

Rebekah Meeting Event At Grove

COTTAGE GROVE—The Rebekah lodge met Friday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall. The date for homecoming was set for May 14. The program committee is to be Miss Eunice Vandenberg, Mrs. Lucy Bennett, and Mrs. Minnie Sweet. Bert Hatch was received into membership by reinstatement. There will be initiation at the next meeting, April 30. On the refreshment committee are Mrs. Vina Smith, Mrs. Melvie St. Elmo, Mrs. Grace Swearingen, Mrs. Francis Sullivan, Mrs. Ina Stuart, Mrs. Leta Stewart, Mrs. Edith Sanders, Mrs. Sue Turfill, Mrs. Laura Turner, Mrs. Elma Thum, Mrs. May Thies, and Mrs. Esther Trunnell. The committee announced for Past Noble Grand's club, April 29, includes Mrs. Martha Eastman, Mrs. Eva Hatch, Mrs. Addie Halgarth, and Mrs. Millie Hodgson. Following the lodge meeting staff practice was held. The next meeting will be held April 30 at which time the Lorane lodge will bring a candidate for initiation.

A head on collision between a pickup and a sedan occurred Saturday evening about 5:15 o'clock on the River road about three miles east of Cottage Grove. The pickup was being driven by Vernon Harrison Thomas, who was accompanied by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas and his brother, Jean, who was riding in the back of the pickup. Armin Leroy Ward of Dorena, 17 years old, was the driver of the sedan. The sedan was traveling towards Cottage Grove and in making the turn collided with the pickup in the south lane of traffic. The pickup was traveling towards Dorena. Both Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were hurt quite severely. A local doctor rendered first aid and sent them to the Eugene hospital. The cars were badly damaged, the sedan being almost a total loss. The accident was investigated by state patrolman, Harry Nelson, Chief of Police Myron Perry, and Captain Glenn Merrill.

Wednesday Calendar There will be an all day meeting of the London 4-H Mothers club at the old London Springs hotel. There will be a potluck luncheon at the noon hour.

An all day meeting of the Women's Bible class of the Methodist church will be held at the church. Mrs. Anna Wilson will be hostess and the day will be spent in tying a quilt.

From 9:00 to 11:00 a. m. there will be Red Cross surgical dressings classes at the Masonic temple under the direction of Mrs. Clyde Roberts.

From 1:30 to 4:30 there will be Red Cross surgical gauze classes at the Masonic temple.

At 2:00 o'clock the Baptist Ladies Aid will meet at the church with Mrs. Nannie Smith leading the opening exercises.

After school the Girl Scouts will meet at the Jefferson school building with their new leader, Mrs. Grace Cowan.

At 7:30 the Business and Professional Women's club will meet and have election of officers.

At 7:30, The La Mercedi Pont will meet with Mrs. Harold Whitlock for dessert.

At 7:30 the Masons will meet at the Masonic temple.

At 8:00, the Fraternal Order of Eagles will meet at the Eagles hall.

At Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE—Police reported that Edward Aquosta was charged with breaking and entering a private home. His trial is pending.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McHughill of Lorane are the parents of a son, born Saturday, April 17, at the Butler maternity home. The baby has been named Thomas Neil.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil R. Lee are the parents of a son born Friday, April 18, at the McFarland maternity home. The baby has been named Raymond Francis.

Thursday Events The Lions club will meet for a business session and luncheon at the Rainbow cafe.

At 1:30, the Social Twelve club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. F. Hoskins.

At 2:00, Our Bouquet Garden club will meet.

At 7:30, the Elite Bridge club will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred Hammond.

In the evening the A. V. H. Bridge club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bushnell.

IN THURSTON

THURSTON—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Russell of San Francisco, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell at Thurston. They left Sunday for their home. Mr. Russell is a navy ensign, stationed at Treasure Island. Other guests at the Russell home to see Mr. and Mrs. Ben Russell were Mr. and Mrs. Carey Thomson and family of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont Russell and family of Brooks, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gustafsen and family of Eugene. A family reunion was held Sunday with all of the Russell children home except Mrs. Lynn Endicott who lives in California and could not be here.

