

Eugene Register-Guard

LANE COUNTY'S HOME NEWSPAPER

EUGENE, OREGON, SUNDAY, MARCH 21, 1943

Kennell-Elis photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS MILDRED WILSON

As president of the University of Oregon chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalism honorary, Miss Mildred Wilson will preside at the annual Matrix Table banquet of the group, April 9.

Annual Meetings, Other Events Arranged by Clubs

By MARIAN LOWRY

These are busy days for the women's organizations—annual meetings, election of officers, installations, yearly guest events, and other traditional activities for the end of the club year being circled on the calendars of many groups for the next six weeks.

In keeping with wartime restrictions, the guest events and special luncheon and dinner entertainments are very simple, however, fellowship and sociability being stressed ahead of display and lavish decorations.

One of the major club gatherings for the spring will be the state convention of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs for which the Eugene group will entertain in May.

Committees Named

Committee memberships for the various events in connection with the state B. and P.W. convention, May 14-15-16, were announced this week. Mrs. Lyman C. Palmer is general chairman.

For the reception to be given the first evening of the convention, honoring state and national officers, the following have been named: Mrs. J. F. White, Mrs. Edwin Liddell, Dr. Victory Morris, Miss Martha Foster, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer, Jr., Mrs. Bruce Nidever, and all committee chairmen.

On the committee for the delegates' luncheon to be held Saturday of the convention, are the following: Miss Thelma Neaville, Miss Clara Nasholin, Miss Martha Foster, Miss Ann Brenner, Mrs. Bruce Nidever, Miss Gladys Chase, Mrs. Ruth Johnson.

Arranging the formal dinner for the convention are Mrs. Glenn Pirtle, Mrs. Edwin Liddell, Mrs. Whitten Swafford, Miss Marie Mitchell, Mrs. Leora McMurphy, Miss Myrtle Porter, Mrs. Harold Miller.

Mrs. Frank Connell and Mrs. Max Burris are the committee for the Saturday evening party.

In charge of the emblem breakfast, a traditional event each Sunday of the convention, are Mrs. Harold Jensen, Mrs. Merle Chase, Miss Ann Brenner, Mrs. Esther Gross, Mrs. J. F. White, Miss Merle Nimmo, Mrs. Clarence Crocker.

Members of the program books committee are Mrs. H. D. Moreland, Miss Myrtle Smith, Mrs. Karl Blechschmidt, Mrs. Floyd Horn, Mrs. Ruth Richardson.

In charge of registration will be Miss Ada Shuey, Miss Pauline Pierce, Mrs. Ruth Richardson, Miss Marie Gross, Miss Nettie Mae Haugen, Miss Louise Nimmo, Miss Gertrude Sears, Miss Ola McDermott.

Hospitality committee members include Mrs. Perry Walbridge, Dr. Victory Morris, Miss Emilie Hedblum, Mrs. Madge Gordon, Mrs. T. E. Carey, Mrs. Jessie Stewart, Mrs. H. D. Moreland, Miss Ola McDermott, Mrs. Greta Buckingham.

Members of the scrapbook committee are Miss Tillie Dorlier, Mrs. Mabel Lusby, Mrs. Emma Johnson, Miss Edith Coleman, Miss Clara Beitel, Miss Lorene Herman.

Mrs. R. W. Schiack, Mrs. Dorothy Goodwin, Mrs. Clarence V. Simon, Miss Virginia Chubb, Mrs. Bertha Fulwiler, Mrs. E. E. Chadwick are on the ticket committee.

Arranging the music are Miss Arlene Soosey, Mrs. Max Burris, Mrs. Frank Connell, Miss Merle Nimmo.

Headquarters for the convention will be at the Osburn hotel, sessions to be held in the circuit courtroom at the courthouse. Mrs. Genevieve Turnipseed is president of the local club.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Christensen of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Catherine Christensen, to Don C. Kaba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Kaba of Portland.

The ceremony was solemnized at a nuptial mass, March 9, at the post chapel of the airbase where Mr. Kaba is in training, Lincoln, Neb.

The couple will reside in Lincoln for the present, Mr. Kaba being in an instructors' school there. He previously was at Hobbs airbase in New Mexico.

