

Home Economics Club Works at Hall

CRESWELL — The regular meeting of the Home Economics club was held Tuesday afternoon at the Creswell Grange hall with Mrs. David Francis, Mrs. Alice Taylor, and Mrs. Charles Wetzel as hostesses. Several members vandered the benches of the lodge room in the early afternoon. Mrs. C. I. Kent presided at the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. J. R. Miller. Under committee reports suggestions for income were made by members of the ways and means committee. Members were reminded to exhibit American flags on African Victory day. Mrs. Clara Doty resigned as treasurer and Mrs. R. F. Scott was elected to fill the unexpired term. Plans were made to attend Pomona Grange at Cottage Grove on Saturday. The roll call was "canned" for defense and several bulletins were distributed. A social time followed the business meeting and refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those serving at the next meeting are Mrs. H. A. Howe, Mrs. Doty, and Mrs. George Straton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Walker entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Cpl. Clyde Davidson who is here on a furlough from three years service in Alaska. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Davidson of Delight Valley, parents of Corporal Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Walker of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Varnon of Los Angeles, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Varnon and two children, C. D. Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lyons and daughter Zeda Beth, Mr. and Mrs. George Marquart and daughter Carol, Miles Marquart, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Walker and the honor guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Skaggs were called to Portland Sunday night by the illness of his mother. Parents Meeting

The last meeting of the Parents club of the high school will be held at the high school building Friday of this week at 3 p. m. Officers for next year will be elected.

Mrs. H. L. Stott and nephew, Delmer Jackson, Seneca, Ore., visited Monday with Mrs. Stott's daughter, Mrs. Harold Plank, and family at Willamette City near Oakridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miller left Tuesday for Portland where they will visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carl Ecker and family. Mr. Miller will also attend the grand lodge of the IOOF as a delegate from the local order.

Marvin Kerr, fireman 1c, left Sunday for the naval base at Bremerton after spending a 21-day furlough at his home here and with relatives in neighboring communities.

Richard Goheen and Janis Everson were chosen king and queen, respectively, of the recent tin can salvage drive of the grade school. A total of 7462 cans was collected.

Cloverdale School Holds Graduation

CLOVERDALE — The first eighth grade graduating exercise to be held at Cloverdale, district 2, since 1914, was held Friday evening at the Community hall. The procession, "Soldiers of the Starry Flag," was played by Lela Ott, Edith Rogers and Jessie Wood of the fifth, fourth, and third grades respectively. Leading the procession was Mrs. Mallie Kabler, teacher, followed by L. C. Moffitt, county superintendent, Rev. Floyd E. Dorris, pastor Presbyterian church at Creswell, and the graduating class, who include: Phyllis Garratt and Virgie Wood of district 2, and James Shoop of Bear Creek district, Riley Petty, chairman of Bear Creek district, and Glenn H. Rogers, chairman of Cloverdale district. Rev. Mr. Dorris offered the invocation. The school song, "Sailing," the class history was read by Phyllis Garratt. James Shoop attended school in Ohio and California before coming to Bear Creek in the fall of 1942. Virgie Wood attended school 2, Arkansas and Santa Clara, Lane county, before coming to Cloverdale in 1941. Phyllis Garratt, who is only 12 years old, was born at Cloverdale, and went to school here seven years, earning her diploma in that time. Virgie and Phyllis played a piano duet. Superintendent Moffitt delivered the address on personality. Chairman Glenn H. Rogers addressed the class and presented diplomas to Virgie and Phyllis. Chairman Riley Petty presented James' diploma. Rev. Mr. Dorris pronounced the benediction.

Robert J. Moore

ELMIRA — Robert J. Moore, 84, died at his home here Wednesday. Born Jan. 16, 1859, in Illinois, he came to Oregon in 1881, and was married at Summer Lake, Ore., in 1884. His wife died in 1936. Mr. Moore was a charter member of the IOOF lodge at Elmira, a member of the Elmira grange and the Christian church.

