

Kennell-Ellis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS DORIS MAE REINHOLTZ

New president of the Young Business Women's club is Miss Doris Mae Reinholtz.

Church Groups' Notices

MONDAY There will be no meeting of the Council of Church Women Monday, the session being postponed because of the state convention of the council of church women, set for Feb. 26, 27, and 28. United Lutheran Mission Study club meeting, seven-thirty o'clock, Monday evening, home of Mrs. J. L. Sawyer. The group will continue study of "The Keys of the Kingdom." TUESDAY Division No. 3, Catholic Ladies' Altar society, meeting Tuesday, two o'clock, home of Mrs. Anna Gassman. Organization for Catholic military wives and mothers meeting Tuesday evening, St. Joseph's hall, seven-thirty o'clock; Mrs. Francis W. Kelley, Jr., from local USO office as guest speaker. West Women's Christian Temperance Union group, business meeting, Tuesday afternoon, two o'clock, home of Mrs. Anna Boyd, 12 North Jefferson. Dues are payable on this date and all members and interested parties are asked to attend. WEDNESDAY St. Mary's Catholic Altar society will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, two o'clock, St. Mary's high school library; fourth division to entertain, Mrs. William Storm to give talk on China. St. Mary's guild, St. Mary's Episcopal church, meeting all day, Wednesday, church parish hall; sewing and quilting work for day; luncheon, at noon with Mrs. Nels Jorgensen and Mrs. A. F. Sether in charge. Santa Clara Ladies Aid will meet in church basement, Wednesday; quilting to be done, covered dish luncheon at noon.

Amaranth Event On Monday

Willamette Court, Order of the Amaranth, will meet Monday evening, eight o'clock, downtown Masonic temple. Entertainment will follow the meeting. The committee for the evening includes: Mrs. W. A. Cummings, chairman, Captain and Mrs. Frank R. Brockschink, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Meldon Carroll, Miss Flora Morris, Mrs. Edith Crocker, J. R. Chapman, Ray Allen.

Auxiliaries

SUNDAY American Legion auxiliary meets with Legion Sunday for joint luncheon, one o'clock, Seymour cafe, meeting being for Willamette council of Legion and auxiliary for third district post and units. Following luncheon, Legion will hold a business session at Knights of Pythias hall; auxiliary to hold its business meeting at Seymour's. TUESDAY American Legion auxiliary sewing club meeting Tuesday, Mrs. Elmer Geiger and Mrs. Clarence V. Simon, hostesses, at home of Mrs. Geiger. WEDNESDAY Social club of the Sons of Union Veterans auxiliary will hold its February meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Laurice Fry, 2178 Agate. The meeting will begin at two-thirty o'clock and members are asked to bring thimbles as work on the tray cloths for Camp Adair's hospital will begin Wednesday. THURSDAY Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen will meet at the River Road Women's club house Wednesday at seven-thirty o'clock for an evening meeting. Drill practice will precede the meeting at six-thirty o'clock. The committee for the evening will be Mrs. Ira Lynd, Mrs. F. J. Porter, Mrs. R. K. Little, and Mrs. W. B. Faust. FRIDAY Postoffice Clerks auxiliary will meet Friday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. Herschel Axtell for a dessert. The group will spend the afternoon doing Red Cross sewing. Disabled American Veterans auxiliary will meet Friday evening at eight o'clock at the courthouse. Nomination and election of officers will be held at that time. SATURDAY Illahee Division will hold a six-thirty potluck dinner Saturday evening at the Knights of Pythias hall, to which the men of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers are invited.

