

ive Saves
s. Airmen

ADALCANAL — (AP)—Five army airmen owed their lives today to a South Sea island native named Moa, a brawny, thick chested Melanesian who dove down 20 feet to the sunken wreckage of their Mitchell B-25 medium bomber and salvaged a 10 pound portable transmitter with which the fliers sent signals for help.

While on a bombing mission over Bougainville island in the northern Solomons, the fliers were forced down near a small island. The two enlisted men were ordered to bail out and the three officers rode the plane in for a crash landing 250 feet offshore.

Waite, who landed a mile inland in the midst of thick jungle, joined the others after a four-day struggle through the dense underbrush.

On the fifth day Moa salvaged the emergency transmitter. Signals by Waite brought a navy Catalina flying boat to them on the eighth day. Following a celebration staged by the natives that night, the flying boat took off the next day to return the five men to Guadalcanal.

NEW FIELD

CHICAGO—William B. Johnson, secretary of a scavenger association, asked for women to man garbage trucks. Forty husky applicants appeared.

"I had no idea we could get women to apply," Johnson said.
"since we admitted that the odor clings for days and they will probably lose all their boy friends."