A joint party for the Avalon and Just-a-Wee clubs will be held Tuesday afternoon, one o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Mabel Eynon.

Romane photo, Wiltshire engraving

MISS MAUD DENSMORE

Re-elected as chairman of the Women's Choral club this past week was Miss Maud Densmore, one of the most active workers in this civic singing organization. The club's spring concert is announced for May 3.

From Bakersfield, Cal., comes an account of the marriage of Miss Thelma Susette Vanderford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Vanderford of Gridley, Cal., to Army Air Cadet Floyd R. Jensen, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jensen, route 5, Eugene.

The ceremony was solemnized as a candlelight one the evening of March 6 in the chapel of the Sacred Memories Methodist church in Bakersfield, Rev. Mr. Swanson of the Bakersfield Lutheran church officiating at the double ring service.

Miss Lavonne Taylor, sorority sister of the bride at Chico State college, and Stanley Jensen of Eugene, brother of the bridegroom, were the attendants.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin, cut in princess style, with a long court train, long sleeves, and modified Medicean collar of Chantilly lace. She wore a Juliet cap of seed pearls, and carried a French bouquet of gardenias, pink rosebuds, daffodils, and blue delphiniums. Miss Taylor wore a dress of pink satin and net and carried a bouquet of blue delphiniums with pink streamers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jensen and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jensen, went south for the wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore a dark suit with white accessories and corsage of gardenias, the bride's mother, a blue ensemble with navy accessories, and corsage of gardenias.

Following the service, a reception was held in the church parlors. About twenty-five attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are at home at 2027 Pacific street, Bakersfield. The bride has been attending Chico State college, this being her junior year, and has been president of the college riding club and active in Theta Sigma Epsilon sorority. Mr. Jensen is taking his basic training as an army pilot at Gardner field at Taft. He took his pre-cadet training at Chico flying field and his primary instruction at Oxnard.

Business Women's Dinner At Scout Center Thursday

The Eugene Business and Professional Women's club members will assemble at the Girl Scouts center for a dinner on Thursday evening, six-thirty o'clock. This is the monthly social for the group and some motion pictures will be shown.

Mrs. Bruce Nidever, Miss Thelma Neaville, Miss Clara Nasholin, Mrs. Howard McFadgen, members of the bulletin committee, are hostesses for the meeting.

New officers for the Ladies of the Elks are being announced. They include: Mrs. H. P. Johnson, president; Mrs. I. L. Kienzle, vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Walling, secretary; Mrs. May T. Moon, treasurer; Mrs. Harry Ditter, trustee. Retiring officers were: Mrs. Ditter, president; Mrs. Charles E. Hunt, vice-president; Mrs. Larry Roskamp, secretary; Mrs. T. J. Casey, treasurer.

The group held its card party the past week, a potluck luncheon being given in honor of the new officers with the past year's officers as hostesses. Ten tables of cards were in play following the luncheon, Mrs. L. C. DeBurgh as hostess. Honors at auction went to Mrs. Frank Ditter, and Mrs. F. N. McAllister; and at contract, to Mrs. C. A. Mackey and Mrs. C. N. Allen.

For the April 1 meeting, Mrs. Walling and Mrs. George A. Simon will be the card hostesses.

Chapter AM, P.E.O. Sisterhood, announces its meeting for two o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. L. B. Cox, 70 Grandview drive. Dr. Warren D. Smith of the University of Oregon faculty is to be guest speaker.

Members of Chapter H of P.E.O. Sisterhood are meeting Monday evening, home of Mrs. Raymond E. Glass, seven-fifteen o'clock, Mrs. Henry Korf assisting. Mrs. H. C. Dobson will review Banning's "Women for Defense."

Minerva club for Sigma Alpha Epsilon mothers and wives will meet Tuesday afternoon, two-thirty o'clock, home of Mrs. William M. Tugman.

Madreitas club is to be entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. A. L. Hawn at her home, one-thirty o'clock.

