

Bethel P-TA Plans Meeting on Friday

BETHEL—The Parent-Teacher association will hold the first meeting of the year Friday, Oct. 22, at 8 p. m. at the Bethel school. All parents interested are asked to attend. There will be a speaker to give information concerning the project of sponsoring Boy Scout troops in the Bethel district, the scout council making the request to the Bethel P-TA.

Mrs. J. N. Leigh and C. P. Leigh, of Parma, Idaho, were recent guests at the J. D. Lambert home. Miss Joyce Anderson of Portland visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Anderson.

Mrs. J. E. Hendrickson and son, John have returned from Redwood City, Cal., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. S. M. McLaughlin.

Craft Launched at Reedsport Tuesday

REEDSPORT—The Dorene B, first of four similar crafts to be built by Fred Schulte, Gardner boatbuilder, was launched on Tuesday, Mrs. Schulte acting as the sponsor.

The Dorene B, named for the daughter of the owner, Capt. Neil Burton, of San Francisco, is of Douglas fir construction, 85 feet in length with an 18-foot beam, and cost $18,000. The hull was towed to the Reedsport outfitting dock where a 135 horsepower Caterpillar, V-8 Diesel motor will be installed together with refrigerating plant, auxiliary engine, and other equipment, bringing the total cost of the vessel to approximately $45,000. The boat will be operated for the Van Camp Seafoods Product Co., of California and is one of four to be constructed at the Schulte plant for Captain Burton and the Van Camp Co.

DEERHORN NEWS

DEERHORN—Chief Petty Officer Wilbur Odell has returned to duty at Bremerton after a 30-day furlough here. This was his first visit home for six years. He is the brother of Mrs. Metta Watson of Deerhorn and son of Mrs. Alice Odell of Eugene, formerly of here.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Johnson have received word from Mr. Johnson's brother, P. C. Raymond A. Johnson, that he will soon be home on a furlough from the Aleutians. This will be the first time since he enlisted two years ago that he has been home. He went immediately to Alaska after enlistment. He was transferred from Alaska to the Aleutians where he has spent most of his time.

The White Elephant club will hold its next all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Raymond Bates on Wednesday, Oct. 27. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon. Mrs. Mary Hubbard's birthday will be remembered. All ladies of the community are invited.

FUNERAL HELD

DRAIN—Graveside services were held Monday afternoon in the Sunnydale cemetery, west of Drain, S. W. Herman, 72, who died at Cottage Grove Tuesday, Oct. 22, at his home. The Gertie family lived in Drain many years, before moving to Cottage Grove.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE

From Oakridge

OAKRIDGE—Miss Veda Rogers and Pvt. John W. Sells were married in Eugene, Thursday. Mrs. Sells is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers of Oakridge and she has returned to make her home with her parents. Pvt. Sells is with the engineers division of the army, and is stationed at a camp in California.

Mrs. Daphne Stevens has returned to her home in California after spending some time with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Henson.

Mrs. Lena Mae Sulzski has returned to her home in Mississippi after visiting her mother, Mrs. Ruth Mattoon. Her husband is with the U. S. army stationed at a camp in Mississippi. Mrs. Sulzski will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mattoon, in Seattle before going home.

Guy Shorey has sold his interest in the Jolly Time cafe to Mr. and Mrs. A. Koskey who were in partnership with Mr. Shorey. Mr. and Mrs. Koskey have made a number of improvements in the place and are now open for business.

Winston Allard has arrived from a camp in Alaska for a brief visit with his wife who is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Walker.

Visits Daughter

Mrs. Ellen Follet of Crawfordville is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Orr.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Singletary have left on a two months vacation trip through the south stopping for visits with relatives at Lubbock, Texas and Baton Rouge, La.

Miss Cleo Hebert who has been working at Vanport for some time is visiting her mother, Mrs. Charlie Hebert.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Darling and son Andrew and Mrs. Emma Miller of Portland have returned to their homes after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Miller. Mrs. Darling is Mr. Miller's sister and Mrs. Miller is his mother.

