 American Legion
 Knights of Pythias hall.
 Marjorie Hyde, daughter of Mrs. M. Thompson, Eugene, has been called to active duty in the WAAC. She left this morning for Portland and will soon be transferred to Camp Ogle-thorp, where she will take basic training. Her husband, A. Hyde, is serving with the U.S. navy overseas.

Recently discharged military service, as well as graduates of 1943 law school graduate classes, will be offered an opportunity to obtain government positions by participating in special attorney examination held by the board of legal education of the U. S. civil service commission on June 12. Applicants must be on file with the board, D. C. office of the commission by May 31. The examination will be held at the Eugene office. Information on the jobs,