Mrs. Daniel to Talk for Newcomers' Club Tea

Featuring the March meeting and tea for the Newcomers' Division, University of Oregon Women's Faculty club, Monday afternoon, will be a talk by Mrs. E. G. Daniel who will display scrapbooks compiled on Europe and England and give comments on them.

The tea will be from three until five o'clock in Alumni hall of the Gerlinger building, the affair honoring all former members of the Newcomers' division. Miss Frances Brobert will provide music.

Mrs. Carl F. Kossack, president of the club last year, will pour. On the serving committee are Mrs. Charles D. Bub, Jr., Mrs. William S. Averill, Mrs. A. L. Soderwall. There will be a nursery for small children accompanying their mothers to the tea.

Looking ahead to April, a large group is jotting April 9 on the calendar with special interest, that date bringing the Matrix Table banquet given each year by Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism honorary society, for a large group of campus and townswomen. The event is staged by Theta Sigma Phi chapters throughout the nation to honor women's achievements in journalism, music, and other arts.

Mrs. H. D. McDonald, known professionally as Lucile Saunders McDonald, is to be the honored guest and speaker for this year's Matrix Table. A graduate of the University of Oregon, Mrs. McDonald is a member of the campus chapter of Theta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. McDonald has had a varied career in journalism, having written for many papers and publications. Traveling with her husband, H. D. McDonald, also former university student, Mrs. McDonald had opportunities for observations in other countries, Turkey, Hungary, Egypt, and various sections of South America as well as Africa and other places. Many of these observations she has woven into her journalism work. At present, Mrs. McDonald is on the staff of the Seattle Times, defying tradition there to be accepted as a member of the usually "100 per cent" male copy desk staff.

Miss Mildred Wilson of Eugene is president of the Theta Sigma Phi chapter this year. General chairman for the banquet is Miss Constance Averill. Other committee workers include Mrs. Gene Leo, Miss Marjorie Major, Miss Marjorie Curtis, Mrs. J. Wesley Sullivan, Miss Jeanne Nichols, Miss Marjorie Robinson, Miss Janet Wagstaff, Miss Carol Greening, Miss Mary Wolf, Miss Mary Ann Campbell, Miss Clarethe Roselund, Miss Barbara Lamb, Miss Virginia Bryant, Miss Patricia Perry, Mrs. Roy Schrick.

The banquet, a formal occasion, will be at the Osburn hotel, six-thirty o'clock, April 9.

Mrs. O. F. Stafford is being welcomed home following three months in the east. She visited at Pitman, New Jersey, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, and while there welcomed a new granddaughter, Julie Hamilton, second child in the Hamilton family, there being a brother, Bobby. Mrs. Stafford also visited with her son, Howard Stafford, who is in the army as instructor at the officers candidate school at Starkville, Mississippi.

Spinsters club members will gather Wednesday evening at the Red Cross rooms to work on surgical dressings. On April 7, the group will meet at the home of Miss Betty Sether for a "white elephant" sale and to welcome new members. Miss Hope Hughes will be assistant hostess for that meeting. The group met the past week with Misses Martha Jane Switzer and Anita Simons as hostesses at the home of the former. At this meeting names for new members were voted on.

Towne Club March Dance Calendared for Saturday

Towne club's March dance is arranged for next Saturday evening, Osburn hotel.

On the committee for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Merle Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pett, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Glassman, Mr. and Mrs. William Van Nuys.

Membership of the Zonta club will gather this morning at the home of Mrs. Eva Collins for brunch at eleven o'clock honoring Miss Helen Yockey, Salem, vice-chairman of the Zonta clubs for district VI, Oregon and Washington, Miss Yockey to make her official visit to the local club at that time.

On Wednesday afternoon, Chapter AY of P.E.O. Sisterhood, will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Pollard, Springfield, dessert at one o'clock.

Wiltshire engraving

MR. AND MRS. FLOYD R. JENSEN

The marriage of Aviation Cadet and Mrs. Floyd R. Jensen (the former Thelma Vanderford) was solemnized March 6 in Bakersfield, Cal. Cadet Jensen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jensen of Eugene.

MISS BETTY JEANNE STOCKER

The engagement of Miss Betty Jeanne Stocker to Darrel R. Adkison was announced recently.

