

Yoncalla Women's Club Has Election

YONCALLA—Mrs. Edgar Richards entertained the members of the Yoncalla Women's Study club at her home recently. A luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Harvey Cockeran and Mrs. Fred Mark. Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston was program leader. The topic was "Pioneer Life." Roll call was responded to with incidents of pioneer life.

Mrs. Pinkerton gave a story of a train of 300 wagons that crossed the plains. Mrs. John Kruse related the history of the settlers who came to Yoncalla valley a century ago. A part of her paper was the reading of an original poem, a tribute to those early pioneers. During the business session the treasurer reported $27.35 proceeds of the recent silver tea, sponsored by the club.

The following officers were elected for the coming club year: President, Mrs. Harvey Cockeran; first vice president, Mrs. Dare Keger; second vice president, Mrs. S. A. Walkinshaw; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Irvin Rice. Twenty one members were present and the following guests: Mrs. Bud McFarland, Mrs. Herbert Olson of Oakland and Mrs. Mary Bradburn of San Diego, Calif.

Miss Wilda Miller, returned missionary from northern China, is visiting at the home of Miss Mildred Kruse. She gave a talk at the women's Society of Christian Service missionary meeting at the Methodist church Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served following the meeting. She also talked to the Euodia club Tuesday afternoon. She is a missionary in China for nearly seven years. She left there about two and one half years ago.

Mrs. Baldwin Dies
Mrs. Mary Baldwin died Thursday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen in Hayhurst valley. She was born in Byron county, Texas, October 27, 1866. She has made her residence in this community for the past nine years.

She leaves three sons, Marlon Baldwin of Lorane, Robert Baldwin of Tracy, Calif., and Frank Baldwin of Stockton, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Burrows and two brothers, Wesley and Monroe Richardson, all of Brownwood, Texas.

Funeral services will be held in the Yoncalla Christian church at 2 p. m. Saturday with interment in the Yoncalla cemetery. Arrangements are in charge of Burns mortuary, Oakland.

Clubs Entertained At Reedsport

REEDSPORT — The Round Table Study club met recently at the E. G. Dunn residence. Mrs. Clyde Chase presenting the program which was a review of the book, "The Rock and the Wind," by E. Bretherton. Guests included Mrs. Richard Miles, Mrs. Dudley Knapp, and Mrs. Mortimer Bailey.

Mrs. Roy Cairns was a luncheon hostess on Tuesday, contract being the diversion of the afternoon.

Mrs. W. D. Simon was hostess last week for the meeting of the Gardiner Sewing club. Dessert was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sprinkel of Smith River announce the birth of a 7-pound, 55-ounce son, Wesley Jackson, on February 24, at McAuley hospital, Marshfield. The baby is the grandson of Mrs. Oscar Olson and Irving Crook of Smith River and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sprinkel of Lowell. Harvey Sprinkel, now training with the U. S. armed forces at Fort Bliss, Texas, was able to secure a furlough in order to be home for the arrival of the newcomer.

Recent Reedsport visitors were Richard DeVelbis, of the U. S. navy dental corps, stationed at Corpus Christi, Texas, who was the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. DeVelbis, and sister, Nelda; James McCulloch, U. S. navy, who is the guest of his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. George McCulloch, enroute to San Francisco, after completing an advanced yeoman course at the University of Indiana, at Bloomington, Indiana. Master Sgt. Willis Dow, of the U. S. army air forces stationed at Pueblo, Colorado; and Mrs. C. H. Dow, and Charles Dow of Portland, were visitors at the Medford Fuller home.

Jack Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dunn, Dick Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Love, of Reedsport, and Edward Gerhard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gerhard, of Gardiner, left Reedsport Wednesday morning for Portland where they were called for final examinations for entrance into the marine corps. Gerald Holliday, Dick Henry, and William Swatman are among the local 17-year-old boys recently enlisting in the U. S. navy.

Creswell Rebekahs Plan Coming Events

CRESWELL — At the regular meeting of Honor Rebekah lodge Wednesday evening Mrs. V. E. Groubeck was welcomed into membership by re-instatement and Mrs. R. F. Scott by initiation.