AT LONE PINE LONE PINE—Evan Kirk, who had eight days leave from the naval training station at Camp Farrago, Idaho, has been visiting his family here. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Lee and son visited friends here Sunday. Mr. Lee used to teach at the Lone Pine grade school. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Spencer of Palouse, Wash., stopped at the G. W. Robinson home recently on their way to Palouse from Missouri. Spencers were early residents of Lone Pine and formerly owned the Piquet place. Miss Judy Ann Robinson, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, was a recent guest at her grandparents. Mrs. W. A. Piquet was hostess to the Santa Clara Thimble club at her home recently. The afternoon was spent in visiting. Guests of the club were Mrs. Elgin Bailor, Mrs. Cliff Abrams, and Mrs. Lester Gunson and Rodney Dean. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nyce of Seattle are now at the home of Mrs. Nyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lassen. Women of the community will meet to sew on Wednesday afternoon at the schoolhouse. The community club will meet Thursday at 7:30. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

GOES TO NAVY THURSTON—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russel have word that their son, Ben, who lives at Pasadena, Calif., has left for the U.S. navy service being an ensign. He has been sent to the University of Arizona for a period and then will be at home for a few days and plans to come to Thurston for a short visit before taking up his duties at Treasure Island where he will be stationed for a while. They also received word from their son, Belmont, that he is now at home at Brooks, after spending several weeks in a Portland hospital following an operation and a relapse. 'X' Marks Thursday Starring Damian O'Flynn and Helen Parrish, the thrilling new Republic mystery melodrama, "X Marks the Spot," will open a three-day run at the Heilig Thursday. Dick Purcell, Neil Hamilton, Jack LaRue, Anne Jeffreys, and Esther Muir head the supporting cast. The feature will be programmed with a Charles Starrett western, "Pardon My Gun," plus latest serialized adventures of "Smilin' Jack."

Wiltshire engraving

MISS EVELYN WINDLE

On February 27, Miss Evelyn Windle will wed Rohn Barnes in Spokane.

Among Women's Lodges

MONDAY Women of the Moose will hold their card party at two o'clock Monday afternoon in the Moose hall. WEDNESDAY Helmetta club of the Pythian Sisters will meet Wednesday for a six-thirty potluck at the Knights of Pythias hall. The committee includes Mrs. Marion Patton, Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mrs. Ray Burky, Mrs. S. G. Towers, Mrs. Jorgen Hansen and Mrs. P. Wright. Theta Rho will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, seven-thirty o'clock, at the L. O. O. F. hall. Girls are reminded that their attendance will help their side in the contest. Drill practice will be held Tuesday at four o'clock. THURSDAY Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall for a regular business meeting. Entertainment will be furnished by a committee composed of members whose last names begin with G or H. FRIDAY Women of the Moose will meet Friday at Moose hall at eight o'clock. The chapter night program is in the hands of the recorder. KENNELL-ELLIS PHOTO, WILTSHIRE ENGRAVING MR. MRS. THAYER DICKEY The wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Dickey (Thelma Lee Crowe) was a recent event.

Basket Social Of Aid Said Success

JASPER — The Jasper Ladies Aid held an old time basket social at the grange hall recently. A sum of $22.95 was added to the treasury. A program, consisting of songs, by the group, a monologue, readings, and a tableau, was given. Taking part in the tableau were Roger Soderstadt, Alma Humphrey, and Joy Wallace with Yvonne Murphey at the piano and Mrs. Grace Jones and Gertrude Humphrey singing. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Laird are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a 8.3 pound son, Robert Paxton, who arrived on February 13. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Laird of Jasper. Mrs. Arthur Ruthven has received word from her son, Virgil Newton, that he is now located at Camp Frances E. Warren at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and that her son-in-law, Delbert Wilson, is now stationed in Louisiana. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Neet recently received a letter from their son, Eldred, who is in the navy, stating that he is now back in the states being temporarily located at Atlanta, Ga. While he was in the South Pacific he met Gene Seales, a former high school acquaintance and later learned that he was killed in action the next day after their meeting. Mrs. Fred Cook entertained Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Laird at dinner on Feb. 18 in honor of Mr. Cook's 69th birthday.

