

Paralytic Drive Cottage Grove Success

COTTAGE GROVE—The infantile paralysis drive has netted twice as much as in any year, according to a statement by N. J. Nelson, southern Lane county infantile paralysis chairman. The receipts total $247.45. Expenses for advertising, typing, and miscellaneous items amount to $15.41 leaving a net of $232.04 to be turned over to the state. This is approximately $100 more than was turned over in any one year in former years. Various methods were used as means of raising the fund. This year the drive has been carried on through the local postoffice. Cooperation was expected from the various organizations and clubs in the city. The drive has been carried on since Pearl Harbor. It will also be closed Monday. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. B. Mrs. F. W. Bickel, Mrs. Joy and Mrs. C. A. Beidler guests. The next meeting will be held March 18 with Mrs. Martin Foster as hostess. Ad Libitum club met for a dessert recently at the home of Mrs. E. Earl Cone. Mrs. Mark Morgan, Mrs. Edwin Cone and Mrs. Hadley Arthur were guests. The club presented a gift and gave a towel shower honoring Mrs. Edwin Cone, a recent bride. The club will meet March 18 at the home of Mrs. Alvis Wicks.

W. B. C. met for a dessert last week at the home of Mrs. O. W. Blackmore. The next meeting will be March 4 at the home of Mrs. Harry Tennis.

The following sales were reported by W. B. Johnson: Stella I. Baker house and lot located on West Main street was sold to Roy L. Miller. Mr. Miller and family have taken possession and are making improvements in the property. The George W. Potts house and large lot was sold to J. W. Glass who with his family have taken possession of the premises. The Rev. Ernie White's home on south Fifth street was purchased by Clyde W. Kinney. Mr. Kinney and his family are planning to make Cottage Grove their home. The Thomas J. Nelson suburban home located on North River road was sold to Mrs. Cora B. Slatery of Portland. She has taken possession of the property and is planning on making some changes in the buildings. The Jessie Powell house and lot located on the east side was purchased by C. E. Moore who is a rural route mail carrier. The Ernest J. Geer home on West Main street was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jones of London, who purchased the property as an investment.

The Oscar McDole stock and dairy ranch located about 4 1/2 miles south of Cottage Grove and containing about 471 acres was purchased by Omer M. Patten of Los Angeles. This ranch is considered one of the finest stock ranches in south Lane county in view of the fact that it has everything which goes towards making up a real stock ranch. An abundance of creek and spring water, outside range for stock and timber for commercial and home use. Mr. Patten has taken possession and is planning on marketing the commercial timber to provide more pasture for stock. He expected to raise both dairy and beef stock;

Lane County Grange News

Pomona—Pomona grange's regular meeting is slated for Saturday next at the Goshen grange hall, an all-day meeting being planned. Visiting grangers are asked to take salad and dessert for one meal.

Santa Clara—First and second degree team of Santa Clara grange is meeting for practice Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., Santa Clara school auditorium.

Jasper—The Jasper grange will meet Tuesday. Regular committee reports will be heard. The agricultural committee will have charge of the program on "Food, No. 1 War Necessity." O. S. Fletcher, county agent, will be speaker. A few numbers commemorating Washington's birthday also will be given. Refreshments will be served by Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Jones and the Humphreys.

The Jasper Home Economics club met Thursday at the grange hall. Potluck dinner was served at noon with Ona Wheeler and Lucile Vitus as hostesses. Several rompers were finished for the Red Cross. The yearly program sheep, goats, hogs, turkeys, chickens and some geese and ducks. The J. C. Flora residence located on the west side has been sold to A. L. Woodard. Mr. and Mrs. Flora have moved to Roseburg.

The Tuesday Bridge club will entertain their husbands with a six-thirty dinner to be held Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Daugherty.

Monday Calendar
From 1:30 to 4:30, Red Cross surgical dressing classes meet at the Masonic temple. More workers are desperately needed.

At 6:30, United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary will hold a potluck dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet in honor of the twelfth anniversary.

At 6:30, O. W. Dinner club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short.

