

Parents Club Sets Meeting at Creswell

CRESWELL—The first meeting of the Parents club of the high school for this year will be held at the high school building Friday afternoon of this week at 2:30. All members are urged to be present and to bring others who might be interested.

Mrs. E. H. Heaton will entertain the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home Thursday afternoon of this week. Mrs. David Francis is the leader of the lesson on "The Church and America's People" in keeping with the national missionary theme for 1943 and 1944.

Machinists mate 2nd class, Marvin Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kerr, is home for a ten day furlough from Bremerton. He was accompanied by Chester L. Wilfong, navy man with the same rating as Marvin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Rose and daughter Betty of Portland spent the week-end at their home here.

Birthday Party
The 84th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Minnie Smith was observed at a birthday dinner given by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. McDonald, at the home of her son, J. E. Smith and wife Sunday. Those present were a son, Leigh Smith and wife, their son, Junior, daughter Edith, of Eugene and a son, Raymond, of the navy stationed at Farragut, Idaho, another son, Clyde Smith, and wife of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and daughter, Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Smith and Mrs. Minnie Smith.

Wayne Lytle was home from the navy base at Bremerton, Wn., for the week-end. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lytle.

Ralph Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Black, navy man and wife, was home on a week-end furlough.

Miss Doretha Stott, who has been employed in Portland for the past few years, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stott, prior to leaving for Alaska where she will be employed in office work at Juneau.

A committee consisting of R. E. Wright, H. A. Howe, B. Vaughan, Robert Eastering, Don Kabler, and E. D. Grousbek will serve refreshments at the regular meeting of Creswell Grange Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Brandt have moved to Portland where Mrs. Brandt is teaching school. The C. Walding family have moved into Mrs. Dora Martin's house on west Oregon avenue vacated by the Brandts and Mr. and Mrs. Eastering Sr. have occupied the house vacated by the Walding family. They purchased the place some time ago.

Properties Sold; Residences Moved

YONCALLA—Melvin Howard and Wilbur Briner are building a house on the old livery stable lot for Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Walk-inshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bradford who recently sold their place in Shoestring to Mr. and Mrs. Bean, bought a small place near Cottage Grove on the Black Butte route.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Langdon bought Norman Bradford's place in Shoestring.

Mr. and Mrs. Houser and family moved from the Wittmeyer place to the Frank Bradford place in Shoestring.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marsters moved to Roseburg.

Avery Laswell bought the old drug store building. He will put in an office for the Kruse Lumber company.

Build Addition
Mr. and Mrs. Ira Vian are building an addition on their house and are putting shingles over the rustic on the old part of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. James Derris and family moved to the Turpin house vacated several months ago by Mrs. Edith Bowman. They are living on Dr. Titus place.

Mr. and Mrs. Coder and family of Klamath Falls bought the Gant place in Rice Valley.

Mrs. White and Mr. and Mrs. Pickett and family bought the Bud Cellars place. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dutcher returned to South Dakota. Mrs. White and the Pickett family are from San Bernardino, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Mittan and family of Nebraska and Mr. and Mrs. Hackler and family moved in the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Elton Grass.

Paul Rychard enjoyed a party recently in honor of his fifth birthday.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

YONCALLA—Mrs. Norman Workman, Mrs. Jim Howard, and Mrs. Fred Kruse were hostesses to a surprise party recently, honoring the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Kruse. Many gifts were presented to the honored couple. Visiting was enjoyed after which a lunch was served to friends and relatives present. The only ones present at the party who attended the wedding 50 years ago were, Charles Applegate and Mrs. Henry McDougal.

FUNERAL HELD

YONCALLA—Funeral services were held here Thursday afternoon for Frederick Taylor, a former resident of Yoncalla. The services were conducted by Rev. Fred Hunt, Methodist minister. James Whipple of Drain sang. The pall bearers were E. T. Stenseth, H. L. Stonaker, William Castor, Ed Kelso, George Edes, and Albert Cokeram. Interment took place in the Yoncalla cemetery.

Cranberry Picking Begins At Lake

FLORENCE—Cranberry picking has begun on the Sutton lake bogs with Mrs. Eva Hines in charge of the harvest this year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snidow are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Snidow, Sr. George recently was graduated from the Farragut naval training station and his wife is employed in Portland.

Students of the Florence grade school third grade threw bottles into the Siuslaw river Monday afternoon, in which they had put notes, hoping to receive answers. Mrs. Lyle McKnight is the teacher.

Col. Ed Howell has opened a meat processing plant north of Florence, which is equipped to handle half a ton daily.

Visiting at the home of Mrs. Emma Van Allen is her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Venum of Chicago.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Evangelical church will meet in the church annex Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Grove and Mrs. Otto Morsen as co-hostesses.