Anna May Wong Will Return In State Feature

Anna May Wong, starring in the timely new Producers Releasing Corporation thriller, "Bombs Over Burma," will play Friday and Saturday at the State theater. Taking place on the famed Burma Road, "Bombs Over Burma" is the saga of a fearless Chinese schoolteacher who avenges the death of her favorite pupil by braving Nipponese bullets and planes to save a key point in China's defenses. U.S. marines were dispatched to Japan in September, 1923, to render assistance to destitute citizens of Yokohama and Tokyo who were made homeless by an earthquake.

Mr. Croston Feted At School Party

MARCOLA — A luncheon was given at the high school honoring Charles D. Croston by the student body. A military theme was carried out under the supervision of the home economics class. Mr. Croston left recently for service in the army air forces. At Grand Rapids, Michigan, he will enter school of meteorology. After a 22 weeks course he will be commissioned as a second lieutenant and will receive an assignment as an instructor. Mr. Croston has been at Mohawk two years. He was coach of the athletic program. Mrs. Croston will remain at Wendling for a while. Mrs. Madge William is the newly appointed principal and Mrs. Bernice Willcox and Mrs. Lucille Parsons are newly hired teachers. Miss Gorsline resigned to take up government work at Los Angeles. Mrs. Helen Walling will entertain the mothers and their children of the Junior Mothers club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Doris Werner. The food rationing for book No. 2 will be held at Mohawk high school all next week, starting at 7 p.m. and lasting until 9 p.m. each day but Saturday, then from 9 a.m. till 9 p.m. All are asked to bring ration book No. 1 for each member of the family, also have the declarer's sheet which will appear in the newspaper filled out. Mrs. William is in charge of the rationing here. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Scott have bought the Willey place and moved there. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Piller have moved to the Tribble place vacated by the Scott family. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Titus and family have moved to Coburg. Mrs. Neil Gwyn has returned to Marcola from Santa Ana, Calif., where she spent several weeks with her husband. The per family stake in government war financing in this country now amounts to over $800, including $302 in war bonds directly owned, $284 through government bond holdings of the life insurance companies, and around $220 owned indirectly through savings deposits. Biggest thrill experienced by U.S. marines landing in New Zealand was provided by school children who eagerly sought the autographs of their heroes.

CDA Set Social Wednesday

The February social for Catholic Daughters of America will be held Wednesday evening, eight o'clock, St. Joseph's hall. Mrs. Jennie Nelson is chairman for the evening, assisted by Mrs. Ralph W. Leighton, Mrs. Nettie Young, Mrs. Frank Plinsky, and Mrs. Robert Mertz.

Executive Group To Meet Tuesday

Members of the Women's Society for Christian Service executive council will meet on Tuesday morning at ten-thirty o'clock at the First Methodist church. A general business meeting will follow at eleven-thirty o'clock and a noon business luncheon will be served by circle No. 5. The regular luncheon will begin at twelve-thirty o'clock. Wesleyan Service Guild will have the devotions at one-thirty o'clock and Dr. Paul D. Means will lead the program on "The Church and World Federation."

COTTAGE GROVE — Mrs. Cecil E. Caldwell presented her piano pupils in a recital last Saturday afternoon at the residence studio at 353 Madison avenue. Members of the class played their numbers from memory. Compositions ranging from the old world masters to the present day composers were played, with a thought given to comparison of style and form. Miss Patricia Baldwin played several numbers from an advanced group, while Miss Mary Lou Wolford represented the pre-school child, responding with several numbers at the close of the program. Valentine favors and refreshments were enjoyed by the following members of the class: Helen Axley, Alberta Adkins, Donna Alsop, Arlene Brewster, Joyce Baldwin, Patricia Baldwin, Sandra Sue Carlson, Darlene Castle, Dean Caldwell, Betty Caviness, Billy Caviness, Mary Decker, Bob Daugherty, Jean Foley, Charles Gierau, Neola Johnson, Joan Metcalf, Diane Morelock, Keith Radabaugh, Patricia Scott, Malcolm Scott, Helen Smith, Elizabeth Workman, Jeanette Workman, Mary Lou Wolford, Larry Wolford.