He is survived by one son, Bryan Moore of Elmira, and five daughters: Mrs. Charles M. Moore of Elmira; Mrs. William Currier, Paisley; Mrs. F. H. Price and Mrs. Ben I. Harrington, both of Noti and Mrs. F. D. Harrington, Linslaw; 18 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; three brothers, George and J. J. Moore of Elmira and Jacob Moore of Bellingham, Wn.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the Poole chapel, Rev. Hartzell Cobbs officiating. The IOOF lodge will have charge of the graveside service at the Inman cemetery.

COTTAGE GROVE — Mrs. Vera Lathrop MacKenzie is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mae Barton, who is living in Cottage Grove. Mrs. MacKenzie's home is in Alaska. She will return there after a summer visit.

Cannery Equipment At Florence Sold

FLORENCE — Mrs. George A. Watt has announced the sale of the Watts' cannery equipment at Cushman to Z. M. Cox of Eugene. The cannery was started several years ago by Mrs. Watt's husband who left in 1941 to accept a position with a rubber company in Buffalo, New York. The plant was equipped to can meat products. The new owner has plans to build a cannery for custom canning in connection with his Dainty Products business now in operation. Mrs. Watt and children, who have resided in Florence the past several months, will join Mr. Watt in the south after school closes.

A traveling examiner of operators and chauffeurs will be in Florence Friday, May 26, and will be on duty at the city hall between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 noon. The speaker, whom the chamber of commerce had engaged for this week-end, has been unable to appear, and the program has been canceled.

Lodge Meets

The second degree was conferred on two members, Merle Crump and Ross Smith, when the Hecla Lodge, IOOF met recently. The next meeting will convene at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, May 27, after which the members will visit Maple lodge at Mapleton.

Miss Evelyn Pittman, who teaches school at Perrydale, visited friends and relatives at Florence and Westlake recently.

Business houses in Florence closed at noon Wednesday in observance of African Victory day.

Mrs. L. L. Kottke and youngest son, Dennis, have been visiting her eldest son, Bert, stationed with the cavalry at Fort Bliss, Texas. On the return trip they also visited Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Bartlett at Oriand, California.

George Montgomery, aged 79 years, died at his Houlton home last Tuesday, according to word received here. He was born at Elmira, November 15, 1864 and had lived at Cushman, until moving to Houlton, 15 years ago.

He married Fannie Hewitt, a sister of Fred Hewitt, who preceded him in death.

Surviving him are his daughter, Mrs. William Day; a sister, and a brother.

Extension Unit Has Final Meeting

NOTI — The Home Extension unit met recently at the Christian church annex. Miss Nellie Lyle, county agent, was there to conduct a sewing machine clinic. This was the last meeting until fall.

The seventh and eighth grades at Noti school surprised their teacher, Mrs. Enod Sheepon, with a party Thursday evening. The evening was spent playing games and refreshments were served. Later they presented her with a gift.

Mr. and Mrs. George Suttle and baby of Seattle are spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Suttle.

Bob Paxton, of Farragut, Idaho, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Paxton.

Dick Barnes left this week for Fort Lewis, Wn., where he reports for duty in U. S. army.

CUTWORK CHAIR SET

A novel design for a chair set! Do the graceful cluster of tulips in cutwork (simple buttonhole stitch, without bars) or in plain embroidery. Use natural colors for a vivid effect. Pattern 591 contains a transfer of a 12 x 15 inch chair back and two 6 1/2 x 9 inch motifs for arm rests; illustration of stitches; list of materials required.

Send ELEVEN CENTS in coins for this pattern to Register-Guard Needlecraft Dept. Write plainly PATTERN NUMBER, your NAME and ADDRESS. Delivery of patterns may take longer than usual because of the heavy volume of mail.

PLEASE DON'T... Mail loose coins or stamps larger than 2c denominations with pattern orders, the more to see that your Name, Address and Pattern Number and class are written plainly and enclosed with order.

PLEASE DO... Use stamps or money order if possible, or if you must use coins, wrap securely and fasten down with sticker tape. See that your envelope is sealed tightly.

Veterans Plan for Annual Poppy Sale

COTTAGE GROVE — The Cottage Grove post No. 3473, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold their regular buddy poppy sale on Saturday May 29. Homer Allen, chairman of the poppy sale, is busy getting the sales force organized so that every one will have an opportunity to purchase a buddy poppy. Mr. Allen has served as chairman in the past, and thanks residents of Cottage Grove and vicinity for their cooperation and assistance in the past and points to the program of help carried on with returns from the sale.