April 24 is the date set for the sixth annual observance of the organizing of the Thurston grange. Mrs. Joe Wicks will be in charge of the evening's entertainment, which will include pictures, music readings, and talks by different visitors and members. The evening will start with a potluck supper at 7:30 and all who wish to do so are invited to bring their supper and spend the evening with the grange and its members. The affair is open to the public.

Many Visitors On River For Fishing

VIDA — Guests at Thomson's lodge for the opening of the fishing season included: G. C. Niven and W. S. Hook of Los Angeles, Ralph Brown, Alfred Eames, A. Bankus, Ferdinand C. Smith, G. W. Swigert, Mr. Dowling, all of San Francisco; Spencer Biddle of Vancouver; Blain Hallock of Baker; C. E. Miller of Warrenton; Dan Miller of New York; David Honeyman, E. W. Swigert, of Portland. All of the guests fished from boats and very good catches were reported. Some of the fishermen just fished the first two days and the others are spending a week at the lodge. Employed at the lodge this season are Mrs. Walter Mahen and Mrs. Jeanne Mattison. All of the McKenzie river guides were boating over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Waldon C. Keller are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son, born April 15 at the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodpasture are also receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, born April 17, at the Sacred Heart hospital.

Grangers Hear Various Reports

WILLAKENZIE — The Willakenzie grange met Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Vincent were given the obligation in the third and fourth degrees of the order and are now members of the grange. Mrs. Bart Nevers, chairman of the Home Economics club announced that Mr. and Mrs. John Walls had decorated the hall and that Mrs. Anna Carstedt would decorate the next time. The refreshment committee for the next meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Forester, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Walls, Mrs. Gyneth Olson, and Harold Olson. Scott Clevenger reporting for the agriculture committee said that the crops in general were coming along good, and that control of pests is pretty well covered in government bulletins. The scout committee reported that John Moore who has served as master of the scout troop for several years wished to resign as soon as a new scoutmaster could be obtained. The cub scout committee stated that Kenneth Wells, the Boy Scout executive, informed them that they would have to have a meeting with him before a cub scoutmaster could be selected. Clarence Hoyer reported briefly on the "National Farmers Relations Act." A motion was made and carried that the Willakenzie grange did not approve of this bill. A motion was also made that the juvenile grange be revitalized. This motion carried, and on Thursday night at 8 o'clock Mrs. Kenneth Kienzie, Mrs. George Saunders and Carl Rutherford are in charge of a party at the grange hall for all children of the community between the ages of 5 and 14 who would like to become members of the juvenile organization. The juveniles will take part in the state grange activities when that convention is held in Eugene early in June. Mrs. Kienzie was elected to be matron of the juveniles. Mr. Clevenger also announced that the WPB has assured there will be plenty of jar lids and rubbers for canning this year. Also that there have been 150,000 pressure cookers manufactured for the same purpose. The program following the grange meeting consisted of a talk on the legislature by one of its members, Truman A. Chase. The Home Economics committee sponsored a flower arrangement display and this was judged by Elmo Chase. The program at the next meeting will be in charge of the Home Economics club. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served in the dining hall by Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Chase, Mrs. Lillie Hayes, Wayne Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blachley, and Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Allumbaugh.

Meeting Thursday

The Willakenzie Thimble club will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna Carstedt.

At a meeting of the Busy Bee Cooking club held at their leader's on Saturday, arrangements were made for the entertaining of their mothers on May 1. After the business meeting Mrs. C. N. Jensen and Marjorie Jensen sampled pieces of cake and nut breads brought by the girls for that purpose. They told them the good and bad points and gave them some pointers in cake and bread baking.

PLAN EASTER EVENTS

WALTERVILLE — Easter observance at the Walterville Presbyterian church April 23 will be in charge with the Sunrise service at the church auditorium with the Christian Endeavor young people in charge and this will be followed by the Easter breakfast which will be served in the social room of the church. The Sunday school hour will include a short Easter observance with the children taking a part in the special work for the morning.

