Crow Grange Lists Seven New Members

CROW—Crow Grange met last week, taking in seven new members. These were Mr. and Mrs. Charley McCulloch, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boehringer, Carl Meer, Elaine Meer, and Ladonna Orloff. One new member was voted in, and applications for two more were received.

The chairman of the H.E. club, Mrs. Bertha Stephens, reported much work being done by that committee, the most evident being the redecoration of the hall, although it is still not finished. The club will meet again for work next Tuesday, and all the ladies are asked to be present. The lunch committee appointed for next meeting consists of Mrs. Betty Hoselton, Mrs. Eathyl Bloom, and Arthur Marten.

The grange voted to give a prize of $5 to the school winning in the recent control contest, the three schools in this district being Crow, Vaughn, and Hadleyville. Mrs. Beatrice Lewis was elected pianist, the former pianist having left the community.

The lecturer, Mrs. Collette, presided over an Arbor Day program, with appropriate songs by the grange, readings by Mrs. Stephens and Mrs. Liles, a discussion on shrubs and trees for the home, and a pruning demonstration by Carl Meer, assisted by R. R. Gibson. This was further discussed by Ray Bower, county fruit inspector, who with Mrs. Bower, were guests from Four Oaks grange. Mr. Bower also talked on the need for help in harvesting the various crops of fruit this year, and urged the grange to organize the school children in preparation for helping when needed. He also gave some information on the storage of apples.

IN THURSTON

THURSTON—Dogs are the topic of conversation at Thurston at the present time among chicken raisers. Two stray dogs, a small and a large one, both with brown markings, have been causing much trouble killing chickens. On one farm bantam chickens were attacked and killed, on another a duck was killed, and on the third farm the dogs entered the chicken yard in broad daylight and killed 26 laying hens before they were stopped.

The Thurston Grange met last week. Mrs. Fred Simmons has been chosen to fill the chaplain's chair as Mrs. Farel McQuinn has resigned due to not being able to attend regularly. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hadley and Mr. and Mrs. Charley Parks were given the first and second degree work. No club meeting was held Thursday because the club members were busy with garden and farm work. The anniversary observance will be held April 24, beginning with a potluck supper at 7:30. All who care to bring their supper and enjoy the evening with the grange members are invited to do so and remain for the program of pictures, music, talks, and readings which is being prepared by the lecturer Mrs. Joe Wick. C. F. Grant, master of the Waterville grange, was a visitor.