The annual homecoming of the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows was held recently at the IOOF hall. There was group singing. Greetings were given by Rosa Lewis and the response was given by the Odd Fellows lodge. Mrs. Ellen Berton of Eugene, the only living charter member of the lodge, was presented with a corsage. A solo was given by Esther Trunnell. A reading was given by Mrs. Anna Petrie. There were roll call and reading of cards. There was a presentation of jewelry by Ina Stewart and Robert St. Elmo to George Sweet who has been a member for 27 years, and he was given a 25 year jewel. Mrs. Minnie Sweet was presented with a 35-year jewel. Mrs. Fannie Goude gave a harmonica number. Refreshments were served in the dining room by the Rebekah and Odd Fellows committee. Several piano numbers were given by Mrs. Ralston. After refreshments the evening was spent socially and in dancing.

The Oregon state guard drill unit met Tuesday evening at the armory. Lt. Leonard Thies gave the boys some instruction and pointers in maneuvers. Major Lombard made a trip to Creswell Tuesday evening for inspection of Co. D, 16th Battalion. There will be a parade Sunday for Memorial day. The assembly will be at 10:30, in the armory.

The Eagles Auxiliary met Tuesday evening at the Eagles hall. Guests from Eugene numbered 22. The Eugene auxiliary presented the Cottage Grove auxiliary with a birthday cake, and also performed initiation for two new candidates. There was a short program and refreshments were served to 60 some persons.

Scouts Meet

The Girl Scouts met Wednesday evening after school at the Jefferson schoolhouse. The girls were divided into three troops with each troop entertaining the others with plays, dramatization, and games. The next meeting will be Wednesday after school at the Jefferson school building. There will be a potluck supper and it will be the last meeting until next school term or until other arrangements are made.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft met for their social evening at the apartment of Mrs. Horace Hatch, Tuesday evening. Mrs. C. J. Kem was assistant hostess. The evening was spent with bridge. Guests were Mrs. Palmer Johnson, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Mrs. George McQueen, Mrs. Normand Blackmore, and Mrs. Merle Porter.

The Boy Scouts met Tuesday evening on a changed schedule because of the Creswell troop visiting the Cottage Grove troop at the armory. There were 30 visitors including the two leaders. After the regular ceremony the group was invited to the home of Joe Crick, one of the scoutmasters. They played games and refreshments were served.

Church Service On Sunday Called Off

LEABURG — On account of May 23 being the date of the bacchalaureate in Springfield, there will be no church service in Leaburg that evening. Rev. R. E. Clark has sent word that he will be present the evening of May 30 for evening service and holy communion.

Springfield high school announces May 27 the date for the graduation exercises. Leaburg residents in the graduating class are Dorothy Elston, Harold Smith, Darwin Waterman, and Clifton Christian.

Mrs. Inez Brown and son, Bob, of Salem, and a friend, are visiting Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. J. W. Elston, and the Marion and Francis Elston families this week.

Miss Hazel Oldfield is at home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Oldfield. She has been teaching this past year in the high school at Vale, in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barfoot and family are moving this week to their own home on the old road which has been undergoing extensive remodeling the past few months. This was the former home of Mrs. J. W. Elston.

CEMETERY WORK

CRESWELL — E. A. Schwegler, chairman of the board of trustees of the Creswell Cemetery association, has sent out a notice to lot owners that owing to a shortage of labor it will be impossible to secure help for the annual clean-up at the cemetery for Memorial day and is asking the co-operation of lot owners in the work. He is asking them to clean up their own lots and alleys adjoining, also the neglected areas.

Most potent of all acquired causes of motion or air sickness are the sight, sound and smell of sickness in others; the memory of previous attacks of motion-nausea; and the expectation of illness.

Program On Drying Foods Set Monday

DEERHORN — Monday evening, May 24, at 7 o'clock, Miss Nellie Lyle, county home demonstration agent will be at the Deerhorn schoolhouse. Both men and women of the community have been invited to attend this demonstration of the dehydration of fruits and vegetables. The meeting has been scheduled for the evening so that the men of the surrounding communities, as well as the local neighborhood may inspect the dryer that Miss Lyle will exhibit. This is a project sponsored by the neighborhood leaders of the valley who contacted the families in their groups following the last meeting led by E. A. Danielson at the schoolhouse.