A short Easter program will be given by the primary class at the Community church next Sunday morning with Mrs. Orville Rankins, teacher, in charge of the class activities. The program will be held at the Sunday school hour.

California is known as the Eldorado State.

Election Reported By Community Club

LEABURG — The Community club met last night for its last event of the current season. Election of officers was held, during which the following were named: Mrs. Merrill Morris, president and Lee Fountain, vice-president. Mrs. Arthur Hyne and Mrs. Wesley Hansen re-elected as secretary and treasurer, respectively. The retiring president and vice-president are Mrs. Earle Middleton and Mrs. W. E. Mills.

The pieced quilt top which had recently been presented to the club by Mrs. Walter Carter was awarded to Mrs. Harry Moore.

The entertainment committee, composed of Mrs. Lee Fountain, Mrs. Wesley Hansen, Mrs. Marion Elston and Mrs. Merrill Morris presented a program of varied entertainment. Mrs. Louise Langfelt played several accordion solos. Kathryn and Betty Christian sang vocal duets. Bernice Elston entertained with clarinet solos. Mrs. Wesley Hansen was accompanist for all musical numbers, and also accompanied the women's chorus in the musical numbers of the presentation "The Photo Album." Singers in the chorus included Mrs. Helen Billings, soloist, Mrs. Marion Elston, Mrs. Arthur Hyne, Mrs. Lee Fountain, Mrs. Edna Carter, Mrs. Della Lansberry and Mrs. Milo Smith. Those taking part in the various scenes of "The Photo Album" were Gloria Waterman, Doris Mills, Diane Ray, Patricia Smith, Betty Christian, Bernice Elston, Leslie Ray, Betty Billings, Clementine Moore, Kathryn Christian, Carley Gillespie, Barbara Perry and Dorothy Elston. Mrs. W. E. Mills was narrator. Mrs. Milo Smith and Mrs. Merrill Morris assisted backstage.

Also presented was a short comedy entitled "The Arkansas Travelers" in which the following took part: Mrs. Ella Lombard, Mrs. Merrill Morris, Mrs. Arthur Hyne, Mrs. Marion Elston, Mrs. W. E. Mills, Mrs. Lee Fountain and Mrs. Louise Langfelt.

For Home Nursing

Mrs. J. A. Barfoot, Red Cross home nursing leader, requests that all members of the home nursing class who wish to make themselves a Red Cross home nursing pinafore sign up at Roy H. Payne's store. She will purchase the material in quantity and a meeting date will be announced later. Most class members have already received their pins.

Ladies' Aid will meet April 22 at the home of Mrs. Walter Carter.

Easter services will be conducted Sunday at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. R. E. Clark. A special Easter program is planned.

VARIETY FOR TOTS

Here's a story-book charm in a versatile style for tots. First made up Anne Adams Pattern 4387 as a dainty party frock, with flared sleeves and a square neckline. Then sew another version, using up remnants to make a contrasting collar, puff sleeves, yoke and hemband.

Pattern 4387 is available only in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 takes 1 1/2 yards 35-inch fabric and 2 1/2 yards ric-rac.

Send SIXTEEN CENTS in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS, STYLE NUMBER.

TEN CENTS more brings you our Spring Pattern Book with its easy-to-make styles for everyone. Send your order to Register- and Pattern Numbers may take longer than usual because of the heavy volume of mail.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail four coins or stamps larger than 3c denominations with your order. Be sure to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Numbers and Sizes are written plainly and enclosed with you.

PLEASE DO... Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

by Anne Adams

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

4387

Date Announced For P-TA Supper

DEERHORN—May 7 is the date announced by the committee in charge of the Parent-Teacher association's dinner to raise funds for the spring expenses of the society. Mrs. Carrol Fountain and Mrs. Lovell Stanley are making the arrangements for the soliciting of food and the serving. The menu will include chicken and noodles. The prices will be announced later. A free program will be in charge of Mrs. Bill Goodale and will be presented in the evening after the dinner. The proceeds of the food sale which has been held for the past several years have been used to send a girl and boy to the Four-H summer school at Corvallis and to furnish ice cream for the community picnic.