Frank Singletary is doing some carpentry work in the Oakridge postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clark have gone to Fresno, Cal. to visit their son and daughter-in-law. Mr. Clark operates the Clark barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cecil are the grandparents of a baby girl born to their daughter, Frankie Cecil Mars in Eugene recently. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil will visit their daughter, and granddaughter this week.

Darrell F. Cronoble who has been employed in the S. P. depot has gone to Portland to make his home.

AT GOLDSON—Goldson grange held its regular meeting Friday night. Mrs. Mountain furnished the refreshments. Edward Olsen and Martin Hansen were visitors. After the meeting music and dancing were enjoyed. For the next meeting it was decided that all members take part in a program or pay a fine in some way. The weather man really played a trick on this district by dishing out rain, hail, snow, and then sunshine, Sunday.

Mrs. Stella Powell, and Mrs. Effie Cox, Mrs. Pearl Brown, and Mrs. Coral Hansen attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Ada Carter at her home last week. Mrs. Carter received many gifts. A potluck dinner was served at noon.

Police Docket and Property Sales Listed

COTTAGE GROVE—Listed on the police docket for the past week are the following arrests and traffic citations: Peter J. Chalifoux, arrested for being drunk, forfeited $50.00 bail; traffic citations issued to W. G. Brown, W. L. Sweider, W. L. Weber, Opal E. Brown, E. Harris, W. Townsend, and H. E. Hixson.

Real estate sales made recently by Mrs. Merl King, local salesman for Rodman real estate company, were: a house and lot on Birch avenue, sold to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushong; one acre on North River Road, sold to Mrs. Woodruff; the Circle M Ranch of 26 acres sold to Mr. and Mrs. Suddery from Compton, Cal.; W. A. Woodward bought 16 acres from Jake Kraal.

Friday Calendar
7:30—Rebekah staff will hold a practice at the I.O.O.F. hall.
8:00—Eastern Star chapter meets at the Masonic temple.

Annual Teachers' Reception Held

COBURG—The annual teachers' reception was held in the auditorium of the school recently. The following program was presented: piano solo, by Mrs. James Green; vocal solo, by Kathleen Hawes; music, by the Smith trio; group singing; introduction of the teachers and presentation of corsages, by Mrs. Harold Woodruff, past-president of the parent-teacher association. Refreshments were served in the auditorium following the program. A business session of the Parent-Teacher association was held recently at the school. Plans for the hot lunches for the school children were discussed.

Mrs. Gerald Wilson entertained the Willing Workers club at her home Tuesday afternoon. The group worked on war relief work. Mrs. Leda Freeland and Miss Vail of the county public health association presented a film on tuberculosis and Miss Vail held a discussion on infantile paralysis. Arrangements were made for the benefit card party for the war relief, which will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas, Saturday evening, Oct. 30. The committee in charge includes: Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mrs. Hal Harrington, Mrs. Arthur Roach and Mrs. Verne Tyler. Each club member may invite one additional couple and bring sandwiches. The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Eva Feulner was observed. The prize was won by Mrs. S. B. Hurler and the picture prize by Mrs. Harley Smith. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Walter Chase, Nov. 2.

AT GOLDSON—Goldson grange held its regular meeting Friday night. Mrs. Mountain furnished the refreshments. Edward Olsen and Martin Hansen were visitors. After the meeting music and dancing were enjoyed. For the next meeting it was decided that all members take part in a program or pay a fine in some way. The weather man really played a trick on this district by dishing out rain, hail, snow, and then sunshine, Sunday.

Mrs. Stella Powell, and Mrs. Effie Cox, Mrs. Pearl Brown, and Mrs. Coral Hansen attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Ada Carter at her home last week. Mrs. Carter received many gifts. A potluck dinner was served at noon.

AT GOLDSON—Goldson grange held its regular meeting Friday night. Mrs. Mountain furnished the refreshments. Edward Olsen and Martin Hansen were visitors. After the meeting music and dancing were enjoyed. For the next meeting it was decided that all members take part in a program or pay a fine in some way. The weather man really played a trick on this district by dishing out rain, hail, snow, and then sunshine, Sunday.

