Shot and Tagged, Deer Gives Hunter Final Surprise

MYRTLE POINT, Ore., (AP)—If you don't believe this one, Hunter Leo Clements of Portland will show you the carcass, to prove it.

While hunting in eastern Oregon, Clement shot a buck. He attached his tag and started to bleed the carcass when up jumped the buck and ran off down a ravine.

Suddenly a shot rang out. "Our hunter ran toward the sound and found another huntsman standing over his deer. In the ensuing argument over who owned the deer, Nimrod No. 2, exasperated, finally said, "Okay, pal. If you are hunter enough to tag a live buck, it's yours—even though I did kill it."

Have a Coca-Cola = Here's tae us

...or how to build friendship in Scotland

Coasting a new acquaintance, the friendly Scotsman says, Here's tae us. The American fighting man responds, Have a "Coke", and a new friendship is sealed... in Dundee as in Dallas. Around the globe Coca-Cola stands for the peace that refreshes—has become the symbol of the friendly-minded.

Coca-Cola
the global high sign

It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