Miss Plinsky, Mr. Lee Wed Thursday Morning

At a simple service held Thursday morning in St. Mary's Catholic church parish house, Miss Patricia Plinsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plinsky, was married to Roger L. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Odin J. Lee. The ceremony was performed at ten o'clock by Rev. Francis P. Leipzig, church pastor, before a small group of family members and friends.

The bride wore a white wool dress with navy accessories, white gloves, and corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Verlyn Wolfe of Seattle was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a rose wool dress with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

William Stevenson was best man.

Following the service, a reception was held at the bride's home. Mrs. Jack Stevens, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Joseph Carroll of Seattle, sister of the bride, Mrs. Jack Flaucher of Cascade Locks, sister of Mr. Lee, and Misses Mary Ellen Stevens and Margaret Carroll assisted at the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee will make their home in Eugene.

Few campus social activities are listed for the new week, the spring term having just begun.

Today, pledging is being held by the sororities.

On Thursday evening will be held the installation banquet for the Associated Women Students at the Kappa Alpha Theta house. Miss Marilyn Campbell is the incoming president.

Several major campus events, given annually each spring, have been dated as follows: April 9, Matrix Table banquet; April 17, Frosh Glee; April 30 and May 1, annual Junior week-end and Mothers' Day week-end; May 8, Mortar Board ball; May 9, junior-senior women's breakfast; May 30, commencement.

The March party for the Star club, Blue River chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will be next Friday afternoon, McKenzie River Masonic temple, dessert to be at one-fifteen o'clock.

Visiting and new members are invited, those attending to take their sewing equipment. Sewing and bridge will follow the dessert.

Mrs. L. S. Ballantyne and Mrs. Samuel H. Tyler are co-chairmen for the afternoon, Mrs. M. W. Belfuss, Mrs. Jack Denner, Mrs. Murnard England, Mrs. Bert J. Griffith, Mrs. W. B. Hilton, Mrs. G. Norman Siefarth, Mrs. E. L. Sundquist, Mrs. J. F. Roadman assisting.

Domestic Art club announces that its luncheon planned for Monday has been postponed until April 5 when it will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanley R. Stevenson.

Mrs. Clarence A. Chase, Mrs. J. R. Jewell, and Mrs. E. A. Lewis will be hostesses with Mrs. Stevenson for the gathering.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Steckmeist, St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, March 17. The baby is a grandchild of Mrs. J. H. Radabaugh of Eugene, and is the second child in the family, the other being a son. Mrs. Steckmeist will be remembered as the former Flossie Radabaugh.

Catholic Daughters of America will hold their March social on Wednesday evening of this week at St. Joseph's hall, eight o'clock. On the committee are Mrs. Jack Stevens, Mrs. Robert Higgins, Miss Pearl Higgins, Miss Elizabeth Callaghan.

Shakespeare club is meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Blaine Hovey, 1176 Mill street, apartment five, Mrs. Ellie R. Knapp to lead the study "Taming of the Shrew."

Beta Sigma Phi members will be entertained Monday evening by Miss Wilhelmina Gerot and Mrs. J. Wilson Hutchison at the home of the former, Miss Wilda Parrish to have charge of the program.

Mrs. Frank L. Armitage is to be hostess to the Sans Souci club next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Reiley was guest of honor at a recent shower given by Mrs. J. F. Lopuson and Mrs. Alex Lopuson at the home of the latter on River Road. The evening was spent socially. Contest prizes were won by Mrs. Francis Celorie and Barbara Hand. Mrs. Reiley received many gifts.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served. Guests invited were: Mrs. J. L. Good, Mrs. C. B. Allen, Mrs. W. E. Watson, Mrs. Francis Celorie, Mrs. H. F. Wells, Mrs. R. Hammond, Mrs. R. J. Hutchison, Mrs. C. B. Price, Miss Barbara Hand, Mrs. Evert Jacobs, Mrs. Evert Gosset, Mrs. F. J. McKee of Portland, Mrs. Etta Willis, Mrs. E. C. Reiley, Mrs. Martha McAlphin, and Mrs. S. W. Larsen, all of Albany.