At 7:30, Boy Scouts meet at the armory.

At 7:30, Degree of Honor lodge meets at the Eagles hall. Miss Isabel Kilne and Miss Wilma Hobbs will be hostesses.

At 7:30, Rainbow Girls meet at the Masonic temple. Initiation will be held.

From 7:30 to 9:30, Red Cross surgical gauze class meets at the Masonic temple.

At 7:30, Townsend club meets at the Townsend hall. A 15-minute resume will be given of the Townsend bill being presented to congress. Members are asked to bring sandwiches or salad. Guests are invited.

Tuesday Events
At 12, chamber of commerce meets at the Rainbow cafe.

At 1, M. P. G. club luncheon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Lebow.

At 1:30, Friendly club dessert at the home of Mrs. Elmer Tohlen.

At 1:30, Justamers club dessert at the home of Mrs. Walter Trembly.

At 2, executive meeting of the Woman's Council of the Christian church.

At 7:30, Research club "surprise program" at the home of Miss Eunice Vandenberg. A potluck dessert will be exchanged.

At 7:30, Royal Neighbor lodge meets at the Eagles hall. Mrs. Grace Jenkins and Mrs. Maude Funk are the hostess committee.

At 7:30, permanent police reserves meet at the city hall under the direction of Chief of Police Myron A. Perry.

At 8, Oregon State Guard drill at the armory.

At 7:30, adult sewing class meets at the Jefferson school under the direction of Miss Margaret Stevenson. Point rationing will also be explained.

At 7:30, civilian defense first aid corps meet at the Masonic temple under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Jones.

of work was adopted. It was decided to do Red Cross work when materials are available. The club voted to hold a bazaar and hobby show this fall in conjunction with the annual chicken supper.

Irving—The Irving grange will meet Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The lecturer, Mrs. Bernice Zabrickie, is planning a Washington day program. For the lunch ladies are asked to bring pie and coffee cream. Hostesses will be Mrs. Ethel Ward and Mrs. Beeler.

Thurston—The Thurston grange met this week. The H.E. club is discontinuing its Saturday evening meeting now as spring work is opening up and the men will be unable to attend. The ladies of the club will meet each second Thursday afternoon and their next meeting will be with Mrs. Stokes. Quilt blocks will be worked on. The literary hour was presented by the lecturer, Mrs. Joe Wicks, who gave a patriotic program and also dedicated the service flag. Twenty-eight stars are on the flag at the present time of young men in the service who have lived at Thurston and attended school here; also boys of grange members. One gold star is on the flag and the name is for Marvin Bucham who is reported missing in action. Five silver stars are on for overseas men and 23 for men of the immediate community. More stars will be added as soon as the stars that are ordered arrive.

Lorane—Lorane grange is to meet Tuesday evening. On the serving committee are Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Seales.

Dorena—The Dorena grange met Thursday evening at the Dorena Ladies club hall. Claude Arne in reporting for the agriculture committee stressed the necessity of growing vegetable gardens this year. Ed Finnerly discussed the growing of strawberries stating that growers were guaranteed 11 cents per pound for this year's crop. Mrs. Lot Wagner told of the storage of vegetables and Mrs. Claude Arne told of the growing of vegetable seeds. Ed Decker discussed the growing of field peas. Winners in the recent rodent control contest were announced as follows: Donald Hands, first, winning the $3 prize, Robert Ward, second, $1.50; and Elbert Halterman, third, .50. The next serving committee were announced as Mr. and Mrs. Jim Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Decker, Mrs. Mary Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glerau and Mr. and Mrs. Davidson. Allan Aspey told of the bond sales for the firebird and urged members to purchase bonds and designate them for the firebird. Announcement was made of pork production classes which will be conducted Monday evening, February 22 at the home of Henry Rasmussen on Disston Route by Donal Kabler. Another class on farming and production will be held at the Mt. View school house on March 1. These classes are being conducted by Mr. Kabler, vocational agriculture instructor at the Union high school in connection with the farm educational program. During the lecturer's hour group singing was enjoyed. A letter was read from Morton Tompkins, state grange master. Mrs. Claude Arne read a paper. In the "tall tale" contest, Rodrick Doolittle placed first; Claude Arne, second and Raymond Wicks, third. Judges were Mrs. Joe Schneider and Mrs. Leslie Wicks. Mrs. Francis Cooper will be in charge of the next lecturer's hour which will follow the theme of "seeds and seeds." A seed exchange will be held. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Finnerly. Mrs. Claude Arne was appointed as grange reporter.