Meat Demonstration To Be Friday

NOTI—There will be a meeting at the schoolhouse Friday, 8 p. m., Oct. 15 for the demonstration of curing meats and fish. A. W. Oliver of the animal husbandry department of Oregon State college will be there to give the demonstration. Everyone interested is welcome to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Jay and Mrs. James Jay of Eugene have returned from San Francisco, where they visited James and Otis Jay of the U. S. navy, while their boat was in dock there.

Mrs. Leon Lewis of San Francisco is spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wilson. Mrs. Lewis is Mr. Wilson's sister.

Kenneth Garner and Melvin Ringdahl left Tuesday for army induction at Fort Lewis.

Irving Grangers Report Program

IRVING.—Irving grange met recently. During the business meeting the names of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stella were voted on to become members. This being Booster night the Master, J. W. Maxwell, gave the welcome address. The lecturer, Mrs. Charles Zabriske, presented the following program: song by the grange, Mrs. Black from Santa Clara, two solos; Margarie Flanagan, a reading, "The House Beside the Road." Elmo Chase was the booster night speaker. He read an essay that he had written on the subject, "The Grange in War Service." A solo was sung by Charles Zabriske; group singing by the grange as the closing number. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Inez Powell and Mrs. J. W. Maxwell. At the next grange meeting Mrs. Mary Coldren and Mrs. Esther Mailey will serve on the lunch committee and ladies are asked to bring doughnuts and coffee cream.

Store Broken Into At Oakridge Sunday

OAKRIDGE—The E. E. Smith general merchandise store was broken into sometime during the early morning Sunday. Entrance was made by removing the lock from the front door. A small amount of cash is the only thing that was taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Putnam and daughter, Phyllis, of Palo Alto, Cal., were in Oakridge recently on their way to Corvallis where Miss Putnam will enter the Oregon State college. While in Oakridge they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith, who entertained with a bridge party in their honor. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Putnam, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richter, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Wicks and family of Eugene are new arrivals in Oakridge, having come to take over the management of the Hi-Way cafe. They live in an apartment in the rear of the building.

Eldon Forbis, who has been working for the S. P. company here for some time has gone to El Paso, Texas, to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cook have left in company with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clark, for Hermiston, where they will make their home.

Navy Man Visits

Norman Shorey, who is in training as a radio operator in the naval air corp, is here visiting his father, Guy Shorey, and his brother, Larry. He has been stationed at a training camp in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wiley have returned from a successful deer hunting trip in the eastern Oregon country.

Mrs. Elsie Clark has moved to Eugene to make her home with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Fort. She sold her property here to Mr. and Mrs. Duane Stephens.

W. G. Sutton was home over the week-end from Seattle, where he has been doing defense work. Accompanying him were, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams, also of Seattle.

Miss Veda Rogers is working at the Hi-Way cafe.

Miss Madeline Richter is home from Bend where she has been engaged in defense work. She will be here about two weeks before leaving for a new location.

B. W. Moore has gone to Redding, Cal., to make his home.

Official spelling of Moscow is Mosky,

Hours Announced At Grove Cannery

COTTAGE GROVE—Donald Kabler announces that the Cottage Grove cannery will be open Wednesday, October 13 from 3 p. m. until 6 p. m., and on Saturday from 8 a. m. until 3 p. m.

Peter Jackson, FM 2-C who has been in the South Pacific, is home on a 15-day leave visiting his father. He enlisted in the navy 14 months ago.

Mrs. Katherine McCain and son, Jimmie, of Portland, are spending this week at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Woods.

Wednesday Calendar
8:00—Royal Arch Masons will meet at the Masonic temple.

Thursday Calendar
12:00—Lions club will meet at the Rainbow cafe for luncheon and business meeting.

1:30—W.B.C. dessert at the home of Mrs. O. W. Blackmore.

1:30—Dessert of the Social Twelve at the home of Mrs. Maude Wright.

2:00—Our Bouquet Garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Martin.

7:30—Dessert of the Elite bridge club at the home of Mrs. Orlo Bagley.

7:30—Royal club will meet at the home of Mrs. Maybelle Wilson with Mrs. O. W. Blackmore and Mrs. George Currin assistant hostesses.

W.S.C.S. Group
Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon at the church. Mrs. N. E. Compton had charge of the lesson and Mrs. Ransom Come led devotions. An announcement was made that Mrs. Hansen a returned missionary from China will be the guest speaker at the sub-district meeting to be held here in Cottage Grove, November 5. Refreshments were served by the following hostesses, Mrs. Albert Woodard, Mrs. Dora Allen, and Mrs. H. C. Rose.