Mrs. Noble of Eugene and a member of the Eugene lodge was a visitor. Announcement was made that due to a delayed schedule of the president of the Oregon Assembly, the institution of the Theta Rho club has been postponed but arrangements are being made for a meeting at an early date.

The lodge voted to purchase the charter and needed supplies for the club. A benefit St. Patrick's party was planned to follow the March 24 meeting of the lodge with members of the L. O. O. F. lodge, friends as guests. Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. Arthur Denney, Mrs. V. W. Johnston, and Miss Elsie Anderson; hall decorations, Mrs. L. C. Goheen, Mrs. Scott, and Mrs. Dunford; games, Mrs. Frank Sly, Mrs. Goheen; program, Mrs. Dunford, and Mrs. C. I. Kent.

Friendship night was also announced for the April 14 night. The Red Cross roll call was announced. A social time followed the business meeting with Mrs. Cora M. Olson, Mrs. Arthur Olson, Mrs. Margaret K. Warner, and Mrs. Fred Wulfschlegel serving refreshments. Mrs. Wulfschlegel was a guest.

At the recent meeting of the Boy Scouts, Raymond Webb was appointed senior patrol leader. A new patrol named the Beaver, was organized with Kermit Chapman as patrol leader and Billy Lamb, assistant. Max Ellis replaces Raymond Webb as leader of the Flaming Arrow patrol with Billy Anderson as assistant. Another patrol was formed of members of other patrols with Johnny Shoop as leader and John Reed, assistant. This patrol is named the Pioneer patrol. Billy Brown and Ellis Bowers having completed their tenderfoot tests will be invested at the next meeting. Twenty-one members were present at the meeting with L. E. Zinkler, leader and W. O. Shoops assistant.

Sell Reports
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunford have sold their home property on Oregon avenue to Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Smith who are now living in the Camas Swale district. The Dunford family will not give possession until the close of the school year.

Mrs. Fred Scherler and daughter, Mrs. Raymond Mourer, and baby have recently returned from a visit with Mrs. Scherler's son, Clarence Scherler, in the army service stationed at Monterey, Cal.

The committee from the Parents club of the high school is soliciting shrubs to be planted at an early date. Any one having something to contribute is to call Mrs. R. W. Stone, phone 35-F-22 or Mrs. J. T. Kerr, phone 455.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vaught have recently returned from an extended visit with a daughter at Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Harriet Ingram, chairman of the local Red Cross roll call has appointed the following assistants: Mrs. R. C. Parsons, Mrs. K. C. Schwering, Mrs. H. E. Heaton, Mrs. L. E. Zinkler, Mrs. W. C. Land, Mrs. W. E. Dunford, Mrs. E. J. Haskell, Mrs. L. C. Goheen and Mrs. Ben Fox.

Billy Lower, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lower left Tuesday for Seattle, Wash., where he will attend a cadet training school.

Mrs. Warren A. Smith, entertained at a surprise birthday dinner for her mother, Mrs. Walter Hager, Wednesday. Guests were Mrs. Hager, Mrs. L. M. Dersham, Mrs. K. B. Melton, Mrs. Ted Ferling and daughter Phyllis, Mrs. W. H. Browns, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. Susie Mourer, Mrs. J. T. Kerr and Mrs. Smith and daughter.

Jeanette Geerds, member of the class of 1941 of the Creswell high school, who has been serving as nurse aid for several months at the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene, left Thursday for Santa Cruz, Cal., where she will attend a West, ern Union Telegraph school.

High School Cleans Up Storm Damage

WALDPOR — Winter storms did some damage to the bulkhead at the high school grounds and the student body bid the job in at $22.50, doing the work during the pleasant weather. A truck and all necessary tools were borrowed so the money is clear profit.

Garden owners have signed a petition to be presented to the council asking that some steps be taken to curb the dog nuisance but at the regular date for the monthly council meeting there was no quorum present.

