Mackinac Meeting Courageous-Snell

SALEM — (AP)—The Republican post-war advisory committee, which met at Mackinac Island, Mich., last week, adopted "a very courageous, forward-looking statement of policies and principles," Governor Earl Snell said on his return to Salem from the meeting.

The governor was out of the state 10 days. He will leave late this week for Denver, where western governors will discuss railroad freight rates.

"Aside from all-out contribution in the winning of the war at the earliest possible date," the governor continued, "the republican committee adopted an affirmative position in connection with the much-discussed question of post-war participation by the United States in a world organization looking to permanent peace, realizing, of course, the importance of maintaining the sovereignty of the United States."

"Another resolution dealing with the domestic issues stressed the fact that we must also win liberty at home. Otherwise, we shall experience defeat."

Daring Visit Made By Two Yank Officers

WITH GEN. DWIGHT EISENHOWER AT AN ADVANCED ALLIED COMMAND POST, Sept. 17.—(Delayed)—It was disclosed today that two high-ranking American officers made a daring visit to Rome under the eyes of the Germans only a few hours before our invasion of Salerno and returned safely after conferring with Marshal Pietro Badoglio and Italian military commanders.

The two officers went into the Italian capital wearing American army uniforms, minus caps, and spent 20 hours in the most important military discussions. Most of the time they travelled in a car, frequently passing within a few feet of German soldiers.

The exact nature of their mission was not disclosed. They obtained vital information which has affected the whole course of events since the Italian armistice announcement.