The Cottage Grove chapter No. 4, Order of Eastern Star, met Friday evening at the Masonic temple. Initiation was held for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vohs and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Taylor. The next meeting will be children's night. A report by Miss Eunice Vandenberg was given of a visit to the Springfield field chapter and Mrs. Ida Williams gave a report on a visit to Creswell. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harriet Horn, Mrs. Mary Workman, and Mrs. Gladys Hall.

To Go Prineville
Those attending a reception in Prineville last Saturday, given by Carnation chapter of O.E.S. for Mrs. Hazel Foster, associate grand matron, were Mrs. William Thum, Mrs. J. P. Graham, Miss Helen Olson, Mrs. Julia Powell, and Mrs. Bonney Schilling. They returned Sunday over the Willamette pass.

Butler maternity home to Mr. and Mrs. George Cortez of Saginaw, a son, Harold Wayne.

Born at the Butler maternity home on Monday, October 11, to Private and Mrs. Oliver Freeman of Cottage Grove, a daughter, Marie.

Private and Mrs. Hubert Campbell of Cottage Grove, announce the birth of a daughter, on Sunday, October 10, at the McFarland maternity home.

Library Gets Books

YONCALLA—The Yoncalla public library is open from 2 p. m. until 4 p. m. on Tuesdays. New books in the library are: "Renfrew Rides North," Erskine; "Wee Winkles and Wide Awake," Jackson; "Money Shines," Andrews; "Steeldust," Birney; "Stocky," the Lone Tree Ranch; "Snow," the Story of Don Quixote," Edwards and Paulson; "The Princess Pocahontas," Watson; "Cistune," Lawrence; "The Bobsey Twins in Echo Valley," Hope; "The Bobsey Twins and Bonny May," Hope; "The Sea," Hope; "Friendly Fairies," Guelle; "Rainbow Hill," Lawrence; "Whispers at Dawn," Swell; "Fair Tales from Baltic Shores," Mutt; "Veronica," Spyr; "The Adventure Girls in the Air," Blank; "Mitty's Class Day," Alcott; "The Sea Dog," Bartlett; "The Berry Patch," Lawrence; "Thornton Burgess Animal Stories," Burgess; "Timothy's House," Disney; "Peter Pan," Elliott; "Five Little Peppers," Midway; "Fifteen Rabbits," Salten; "Children of Foreign Land," McCrady; "Bowser the Hound," Burgess; "The Children's Blue Bird," Henderson; "Eight Little Indians," Lovell; "Flaming River," McAllister; "The Children's Bible Story Book," Pollard; "The Tin Woodman of Oz," Baum; "Tanglewood Tales," Hawthorne; "Dog," Turhune; "How the Leopard Got His Spots," Kipling; "Next Door Neighbors," Lawrence; "The Peddler's Clock," Hunt; "Flappy," Hayes; "Raggedy Ann and Andy," Guelle; "A Book of Battles," Bart; "A Yankee Flier in North Africa," Avery; "Sky Attack," Cook; "Billy Smith Trail Easter Ace," Sainbury, Jr.; "Lost Squadron," Cook; "Secret Mission," Cook; "Flying Wildcats Marquies," Marquies; "Wings Over the World," Marquies; "Judy," Bailey; "Derry of Totem Creek," Evans; "Renfrew Rides the Range," Erskine; "Old Mother West Wind," Burgess; "Mother West Wind's Children," Burgess; "The Land of Oz," Baum; "Here, Tricks, Here," Michell; "Mrs. Peter Rabbit," Burgess; "Old Granny Fox," Burgess; "Happy Jack," Burgess; "Born," Dunn; "The Birds of America," Audubon; "Mother West Wind When" stories, Burgess.

Official spelling of Moscow is Mosky,

Cottage Grove News Is Reported

COTTAGE GROVE—Wallace Morelock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Morelock who has been in a Eugene hospital the past two weeks, was brought home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nelson and daughter of Bremerton, Wn., came a few days ago to visit at the home of Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meranda. Mr. Nelson has returned to Bremerton where he is in defense work and Mrs. Nelson and daughter are remaining for a longer visit.

Wednesday Calendar
9:30 to 11:30—Surgical dressings class meets at the Masonic temple under the direction of Miss Clyde Roberts.

1:30 to 4:30—Surgical dressings class meets at the Masonic temple under the direction of Mrs. John Fineran.

2:30—Presbyterian Aid society's annual experience social, at the church. Hostesses are Mrs. Joe Smith, Mrs. Alfred Wulff, Mrs. R. S. Drenner and Mrs. J. P. Graham.

7:30—Aircraft recognition class at the Jefferson school under the direction of Miss Sibyl Veach.

