Zonta Buys Uniforms For Scouts

By MARIAN LOWRY

FUNDS to purchase five uniforms for the Girl Scouts were voted by the Zonta club, women's service group, at its meeting, Wednesday evening. These uniforms will be turned in to the scout "uniform pool," through which girls unable to buy their own are able to secure them through this pool.

The club also discussed activities to aid in Red Cross work and delegated the service committee to report back at the next meeting. Mrs. Dorothy Metzger is chairman of this committee.

Another activity in November will be for the members to serve as senior hostesses at the USO one week. Mrs. C. A. Huntington is to have charge of this.

At the meeting Mrs. Glenn Pirtle, Red Cross executive secretary and a new member of the club, talked informally on the activities of the Red Cross office.

At Business Meeting

During the business session, the club voted its thanks to Mrs. Huntington and all other committee chairmen who assisted in staging the district conference the past week-end for clubs from Oregon and Washington. Mrs. Huntington was general chairman.

Four new members have been added to the club roll the past two weeks, including Mrs. Pirtle, Mrs. Bertha Fulwiler, Mrs. Ralph A. Hope, and Mrs. W. H. Hodes, the latter two being former members who have joined again.

At the meeting, Mrs. Frank A. Graham gave the official report on the recent district conference, she having been the local delegate.

A guest at the Wednesday meeting, which was held as a dessert at the home of Mrs. W. L. Davis, was Miss Julia Coburn of the Tobe-Coburn school of fashions careers, New York, she having been a visitor at the university through the day. Mrs. A. R. Fredrickson and others assisted Mrs. Davis with the serving.

For the next meeting, November 2, Mrs. Lillian Eldridge will be hostess chairman.

Miss Spicer Signs Up for WAVES

Miss Frances Josephine Spicer, 1823 Moss street, Eugene, has joined the WAVES, women's service of the U. S. navy, it is reported by Chief William E. Bell of the Eugene U. S. navy recruiting substation.

Miss Spicer will report soon to the WAVES indoctrination school at Hunter college, Columbia university, New York city, where she will begin training. In 1941, Miss Spicer was graduated from Eugene high school where she played the clarinet in the band. She attended University of Oregon in 1941-42, majoring in pre-medics. She is a member of the First Congregational church, Eugene. Miss Spicer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Spicer, Eugene.

Activities In Church Announced

VARIED events are scheduled in St. Mary's Episcopal church parish for next week.

On the coming Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. S. Bartlam, church rector, and Mrs. Bartlam, will be at home to members of the parish from three o'clock in the afternoon until ten in the evening at their residence, 2076 Agate street.

For next Tuesday evening, Oct. 26, a covered dish dinner is arranged at the parish hall for all of the parish at seven o'clock.

Bishop Benjamin Dagwell of the Oregon diocese and Bishop Frank A. Rhea of Idaho and other visiting church officials will be guests for the evening. The visitors are here for just the one occasion.

On the following Sunday afternoon, October 31, Rev. and Mrs. Bartlam will be at home from three until six o'clock for the university Episcopal students.

Red Cross Starts Nurses Aides Class

Mrs. John Bell has started a class of forty-two nurses aides at the University of Oregon infirmary as an activity of the Lane county chapter of the American Red Cross.

The urgency of this training program is emphasized by the Red Cross with the statement there is only one trained nurse to each six thousand population in this country.

The course is three nights a week, three hours per night, for a total of eighty hours. Two other classes will be organized within the next few days, one afternoon class for housewives and an evening class for business and professional women.

Watches Needed

There is a great need for watches with second hands for use in training these nurses aides, it is stated. Anyone having an extra watch with a second hand in running condition—any type, any value—is asked to call the Red Cross office, telephone 225, or bring the watch to the Red Cross office. The watch will be appraised by a professional jeweler and paid for in cash.

"This is an opportunity for the public to assist, not contribute, to safeguarding the general health and safety of the community," Mrs. Bell stated.

Recorded Concerts Start Soon

MEMBERS of Mu Phi Epsilon Patronesses association announce plans to continue their recorded concerts for the 1943-44 season for the University of Oregon students.

Last year the association found much response to the series. Although planned originally for the winter term, there were many requests for concerts to begin earlier.

This year, the series will start next Sunday, October 24, and will be held from four until five o'clock in the browsing room of the University of Oregon library.

The series is carried on through the interest and cooperation of the university library staff. This year's concerts are planned especially to interest the soldier trainees on the campus.

Recordings of the world's finest music are supplied for the hour's program. The plan, too, is to correlate the programs with the greater artists series of the university, and anniversaries, festivals, etc., featuring music. Also, fine music from various countries will be presented.

A request box will be used in which students may place their preferences. Also, there will be a display of books on composers whose works will be played at the recorded concerts.

Mrs. Everett E. Harpham is general chairman for the series. On the library committee are Miss Bernice Rise, chairman; Willis Warren, Miss True Morris, Miss Ella Carrick, Mrs. Frances Newsom. Others on the general committee are Mrs. John Stehn from the Mu Phi Epsilon alumnae, Miss Genevieve Graves of the Mu Phi Epsilon active chapter, Mrs. Lloyd A. Payne from the Mu Phi Epsilon patronesses. The recording machine for the concerts is loaned by Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

All Saints Guild Is Entertained

All Saints guild, St. Mary's Episcopal church, was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the Delta Delta Delta sorority with Miss Pearle Bonisteel as hostess. Mrs. N. H. Anderson and Mrs. Mabel Munger were guests. Mrs. C. A. Macrum was announced as a new member. Sixteen members besides the two guests attended.

Further plans were made for the doll show to be held November 12 and 13. All women of the church having dolls of special interest and value are invited to display them at the show, a silver tea to be held in connection with the exhibit.

The guild is to be in charge of the parish dinner at the church next Tuesday evening.