Examiners Due

REEDSPORT—Traveling examiners from the office of the secretary of state will be in the Reedsport city hall on Friday, Oct. 22, from 9 a. m. till 2 p. m., for the convenience of persons wishing to obtain licenses as automobile drivers or chauffeurs.

Admission-identification forms for the second qualifying test for the army specialized training program and the navy college program V-12, which will be held at the Reedsport union high school on Tuesday, November 9, may be secured at the school, according to announcement of S. T. Brannock, principal. This form properly filled out will admit to the test students between the ages of 17 and 21, inclusive, who are recent high school graduates or who will be graduated by March 1, 1944. The same examination will be given both army and navy candidates and is designed to test the aptitude and general knowledge required for the program of college training. All qualified students are urged to take the test, and at the time of the test each candidate will be given a choice of service preference but taking the test does not obligate the candidate to enlist in the service. The test does not obligate the candidate to enlist in the service. The army specialized training program and the navy college program enable students to continue academic training at government expense following induction into the armed services.

The old fashioned revival which has been underway for the past two weeks at the Reedsport I.O.O.F. hall has been transferred to the Rebekah hall. Services are held each evening at 7:30 o'clock, except on Thursday evenings, and on Sundays at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 7:30 p. m. Rev. C. M. King of Medford is conducting the revival services and Rev. Charles Tolson is pastor of the local church.

Sheriff Carter, Capt. Al Bashford of Roseburg and other members of the Roseburg group of mounted horsemen met with Reedsport horse lovers and owners last week, at which time steps were taken for the organization of a branch of the Roseburg or Central Douglas group, with E. G. Dunn, former mayor and Reedsport merchant, as sergeant.

WEDDING REPORTED

DRAIN—Miss Marie Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shirley, and Milo Haines, U. S. N. son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Haines were married Saturday evening at the Christian parsonage. Rev. James Powell officiating. The bride wore a blue tailored suit, with brown accessories, and corsage of pink roses and carnations. Those attending the wedding were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shirley, Jean

Further Drilling Under Way on Clay

COTTAGE GROVE—The U. S. bureau of mines recently moved its diamond drills and equipment from Hobart butte, where they have been making tests for alumina clay since January of this year, to the Charles L. Putnam property. The Hobart Butte section has been very thoroughly drilled, although the final determination on the tests is still to be made. They plan on putting down footage of approximately 1000 feet. At the present time there is one drill set up and working and they will soon have another one running, also a pumping plant. One from the Hobart butte and Putnam properties is being tested for alumina, ferric oxide, carbonization and fusion cone, pyrometric cone equivalent. From the Putnam property the drill may be moved to the Porter property two miles southeast of Cottage Grove.

Rally Day Service Held at Westfir

WESTFIR—Rally day exercises and awarding of attendance pins and Bibles were held at the Westfir community church Sunday school Sunday morning with a big attendance. The program was as follows: Song by all; welcome exercise by the primary pre-school class with Mrs. L. Fox as teacher and Miss Ellen Lansbery assisting; recitation by Loretta Ann Humphrey; recitation by Jimmie Haynie; exercise by the pupils of Miss Phyllis Eshom's class of juniors; song by Mrs. R. Buckner's class of intermediate girls; awarding of gold pins and certificates to the following for one year perfect attendance: Mrs. L. Fox, Marlene Elam, Jimmie Haynie, Shirley Ann Shephard. Bibles were given for faithful attendance to Clarence Allen, Elmer Noland, Ralph Cline, Geneva Fleming, Rhoda Dee Khohn, Evelyn Neal, Patsy Sue Wesner. received her pin for attending 26 Sundays consecutively.

The birthdays of Miss Lynette Montgomery and Miss Barbara Wesner were celebrated at a dinner in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Montgomery recently. Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wesner and children, Juanita, Barbara, Patsy Sue, Catherine, and Harvina. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and children Darrell, Lowell, and Lynette.

Carnival Set

NOTI—October 29 is the date of the annual Halloween carnival given by the Noti grade school. Festivities will start at 8:00 p. m. in the school basement.