Ada—Ada grange visited Maple

Creek grange last Sunday, the guests putting on a radio program. Mrs. Francis Austin received the defense award for turning in the most salvage for the Camp Adair hospital. Creswell—At the regular meeting of Creswell grange, Thursday evening, February 25 the birthday anniversaries of the month will be observed. Those serving are Mr. and Mrs. Myron Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Clack, and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. DeBerry and daughter Mildred.

Women are now driving 44-passenger buses through congested streets in San Diego where the transit riding has increased more than 208 per cent above last year.

MONTGOMERY WARD

LOOMED IN BRITAIN—TRADITIONAL HOME OF FINE FABRICS!

hand tailored suits OF ALL WOOL

GABARDINE...

24.75

Usually Found at $30 to $35

The fabric alone makes them a rare find, but Wards went even further to make them an outstanding value at this price! We took this fine imported all wool gabardine to a man's tailor... had him design it in two classic styles and make it with the same expensive hand detailing that makes a man's suit fit so well. Note the hand-stitched edges, collar, sleeves, buttonholes, armholes! Note the careful seaming! But to really appreciate them, you must see them yourself. They're in the softest Spring shades of victory blue, tan, nude and brown. Sizes 10 to 20.

OUR BEST QUALITY
CAROL BRENT SHIRTS

4.19

Thoroughbred classics in beautiful Crepe Allure, the silky rayon that washes so well. 3 rows of stitching! White and pastels. 32-40. with short sleeves... 3.98

Ask about Wards convenient monthly payment plan. It's the easy way to buy the things you need now!

Montgomery Ward

1059 WILLAMETTE

TELEPHONE 4200

U.S. GOVERNMENT NATIONAL DEAFNESS SURVEY

Important discoveries make possible the greatest help ever offered to the hard of hearing.

Write for free booklet and learn how you can benefit from these Government findings.

ACOUSTICON INSTITUTE
14 Miner Bldg. Ph. 3638

I want a copy of the FREE Book on the U. S. Government National Deafness Survey.

Lighting Fixtures FOR EVERY PART OF THE HOUSE SIGWART'S

Botany Lanolin

NATURE'S AID TO LOVELINESS

Under your devastating new hat... a radiant, lovelier you! Try Botany Lanolin Beauty Aids... try them all... the wonderful creams, the soothing, luscious soap, the utterly delightful lotion. You'll marvel at the way they coax your complexion back to glowing, supple, freshness... the way your skin feels incredibly smooth and soft. It's a secret we'll share with you... it's oil balance that does it, and Botany Lanolin cosmetics help maintain the oil balance so essential to loveliness.

BOTANY LANOLIN AIDS TO LOVELINESS—
Botany Lanolin Triple-Action Cream cleanses... lubricates... protects. $1 and $1.75.
Botany Lanolin Formula 70. A massage or night cream... rich in lanolin. $1.25 and $2.
Botany Lanolin Superfatted Soap. Rich in lanolin... creamy, delightful. 3 cakes for 8¢.
Botany Lanolin Lotion. Creamy... richer in lanolin... little goes a long way. $1.

For phone or mail orders... include 10% Federal Excise Tax!

Eyes Examined Glasses Fitted
DR. ELLIOTT
Optometrist-Optician
I.O.O.F. Building Phone 419
87 East Broadway Eugene, Ore.

Walk-a-day Florsheims

The Passy just one of the reasons why Florsheims are the most walked about shoes in America. $11.50

Buy BETTER SHOES with your Shoe Stamps!

1060 Willamette

BURCH'S