al agricultural instructor at Eugene high school, is to be the main speaker for the meeting of the high's P-TA Thursday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock, the meeting to be in the faculty lunch room in the basement. Mr. Buchanan's topic will be "Insect Control for Our Victory Gardens." New officers for the P-TA will be elected and installed.

Henry Gates, department commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, will be here from The Dalles next Monday evening to make his official visit to General Lawton camp of Eugene. The meeting will be held at the K. of P. hall and will follow a potluck dinner. Mrs. Lois Butts of Portland, department president of the auxiliary, who was scheduled to visit the local auxiliary, is unable to come on account of serious illness. Members of the Cottage Grove camp and auxiliary have been invited to attend the meeting here.

A new county rock quarry will be opened across the river from Mapleton in a short time. A crusher will be taken there to produce road surfacing material for that portion of the county. Tuesday County Commissioner Allen P. Wheeler, County Engineer P. M. Morse, County Roadmaster Fred Smigley and County Bridge Superintendent Arthur Striker were there to select the site.

L. J. Allen, assistant state club leader, in charge of boys' clubs, and E. A. Danielson, county club leader, visited a number of livestock clubs in the county Wednesday and planned to continue the visits Thursday. Among the clubs on the schedule are those at Loran, Hadleyville, Veneta, Alvadore, Irving, Trent, Pleasant Hill and Goshen.

Mrs. Nellie Moore of Eugene was at Corvallis Sunday to visit relatives and attend the wedding of her niece, Miss Nell Keeney, and Lt. M. M. Burleson. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Moore and sons, Dick and Jack, and Miss Nellie Moore, also of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Moore of Portland were also there for the wedding.

A landslide occurred on Big creek four and a half miles from the Coast highway in the northwestern part of the county last week. It completely blocked the county road and took out a small bridge. A new bridge will be built and some of the dirt and rock will be removed soon, says County Engineer P. M. Morse, who was there Tuesday.

Miss Nellie C. Lyle, county home demonstration agent, was at Row River Wednesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the garden club of that community. A regular home extension unit meeting program was carried out, Miss Lyle discussing the subject of care of new fabrics.

Ray S. Brodson left this weekend for Columbia University to take a special mathematics course to fit him for a deck officer in the U. S. navy. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Brodson and the husband of Ruth Brodson, all of Eugene.

The Lane county public welfare commission will meet in the old postoffice building at 10 a. m. Thursday for its regular monthly session. Old age pensions and other relief work will be considered.

Eugene Chapter No. 10, Royal Arch Masons, will meet for a special convocation at 2 o'clock p. m., Saturday, April 10. At this time Jack H. Murton and Wayne F. Wheeland and other members of the official staff will visit the chapter. A banquet will be served in the assembly room of the Masonic temple at 6 o'clock.

Two Portland boys 15 years old were arrested at Oakridge Tuesday with a stolen car in their possession and are being held here until an officer arrives to take them home.

I SAW—
A young wife with her hair professionally waved, nails polished a brilliant red, a lingering odor of good perfume still about her, a red hunter's hat set at a jaunty angle on her head, boots on her small feet, energetically shoveling fertilizer from a poultry house. —A.B.C.

The people of the Thurston and Springfield union high school districts will vote Thursday afternoon on the proposal to consolidate the two districts. Voting will take place at the Thurston union high school building and at the Springfield public library from 2 to 7 o'clock.

Kenneth Wylie and Merle Chase members of the Chase Gardens school board, called at the office of County Superintendent L. C. Moffitt Tuesday afternoon on business connected with the school in their district. Ralph Johnson, board member at Veneta, was also in the office on business.

Two bicycles were reported stolen Tuesday and one Wednesday morning by Raymond Jungers, 930 Tenth avenue west; Eugene Thiesen, 1032 Third avenue west; and Bruce Mobley, 1215 Patterson. The one belonging to Raymond Junger was recovered.

A special meeting of McKenzie River lodge No. 185, A.F. & A.M., will be held at the fourteenth avenue Masonic temple at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, April 8. The entered apprentice degree will be conferred on candidates.

Ladies of Townsend Club No. 1 auxiliary are arranging a card party at Silver Spray hall Thursday evening from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. A lunch will be served and the public is invited.

Townsend Club No. 1 will give an old time dance Wednesday evening from 9 until 12 o'clock at the Silver Spray hall. Music will be furnished by the Silver Spray band. The public is invited.

Al Rust, former county road supervisor at Junction City, now living at Blachly, returned home Tuesday afternoon from Sacramento, Cal., where he visited his brother, R. R. Rust.
