

Catholics Announce Holy Week Events

Holy Week services in St. Mary's Catholic church will commence Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. with Novena in honor of our Lady of Perpetual Help, a sermon by Father Clifford Carroll, S. J., Port Townsend, Wash. and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

High Mass, sung by the choir of St. Mary's high school, will be at 8 a. m. on Holy Thursday. Father Francis P. Leipzig will have charge of the services on Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Father Clifford Carroll will say the mass of the pre-sanctified Friday at 8 a. m. Good Friday afternoon services will consist of the Way of the Cross at 2:30 o'clock.

"The Seven Last Words" will be sung Good Friday at 7:30 p. m. by the adult choir of St. Mary's parish under the direction of Dale Cooley. A sermon on "The Death of Christ" will be delivered by Father Carroll following the Seven Last Words. Good Friday evening services will be completed with the singing of the Tenebrae by Father Francis P. Leipzig, Father Clifford Carroll, and Father Basil, O.S.B. of St. Benedict's Abbey, Mt. Angel, Ore.

Preliminary services will commence at 8:45 a. m. on Holy Saturday, followed by High mass at 8 a. m. Students of St. Mary high school will sing the Mass.

Easter masses will be at 6:30, 8:00, 9:30 and 10:30 a. m. The sermons on Easter Sunday will be given by Father Clifford Carroll and Father Leipzig.

Holy Week Services At Baptist Church

Dr. William G. Everson will speak on "Dwelling in God's House Forever" at the First Baptist church, 7:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening. The service will be the third evening meeting of the Holy Week series, under the auspices of the Eugene Ministerial association. Special music will be a feature.

William M. Lush, chairman of the retail merchants division of the Eugene chamber of commerce, announced Wednesday that retail stores will remain closed until 11 a. m. on Good Friday and employees are urged to attend the Good Friday service being held from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. Dr. Vance Webster, Rev. Harold Aalbuue and Rev. Walter J. Fiscus will conduct a three-hour service which will start at noon.

Woman Stabs Self Because She Nagged Her Husband Too Much

SEATTLE, April 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Isabelle Hoag, 22, told authorities today she got so tired of hearing herself nag her husband she decided to "do him a favor and kill myself."

Taken to a hospital after stabbing herself twice in the chest, Mrs. Hoag told attendants the way she nagged her husband, Riley, a mechanic, was "something terrible."

"Mostly I nagged him about money," she said. Told she would recover, she promised not to try to take her life again, but she added:

"Somebody ought to kick me where it would do the most good."

San Francisco Turns Down Plan To Merge Street Car Companies

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—(AP)—For the second time in less than six months, San Francisco voters have defeated a proposal to consolidate the city's street railways by purchasing the privately-owned Market Street system.

The total semi-official vote in a special election yesterday was: "Yes, 53,441; No, 67,399."

The election was on a revenue bond proposal to buy the Market Street system for $7,950,000. Sponsors included Mayor Angel J. Rossi and the city board of supervisors.

A similar proposal lost last November by a margin of 3,500 votes.

Secret Of RAF 'Can-Openers' Heavy Guns

LONDON, April 21.—(AP)—The secret of the RAF's tank busting airplanes which have earned the name "Can-openers" because of their work in North Africa, was officially revealed today.

The "Can-openers" are Hurricanes designed especially for use against armored vehicles. They carry two 40 mm. guns, one in each wing. The guns are capable of automatic single shot fire with a shell weighing 21½ pounds.

The gun itself, specially designed for aircraft use, weighs only 320 pounds. The plane also carries two 303 Browning machine guns.

OUR YOUNG GENERATION

DENVER — Commando John Armbeck, 9, placed a mattress atop a downtown garage, climbed to the roof of a business building nearby, took a long run and jumped into space.

Hurting 30 feet, he missed the mattress, hit the garage roof and caromed off another 15 feet to the alley pavement.

Physicians treated him for a slight head injury.