7:30—Westminster Guild of the Presbyterian church meets at the home of Mrs. Stewart Carlson.

8:00—Fraternal Order of Eagles meets at the Eagles hall.

John Bosserman

HARRISBURG—John Bosserman died suddenly at his home Oct. 9. He was born Oct. 30, 1875, at Harrisburg. On Oct. 30, 1929, he was married to Mrs. Helen Reese, who preceded him in death Jan. 22, 1942. Mr. Bosserman was a member of the Harrisburg Christian church and of the Masonic lodge, Harrisburg. He leaves one brother, Ora Bosserman of Springfield, and the following stepchildren: Jacob Reese of Corvallis, Mrs. Helen Fitzwater of Lebanon, Mrs. Ida Grimes of Pennsylvania, and Miss Elsie Reese of Harrisburg.

The funeral was held at the Miller-Sherman chapel in Harrisburg, Monday afternoon.

Deerhorn News

DEERHORN—A-S Dale Koozer is now at Santa Ana, Cal. He is an air student after nearly two years of training in the air corps at various bases in the south and east. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Koozer.

Word has been received here from Sgt. Lester Wheeler that his rank has been changed to staff sergeant. He has been overseas for some time and his post office is New York. He reports his work is connected with the personnel offices. He taught school here for several years and made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Rennie Koozer during that time.

Many new buildings have been erected or, are under construction this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ramsey's home has been started. They lost their home in a fire four months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson have nearly completed their garage. Mr. and Mrs. Eston Brady have been building a wood house and garage. The Perkins home is being remodeled and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shrode are remodeling their home.

At Post
A change is being made in the observation post routine. It will only be manned when there is an alert instead of 24 hours a day. However, the personnel will still be subject to call at any time. Key observers will be announced later.

The post was originally started in Deerhorn in February, 1942, with people having phones and others close to phones as observers. Mrs. Ruby Koozer has been the chief observer for a year and a half of service. Many of the observers have their 100 hour arm bands. Thirteen have their 500 hour medals and several more will soon have theirs coming. Three have received their 1000 hour medals. The post has had two homes besides the private homes.

Marion Bigelow has burned the slashing is being cut and burned now that the weather is so much cooler, and there is not the danger of fire that there was.

The P-TA meeting will be held Thursday evening at the school house. Refreshments will be cookies and coffee.

Marcola News

MARCOLA—The Junior mother's club held its regular meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Mildred Young. Election of officers was held and Carol Spices was chosen president; Ruth Carson, vice-president; Louise Neff, secretary; Ilma Faust, treasurer; and Edith Dichel, project leader. The evening was spent playing games with prizes going to Carol Spicer, Ilma Faust, Louise Neff. The next meeting will be at the home of Ruth Carson on Oct. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy McCormack and Miss Jewell Fischer of Seattle spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Werner.

Raymond Johnson is spending a short leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, and with other relatives and friends here. He has been in training at the naval centers in Norman, Oklahoma.

Lewis Bloom is home on leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blum.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Neil and son, Jack, of Portland, are spending this week with relatives here.

Tech. Sgt. William Wheeler has left to return to Ft. Ord, Calif., after being home on furlough.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANN'S

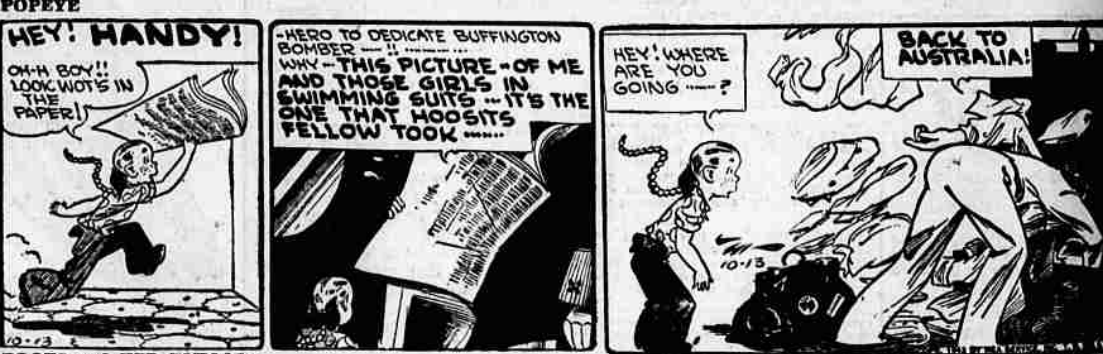

GASOLINE ALLEY

BLONDIE

POPEYE

BOOTS and HER BUDDIES

WASH TUBBS

ALLEY OOP

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

OUR BOARDING HOUSE