth, and Mrs. Eugene Lincoln and children, Wilbur and Tommy, of Grants Pass. Cadet Deverell, who has just completed his preliminary training at Pasco, Wash., left Friday for further training at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Installation ceremonies for new officers in the Young Business Women's club will be held Wednesday evening in connection with the dessert party of the group at the Osburn hotel, seven-thirty o'clock. Misses Marjorie Christianzen and Betty Van Orden are hostesses for the meeting.

New officers taking over are: Miss Doris Mae Reinholdt, president; Miss Martha Boentgen, vice-president; Miss Charlotte Berryhill, secretary; Miss Constance Bacon, corresponding secretary; Miss Bette Hack, treasurer.

An evening of sociability and fellowship is arranged for the Eugene Business and Professional Women's club membership next Thursday evening for the monthly social of the group. A dinner is to be served in St. Mary's Episcopal church parish hall. The hospitality committee is in charge, headed by Mrs. Perry Walbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, Jr. of Cazenovia, New York, arrived Friday evening for a visit with Mrs. Wendell's daughters, Misses Janeth and Stephanie Peterson, and to be here for the wedding of Miss Janeth Peterson and Staff Sergeant William D. Keen this week.

Mrs. Wesley C. Ballaine is to pour. The group will do some type of work during the afternoon. A nursery is to be maintained for small children accompanying their mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wroth announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jean Wroth, to Donn W. Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Chase of Eugene.

The wedding was an event of February 9 in the First Christian church at Phoenix, Arizona, Dr. Elmore performing the ceremony. The bride wore a blue suit with matching accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Eugene high school and attended University Business college. Mr. Chase was graduated from University high school and is now stationed with the army air forces at Williams Field, Arizona.

Social activities for the winter term at the University of Oregon concluded this week-end. The term will end March 10 and the spring term resume March 15.

Groups entertaining Friday evening were Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, Sigma Alpha Mu and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternities, Sigma Kappa sorority, and Phi Gamma Delta, Theta Chi, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu, and Kappa Sigma fraternities. The Beaux Art bazaar also was Friday evening. On Saturday evening were held the Sigma Alpha Epsilon and all-dormitory dances.

Mrs. Fannie L. Stansable is to entertain Thursday afternoon for the Sorosis club, the group to meet at two-thirty o'clock at the Shamrock tearoom, Penney store.