Fishing season opened with the local sportsmen enthusiastic about the clear water and warm sun. Several fair catches were made by noon. Many loggers have been working nine hours a day for the past eight days in order to lay off work for the first day of fishing season, yet not lose any time on the job.

Wild geese have been heard going north recently, indication of real spring.

On Tuesday afternoon of this week, Mrs. Eaton Bradley will be hostess to the Dorcas sewing circle.

Allen Coleman cut his foot badly while at work this week in the logging woods in the upper valley.

Glee Clubs Give Program At Westfir

WESTFIR — The pupils of the Westfir grade school from the sixth grade and up, composing the boys' and girls' glee club under the direction of Miss Margaret Leum, appeared in concert April 16 at the Westfir Community hall. Mrs. Veloris Baxter and Miss M. Leum accompanied. The program was a benefit for the USO and the numbers were as follows: Stars Spangled Banner, by chorus; solo by Miss Leum; Songs America Loves—Old Black Joe, My Old Kentucky Home, Old Folks at Home, O Susanna, by girls' chorus; religious music, Faith of Our Fathers, Holy Holy Holy, But the Lord is Mindful of His Own, girls' chorus; piano solo, by Barbara Rieher of Oakridge; negro music, Kentucky Babe, Deep River, Swing Low Sweet Chariot, girls' chorus; old favorites—Little Old Lady, Italy Street Fair, Rollo Rolling Along, Moonlight on the Eldorado; trio, by Bonnie Stock, Floretta Eshom and Marie Harris; piano solo, by Bonnie Stock; piano solo, Fay Arthur; numbers by the mixed chorus—There's a Star-Spangled Banner Waving Somewhere, The Army Air Corps, The Yankee Doodle Boy; solo by Mary Varrelman; Mary's a Grand Old Name, Song of the Seabees, World War songs, Long Long Trail, Goodbye Broadway Hello France; duet, My Buddy, by Marie Harris and Daniel Rehwall; Over There, My Rosary for You; Solo, Miss M. Leum; Anchors Aweigh, The Battle Song of Liberty, all USO songs. Ushers were Barbara Rieher and Velma Cline.

At Noti

NOTI—Work on the new tower for the observation post has been started. Peter Schmitz gave the piece of ground where the tower is to be built. Louis Rankins is in charge of the work. P. F. C. Ivan Ravencroft of Eugene visited the post last week and inspected the site for the new post.

Mrs. John E. Fox, as Red Cross supervisor, and Mrs. Al Pilon, Mrs. Dick Spencer and Mrs. Earl Shankle attended classes in Eugene recently for bandage making. The Red Cross group here will help with that work when those leaders have completed their training.

The Christian Endeavor group is now meeting at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoons for a recreational period under the supervision of John Stone. Their regular evening meeting is at 7 o'clock Sundays.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

LORANE — The Ugo Igo club met Friday with Mrs. Candis Foster, Mrs. Nellie Snyder, Mrs. Blanche Circle and Mrs. Ella Schneider were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Nancy Hughes was a visitor. Gifts were presented the outgoing officers, Mrs. Gladys Lynch and Mrs. Edith Dunn. Mrs. Wilma Stagers won the prize for the best decorated Easter egg. Mrs. Alice Warnock and Ethel Lynch were appointed on the sunshine committee; Nettie Moore and Edith Dunn were appointed on the membership committee. The next meeting will be May 21, with Edith Dunn.

The Home Extension unit will meet April 23 with Mrs. Eva Hayes for a 12:30 dessert luncheon. The lesson will be on lending, conducted by Mrs. George Lynch and Mrs. Dolph Dillon.

MEETING THURSDAY

COBURG—Past Noble Grand's club will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Hurd, Mrs. James Green assisting.

EXPECT GOOD FRUIT CROP

The recent spell of mild sunny weather during blossoming season presages a good fruit season, and has started grass and field crops to growing by leaps and bounds.

The Mediterranean Sea was so called by the ancient Latins because they believed it to be "the middle of the earth."