The county unit school board met at Toledo recently and considered the election of teachers for next year. They set March 18 as the date for consideration of the salary schedule as this could not be properly done before the adjournment of the legislature.

Mrs. Mary Fowler has reopened the Hi-Way cafe. While the cafe was closed it was thoroughly renovated. Ed Fowler is acting as chef.

Heceta Post 3155 Veterans of Foreign Wars and their Auxiliary will meet in their hall Sunday, March 14. Dinner will be served at 1 p. m., and meetings will be called to order at 2.

Lincoln county Pomona grange is meeting this Saturday with the Yachats grange. This county is operating under the Pennsylvania plan. Jess Reeder of Siletz is Pomona master.

The funeral of Rev. Virgil Howell was held Monday at the Presbyterian church in Waldport. Mr. Howell was 63 years of age and had lived many years in Waldport and Yachats. The burial was at Alder Grove cemetery.

Lt. Bud J. Smith from Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Roberta Darlene O'Brien also of Council Bluffs, were married Sunday, Feb. 28 at Waldport. Chaplain Miller of the 104th Cavalry performed the ceremony. Sgt. Shively and Mrs. J. Ralph Marsh of Council Bluffs attended the couple.

D. B. Ambler has been elected a member of the local school committee. This committee acts in an advisory capacity to the school board in counties having the unit system.

The Waldport Garden club met at the library Tuesday afternoon. The club contributed $2 to the Red Cross and is arranging to have a plant sale the second and third of April. Several papers were read on vegetable and Victory gardens. Pamphlets on wild flowers of Australia were shown by Mrs. Daisy Overlander. These were sent by her son, who is a member of the armed forces there.

Dorena Board Chooses Teachers

DORENA — The Dorena grade school board in meeting last week elected Miss Frances Cooper and Miss Mildred Smith as teachers for the new year. Mrs. Oris Steele has resigned. Mrs. Bernadette Lange has been elected to replace Mrs. Steele.

A surprise shower was given recently for Mrs. L. M. Thronberg of Cottage Grove by some of her former neighbors of Dorena.

Mrs. Annie Peterson who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harold Kern, has returned to her home in Drake, North Dakota.

Miss Esther Volgamore has gone to Portland to take a course in typography.

At Harrisburg

HARRISBURG—Burl L. Brown was graduated March 8 from radio school at Salt Lake City air base, acquiring the rating of staff sergeant, and is classed as a senior radio gunner. He will serve on a bomber. He leaves Salt Lake City this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Douglas are moving back from Portland this week and will occupy their home on First street. Mr. and Mrs. Winningham, who have been living in the Douglas house have moved to the Cunningham place on Smith street, near the S. P. track. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rise and family are also moving back from Portland and will again occupy their home on Fifth street.

Dale Lowell is home on furlough from Brookley Field, Alabama, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowell. He arrived Sunday and will stay about a week.

Ed Parson stopped to visit with his brother, Jim Parson, and the E. L. Brown family, while on his way to his home in Minnesota this week after working for some time in California.

The returns from the card party at the city hall, sponsored by the auxiliary to the chamber of commerce, amounted to approximately $21.00.

The Thursday Thimble club of the Up-River community held a bazaar and supper at the Wyatt school house recently. Approximately $80 were made from the sale of food and needle work.

The W.C.T.U. met recently at the home of Mrs. E. W. Blehm. The Union voted to give $10 toward furnishing a room at Camp Adair. A handkerchief shower was given Mrs. Zona Rexroad who left Wednesday of this week for her home in California, after spending two years here.

At Lower Camp Creek

LOWER CAMP CREEK — The Community club meeting was recently held at the hall with Mrs. L. Tucker and Mrs. Fred Lucas co-hostesses. Next meeting will be March 18 with Mrs. Lela Swearingen and Mrs. Abbie Le Vee co-hostesses. Plans were made to hold a pie social the evening of March 20 at the hall. All ladies and girls are to bring pies.