Everyone is welcome to attend the annual achievement day at the schoolhouse on Friday of this week when the Four-H club work done during the year will be on display and awards will be made to the members who have finished their required projects. The program begins at 2 o'clock.

Graduation exercises have been announced by the class of eighth grade at the Deerhorn schoolhouse on May 27 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The Waverly school will join with the Deerhorn school and diplomas will be presented to the two graduates from the neighboring school as well as to the five graduates from Deerhorn. The public is invited to attend.

The White Elephant club will meet Wednesday, May 26, at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Koozer for the May meeting. Work will be done on a convalescent robe for the Red Cross society and on a cover for the cot at the observation post. Both are already under construction.

Lieutenant Wilbur Dehne, Mrs. Dehne and their son Carl have arrived at the Emmerich home for a short visit, during a five-day furlough granted Lieutenant Dehne upon completion of his course in aviation at various bases of the army air corps. Mrs. Dehne and the baby plan to remain for a time in Lane county visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan and other relatives, while her husband will return the latter part of the week to southern California.

Mt. Vernon P-TA Installs Officers

MT. VERNON — The last meeting of the Mt. Vernon P-TA was held Friday night, starting with a potluck supper which was attended by a large crowd. Reports by committee chairmen indicated a successful year. Miss Vale from the health department was present to explain the summer round-up project. Lucile Vitus was appointed chairman of the pageant in the Mt. Vernon District. Other visitors were Mrs. Clayton of Salt Lake City, Mrs. Nathan Chaffee, the county president, and Mrs. Pierson, county president-elect. Jack Ott represented the upper grade room and Maurice Cook the lower room in presenting Mrs. Lewis, the hot lunch cook, with a lamp in appreciation of the lunches she has cooked for them. The P-TA will furnish ice cream for the picnic, with picnic supper, so all fathers may be present.

The new officers for next year installed by Mrs. Nathan Chaffee as follows: Mrs. Willis Smith, president; Mrs. Myrtle Van Cleave, vice-president; Mrs. D. E. Ritchie, secretary, and Mrs. Hazel Rorabaugh, treasurer.

The program was given by the children. The play entitled "Mother's Substitute," was written by Mrs. Giscler and presented by the fourth grade. The girls had sewing and baking things on display. Henry Smith represented the boys by giving a talk on the model airplanes, battleships, subs, destroyers and jeeps. One model airplane was made by Lois Shaw.

Dr. George A. Simon of Eugene gave a talk on his travel through India, at the close of the program. More than 760 quarts of fruit or vegetables have been pledged to be canned by the mothers for next year, with more jars to be bought to try and make it 1000 quarts.

Mrs. Mary E. Gates

VENETA — Mrs. Mary E. Gates, 87, of Veneta died in Eugene Wednesday. She was born in Yreka, Calif., Dec. 23, 1855, and came to this community with her parents at the age of two.

Survivors include four sons, Thomas and Henry Gates of Eugene, Daniel, Crow Stage Route, and Charles of San Luis Obispo, Calif.; seven daughters, Mrs. Pearl Weisbeck, Veneta; Mrs. Belle Smith, Route 5, Eugene; Mrs. Maggie Bowman, Eugene; Mrs. Etta Fisk, Junction City; Mrs. Eva Hartwig, Gervais; Mrs. Frances Watkins of Seattle, and Mrs. Annie Pullman of Bremerton, Wash.

Also a half-sister, Mrs. Sarah Helenway, Eugene; 33 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild and numerous nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be held Saturday at 1:30 p. m. in the Gates cemetery, Rev. Walter J. Ficus officiating. The Branstetter-Simon chapel is in charge.

GOES TO NAVY

CRESWELL — Keith Roger Browns, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Browns of Creswell, left Tuesday night for San Diego, Calif., to enter naval training. Keith enlisted in the naval reserve in October and has attended the University of Oregon this year, having graduated from the Creswell high school with the class of 1942.