Elery Perry is home on leave from the U. S. navy. He received a back injury and has been in a naval hospital in San Diego for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Suttle have received news of a new granddaughter. The baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wilson of Roseburg.

Word has been received by Raleigh Cook that his son, Donald Cook, is in an army hospital in Colorado, and may soon be home. He has been in North Africa and England.

Robert Suttle is home on a 15-day leave from the naval training base at Farragut, Idaho.

NEW CLUB FORMED

OAKRIDGE—A new sewing club was formed at the home of Mrs. E. Templeman when she entertained a group of women at her home recently. The club will be called the Victory Sewing club. After an afternoon of sewing and visiting, refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. V. H. Tibbets, Mrs. Ira Lee, Mrs. Claude Miller, Mrs. Harvey Harkins, Mrs. E. W. Smith and Mrs. Templeman. Mrs. R. C. Robertson and Mrs. Fred Henson were invited but were unable to attend. The next meeting of the group will be November 11 at the home of Mrs. Ira Lee.

Miss Madeline Richter spent the week-end on a hunting trip near Bend in company with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Diddler and Albert Zalanc.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bier and daughter, Verna, have returned to Oakridge to reside after having lived in Portland the past two years. Mr. Bier is a round-house foreman for the S. P. company. They own a home in Oakridge which has been occupied by Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Young. Mr. and Mrs. Young will move to the house next to the E. A. Hall home. Eddie Maas who has been foreman at the roundhouse has gone to Portland to work.

Bill Scruby, former high school student, is visiting his parents at McCredie Springs from Camp Farragut where he has just finished his boot training.

DRAIN ITEMS

Seattle visited last week at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Giovanni, and family.

Roy Patchen of Portland has arrived for a few days' visit with his mother, Mrs. Ida Patchen; sister, Mrs. Kenney, and brothers, C. H. Archie, and Cecil Patchen, and families.

Mrs. Andy Monson of Portland visited this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Varley.

Mrs. Lottie Vandervert and granddaughter, Patty Cannon, have left for Klamath Falls to visit relatives.

Due to the size of Liberator bombers, hangar space is not available for repair. Specially constructed "tents" are being used for the purpose of affording protection from the weather.

After continued service on car, possible play of wheels should be examined and having them packed.

DRAIN—Recent dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davis were the latter's mother, Mrs. Ruth Lakey, and brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Rossiter, and family, all of Springfield, and Mrs. Ethel Kesterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zilbeaur of Seattle visited last week at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Giovanni, and family.

Roy Patchen of Portland has arrived for a few days' visit with his mother, Mrs. Ida Patchen; sister, Mrs. Kenney, and brothers, C. H. Archie, and Cecil Patchen, and families.

Mrs. Andy Monson of Portland visited this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Varley.

Mrs. Lottie Vandervert and granddaughter, Patty Cannon, have left for Klamath Falls to visit relatives.

Due to the size of Liberator bombers, hangar space is not available for repair. Specially constructed "tents" are being used for the purpose of affording protection from the weather.

After continued service on car, possible play of wheels should be examined and having them packed.

YOU LOOK SEASICK, SAILOR!

I AM SICK AND TIRED OF ROWING THIS SCOW!

I THOUGHT THIS'D BE FUN— BUT WHEN I STARTED ROWING I GOT A STROKE, I FEEL LIKE HAVING ONE!

AWAY THERE, SAILOR! ROW ASHORE AND I'LL GUARANTEE YOU A STROKE OF LUCK!

SMART GIRL! THIS ROYAL CROWN COLA SURE GIVES ME A LIFT AND A FRESH START!

ADMIRABLE, ADMIRABLE, AND IT TASTES BEST, TOO!

MARIA MONTEZ SAYS

ONE'S BEST OF ALL!

Favorite Maria Montez took the famous cola taste-test two years ago... tasted leading colas... her vote was for Royal Crown Cola... voted best-tasting in a group taste-test in 8 out of 10 cases! Try it yourself!

ROYAL CROWN COLA

Best by Test-Test!

Buy C. Smith, Neth. Bot. Co., or Meade-Lead Creamery Co., Eugene, Ore.