Rev. G. B. Schmid of Eugene is holding church services each night, except Monday and Saturday nights, at the school house. A welcome is extended to all to attend. Meetings will continue all this week.

Mrs. Chas. Hadyen was in Portland several days visiting her daughter, Chas.

At Mapleton

MAPLETON—Barney Senn is home on a few days leave from duties in the service. He is stationed at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Senn are visiting in Portland this week.

The A. R. Cooper family have moved to Springfield.

The Theta Rho girls held their regular meeting Monday evening. The entertainment committee consisted of Eleanor Morris, Donna Lord and Elaine Johnson.

Clair Carver has gone to Seattle to take examinations in preparation for the air service.

Jean Mitlaner is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Dewey Moore.

Mrs. T. J. Niely has returned from Portland.

Drain Notes

DRAIN — Donald Robertson, a former Drain boy, who is in the service now, stationed at a camp in Cheyenne, Wyo, was home for a short visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Cecil Paterson. On account of the shortness of his leave his mother, Mrs. Floyd Robertson of Bandon came here to visit him. He left for camp Wednesday.

Clam Huckins who is in the service is home on furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huckins, and other relatives.

The Townsend meeting was held Monday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Van Kirk.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Gray March 4 at the Sacred Heart hospital, Eugene.

A 9-pound son was born Friday, March 5, to Mr. and Mrs. North Woolman, at the home of his mother, Mrs. Wheeler, in Drain.

Miss Marie Hausen has left for California to be with her relatives.

TO BUILD POST

WALTERVILLE—The men of the vicinity are asked to help with the erection of the new observation post. Work of building will be done Sunday with the men arriving as early in the morning as possible so that the building, which will be 10 by 12 feet can be finished that day. The post has been a centralized one since the new year. One of the men from the filler center approved the new location and work of building went ahead with donations of lumber being made and all material is on the ground for the work for Sunday. George Easton is chairman of the committee with other men of the vicinity working with him on the plans for the new building.

AT SANTA CLARA

SANTA CLARA—Mrs. Myrtle Cayes has returned from Washington where she had been visiting a sister, and is now at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hart.

Mrs. Bertie Kellogg, Mrs. O. A. Thompson and Mrs. Clarence Sedrulin gave a miscellaneous shower Tuesday evening in the church parlor, honoring Miss Viola Potter whose engagement to Sergeant Louis Arnold, has been announced.

Defense Council Meets At Noti

NOTI—The defense council met at the schoolhouse recently. It was reported that a trailer had been obtained to use as a fire trailer. S. Sgt. Perkins from Eugene was there and the building of a tower for a new observation post was discussed. Louie Rankins was appointed as chairman of the building committee.

At the last meeting of the P. T. A., E. A. Daniels, county 4-H club leader, and L. C. Moffitt, county school superintendent, came and gave the children their victory party for winning in the scrap drive.

The 4-H Sewing Club met recently at the home of Dorothy Shankle. Following the business meeting, the evening was spent playing games. Later refreshments were served.

Corporal Carl John Nordsten from Colorado Springs, is home on furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nordsten.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Phillips and children have recently moved here from Franklin.

GIVES PARTY

FALL CREEK—Myrtle Glaspey entertained at her home recently in honor of Mrs. Billie Johns. The afternoon was spent in visiting and viewing the gifts. A lunch was served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Jake Glaspey and Mrs. Minnie Thomas. Those present were—Mrs. Ruby Spangenburg, Mrs. Dora Bangers and son, Mrs. Helen Howard of Dexter, Mrs. Jane Kann, Mrs. Lula Neet, Mrs. Daisy Pettit and daughter of Fall Creek, Mrs. Wanetta Anderson and son and daughter of Oakridge, Mrs. Grace Marshall and son and daughter, Mrs. Odett Hills and daughter of Jasper, Mrs. Minnie Thomas of Eugene, Mrs. Iva Johns, Mrs. Annabell Glaspey and two sons of Trent, Myrtle Glaspey Fall Creek.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNE

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

POPEYE

BOOTS and HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

OUT OUR WAY