LONE PINE—The Lone Pine Women's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Louis Jensen with Mrs. N. M. Lassen as co-hostess. The officers for the coming year were elected with Mrs. Balhizer, president; Mrs. Guy Lamoreaux, vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Piquet, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Brougher was appointed chairman of the flower committee and she is to choose the other members of the committee; Mrs. Spiller was re-appointed chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Orville Paesche was a guest. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. A. Piquet with Mrs. Lester Gunson assisting.

POETRY group of the Women's City club is meeting at the home of Mrs. Ralph C. Crow, Saturday, two-thirty o'clock. The program will be on Lincoln in poetry.

MRS. E. J. FRASIER will be hostess to the Home Science club Monday afternoon, Miss Mabel A. Wood of the campus home economics department to be guest speaker.

THE FEBRUARY gathering for the Two Town club will be Friday evening, dinner at six-thirty o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Swarouth, 1322 Lawrence street.

MRS. E. RUBENSTEIN will be hostess Monday for the Twinklers club, the group to meet for dessert at one-thirty o'clock.

SHAKESPEARE club members will meet at the home of Mrs. G. S. Beardsley, Monday afternoon. The play being taken up is "Taming of the Shrew," Mrs. C. W. Hawkesworth and Mrs. Effie R. Knapp leading.

SORORITY Alumnae Adherers group is holding its postponed meeting next Thursday evening, eight o'clock, Geering hall.

MR. MRS. H. R. BIRES MR. MRS. CHARLES BUSH, JR. Among recent weddings were those of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rush Bires (Arline Peter), left above; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bush, Jr. (Evelyn Bires).

Masonic Groups Arrange Dinner

A covered dish dinner is planned for Friday evening by Eugene lodge, No. 11, A. F. and A. M., Evangeline chapter, O. E. S., and Willamette court, Order of the Amaranth, the dinner to be at the downtown Masonic temple at six-thirty o'clock. On the committee are Mrs. E. F. Liddell, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Denniston, Mr. and Mrs. Jay B. Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul N. Plank, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Filsinger, Mrs. Victor Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sem, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Carver, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fuitts. All members and non-affiliated members of the groups are invited to attend the dinner.

CRESWELL—The marriage of Miss Hazel Barrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Barrie, to Erline D. Groubeck, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Groubeck, was solemnized February 12 at Vancouver, Wash., at the home of a minister of the Presbyterian church. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Taylor of Albany were the attendants. The bride wore a tan suit with green accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of orchids. Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Central high school, the bride of the class of 1942, and he of the class of 1936. The couple will make their home in Creswell.

THE ANNUAL Eugene High Girls' League "March Day" party will be held Wednesday, March 3 from seven-thirty to nine-thirty o'clock. Miss Alma Elvignon, social chairman, has announced. The party will be costume masquerade with theme as yet undecided. Chairman for the celebration will be Miss Ruth Roberts, refreshments; Miss Beverly Britt, decorations; Miss Evelyn Major, entertainment and Miss Beverly Beirsto, publicity.

THE ANNUAL Eugene High Girls' League "March Day" party will be held Wednesday, March 3 from seven-thirty to nine-thirty o'clock. Miss Alma Elvignon, social chairman, has announced. The party will be costume masquerade with theme as yet undecided. Chairman for the celebration will be Miss Ruth Roberts, refreshments; Miss Beverly Britt, decorations; Miss Evelyn Major, entertainment and Miss Beverly Beirsto, publicity.

Penney photo, Wiltshire engraving

MR. MRS. J. W. DONOVAN

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Donovan was observed recently at Junction City.

A visit to H. Gordon's is like a stroll through Spring flowers... colorful new arrivals that are just the tonic for your wardrobe.

Strook Coats in very gay shades... and Suits to contrast... fluffy Blouses and imported Scotch yarn Sweaters to accent your suit. Lively, loud Print Dresses... contrasted with the new, short Coat... and of course all complemented with the new Costume Jewelry.

H. Gordon & Co. 1050 WILLAMETTE